INTRODUCTION

_The Vision and the Voice_ of the Angels of the thirty Aethyrs, reprinted from the Equinox, Volume 1, Supplement to No. 5, but here represented for the first time with an elaborate commentary by the MASTER THERION, is unique in that it attempts to describe in a perfectly sane and scientific manner spiritual experiences, and the investigations of the more subtle planes.

The first attempts to obtain these visions were made in 1900, in Mexico, where FRATER PERDURABO had journeyed in his efforts to obtain a perfect understanding of the mystic traditions and methods of attainment of every race and clime. The first two Aires were investigated on November 14 and 17, 1900. _The Vision and the Voice_ was mysterious and terrific in character. But what he saw was not altogether beyond his previous experiences; what he heard was as unintelligible to him as William Blake to a 7th Day Adventist. He was encouraged by the evident importance of these results, but found that he was absolutely unable to proceed with the 28th Aethyr. It became evident, some 9 years later, that what stopped his further exploration of the Aethyrs in 1900 was simply that his Grade did not entitle him to go further than the 29th. In fact only a Master of the Temple, $8x = 3\{\text{square } x\}$, can penetrate beyond a certain point, and further, as sections of the Comment point out, even a Master of the Temple cannot pierce through the veils surrounding the outer of these Aires.

The Seer had not thought of continuing this work for nearly 9 years. It is not at all clear how the idea came to him in 1909, during a walk through the Desert with Frater O.V., (Victor Neuburg) a Probationer of the A.A., but at Aumale a Hand suddenly smote its lightning into his heart, and he knew that now, that very day, he must take up _The Vision and the Voice_ from the point where he had laid it down in 1900. Parallel to this, it is also possible that he had in his ruck sack one of his earliest Magical Note Books, where he had copied with infinite patience the 19 Calls or Keys obtained by Sir Edward Kelly from certain Angels and written down by Queen Elizabeth's astrologer, Dr. John Dee.

The facts that stamp these Keys or Calls are these. Over 100 squares filled with letters were obtained by these two Magicians, in a manner which no one yet has quite understood. Dee would have one or more of these tables (as a rule 49 by 49) --- some full, others lettered only on alternate squares --- before him on a writing table. Kelly would sit at what they called the Holy Table, and gaze into a "Shewstone" in which he would see an Angel, who would point with a wand to letters on one of these charts in succession. Kelly would report, for example, "He points to column 6, rank 31", and so on, apparently not mentioning the letter, which Dee found and wrote down from the "Table" before him. When the Angel had finished, the message was rewritten backwards. It had been dictated backwards as being too dangerous to communicate forwards --- each word being in its nature so powerful that its direct communication would have evoked forces which were not wanted at that time.

These Keys being re-written backwards, there then appeared conjurations in a language which they called "Enochian", or "Angelic". It is not a jargon; it has a grammar and a syntax of its own. It is far more sonorous, stately and impressive than even Greek or Sanskrit and the English translations, though in places difficult to understand, contain passages of a sustained sublimity that Shakespeare, Milton and the Bible do not surpass.

"Can the Wings of the Wind understand your voices of Wonder? O Ye! The Second of the First! whom the burning flames have framed in the depths of my Jaws! Whom I have prepared as cups for a wedding, or as flowers in their beauty for the chamber of Righteousness! Stronger are your feet than the barren stone! and mightier are your voices than the manifold winds! For you are become a building such as is not, save in the mind of the All-Powerful."

(Second Key)

There are nineteen of these Keys: the first two conjuring the element called Spirit; the next sixteen invoke the Four Elements; each sub-divided into four; the nineteenth, by changing two names, may be used to invoke any one of what are called the thirty "Aethyrs" or "Aires".

The genuineness of these Keys, altogether apart from any critical observation, is guaranteed by the fact that anyone with the smallest capacity for Magick finds that they work. The Seer had used these Keys a great deal, --- always with excellent effect. It was in Mexico that the idea occurred to him to discover for himself what these Aethyrs really were, by invoking them in turn by means of the nineteenth key, and, by skrying in the Spirit Vision, judge their nature by what he saw and heard.

It was then in Aumale, that he prepared to commence once more the investigations of these Aethyrs, and accordingly bought a number of notebooks. After dinner, on the 23rd of November, 1909, he invoked the 28th Aethyr by means of this 19th Key. When it was compared with those of the 29th and 30th Aethyrs, --- lo and behold, there were exhibited the same peculiarities of subject and style. This is true also of the 27th, and so on to the 24th; yet there is a continuous advance towards coherence both in each Aethyr itself, and as regards its neighbour. The subject shows solemnity and sublimity, as well as the tendency to fit in with those conceptions of the Cosmos, those mystic Laws of Nature, and those ideas of transcendental Truth which had already been foreshadowed in _The Book of the Law_ (Vernal Equinox, 1904), and the more exalted of the trances which the Seer had experienced prior to this date.

The Method of obtaining _The Vision and the Voice_ was as follows.

The Seer had with him a great golden topaz (set in a Calvary Cross of six squares, made of wood, and painted vermillion) which was engraved with a Greek Cross of five squares charged with the Rose of 49 petals. He held this, as a rule, in his hand. After choosing a spot where he was not likely to be disturbed he would take this stone and recite the Enochian Call, and after satisfying himself that the forces invoked were actually present, made the topaz play a part not unlike that of the looking glass in the case of Alice. (He had long learned not to trouble himself to travel to any particular place in his Body of Light. He realized that Space was not a thing in itself, but merely a convenient category [one of many such] by reference to which we can distinguish objects from each other.) He would then describe what he saw and repeat what he heard, and Frater O.V., the Scribe, would write down his words, and incidentally observe any phenomena which struck him as peculiar. (For instance, He would at times pass into a deep trance so that many minutes might pass between two successive sentences, as the text to the later Aethyrs shows.)

They walked steadily through the Desert, invoking the Aethyrs, one by one, at convenient times and places, or when the Spirit moved them. As a rule, one Aethyr was obtained every day. Bou-Sada was reached on November 30th; on December 8th they started again through the desert for Biskra which they reached on December 16th, completing the work on the 19th. By the time Bou-Sada was reached, and they had arrived at the 20th Aethyr, the Seer began to understand that these visions were, so to speak, cosmopolitan. They brought all systems of Magical doctrine into harmonious relation. The symbolism of Asiatic cults; the ideas of the Qabalah, both Jewish and Greek; the Arcana of the Gnostics; the Pagan Pantheon, from Mithras to Mars; the Mysteries of Ancient Khem; the Rites of Eleusis; the Scandinavian Sagas; Celtic and Druidical ritual; Mexican and Polynesian traditions; the Mysticism of Molinos no less than that of Islam,— all these fell into their proper places without the slightest tendency to quarrel. The whole of the past Aeon, in short, appeared in detailed perspective, and each element therefore surrendered its sovereignty to Horus, the Crowned and Conquering Child, the Lord of the Aeon announced in _The Book of the Law_

Love is the law, love under will.

Frater E. N. L.
Apollonius’ Introduction

Prophetic revelation is the fundamental resource for any spiritual tradition or religion. Shamans from time immemorial have delivered this from fevered trances and tarantellas; even that poisons and toxic hallucinogens have been delivered from sacred mushrooms to the gases emerging from ancient Greek caves. The modern mage as shaman uses the visionary trance called skrying to make contact with the spirit world. And like the aboriginal shaman, he uses the information to steer his tribal community. But for us in the modern world, it’s not a vision to lead a tribe to happier hunting grounds, but to provide the vision that meets the needs of the moral construct of our society at this time in history.

This book founds the Thelemic mythos that was first introduced to us through Liber AL vel Legis; by in some cases, elaborating on some of the symbols found in the original transmission and in other cases, presenting new symbols to better acculturate us to the paradigm upon which we will determine existential pursuits as both individuals and as a people ‘of the book.’ But our first attention does turn to the fulfillment of certain prophecies given in the Book of the Law being found in Liber 418, as that then adds credulity to the original revelation. And the skrying of the Enochian Aethyrs gave to Crowley a potent revelation that provides the ideological foundation for Thelemic doctrine.

Perhaps the most significant revelation that links Liber 418 with Liber AL is the secret name of Nuit being revealed.

Now, therefore, I am known to ye by my name Nuit, and to him by a secret name which I will give him when at last he knoweth me. Since I am Infinite Space, and the Infinite Stars thereof, do ye also thus. Bind nothing! Let there be no difference made among you between any one thing & any other thing; for thereby there cometh hurt.—AL:I.22

As an aspect of Nuit, Babalon is not only presented here with her function described in some great detail, but she becomes the ancient Goddess worshipped in the ancient pantheistic religion. More down to Earth, she is reflected in the office of the Scarlet Woman (as is the God reflected down into the office of the Beast), which is first found in Liber AL and elaborated here.

Now ye shall know that the chosen priest & apostle of infinite space is the prince-priest the Beast; and in his woman called the Scarlet Woman is all power given. They shall gather my children into their fold: they shall bring the glory of the stars into the hearts of men.
—AL:I.15

Behold! these be grave mysteries; for there are also of my friends who be hermits. Now think not to find them in the forest or on the mountain; but in beds of purple, caressed by magnificent beasts of women with large limbs, and fire and light in their eyes, and masses of flaming hair about them; there shall ye find them. Ye shall see them at rule, at victorious armies, at all the joy; and there shall be in them a joy a million times greater than this. Beware lest any force another, King against King! Love one another with burning hearts; on the low men trample in the fierce lust of your pride, in the day of your wrath.
—AL:II.24
Ye shall see that hour, o blessed Beast, and thou the Scarlet Concubine of his desire!
—AL:III.14

The other images group around me to support me: let all be worshipped, for they shall cluster to exalt me. I am the visible object of worship; the others are secret; for the Beast & his Bride are they: and for the winners of the Ordeal x. What is this? Thou shalt know.
—AL:III.22

Let the Scarlet Woman beware! If pity and compassion and tenderness visit her heart; if she leave my work to toy with old sweetmesses; then shall my vengeance be known. I will slay me her child: I will alienate her heart: I will cast her out from men: as a shrinking and despised harlot shall she crawl through dusk wet streets, and die cold and an-hungered.
—AL:III.43

Perhaps a point of controversy arises when rather than the consort of Babalon in Liber 418, Liber AL seems to suggest just one Beast or some type of papal office, as some have claimed in the past. Though it seems more significant that we recognize the first Magick to be writing and that the handwriting of any prophet in the transmission of prophecy is as important as the prophecy itself.

This book shall be translated into all tongues: but always with the original in the writing of the Beast; for in the chance shape of the letters and their position to one another: in these are mysteries that no Beast shall divine. Let him not seek to try: but one cometh after him, whence I say not, who shall discover the Key of it all. Then this line drawn is a key: then this circle squared in its failure is a key also. And Abrahadabra. It shall be his child & that strangely. Let him not seek after this; for thereby alone can he fall from it. —AL:III.47

The Scarlet Woman, her function and her nature is explained somewhat in Liber AL, but not the larger archetype of Babalon, which then of course, broadens our understanding of the Scarlet Woman. And we learn further of the mutual complementarity of Babalon and Pan. But nowhere in Liber AL is Choronzon discussed; this issue being addressed solely in Liber 418. And its origin is actually in the original work of Dee & Kelly, which connects Liber AL and Liber 418 with the continuing Judeo-Christian Gnosis: Old Testament, New Testament & Post-Modern Testament.

Motta writes, Thelema has come to correct the errors of Christianity and restore the ancient Gnosis. Rather, we see this as more than a correction on a corruption that starts with the ancient Rabbinical cast. We see this as a further development of a revelation that starts with the Torah and evolves into Gospels and now into a grand Magickal Record; a continuance of an ancient apocalyptic tradition founded by Jewish mystics and expanded into a eucharistic tradition and that now becomes prophetic.

But the character and nature of prophecy must be carefully explained. It is not some hyper-extended form of divination that predicts the future. Rather, it is revealed Gnosis that affects the psyche and produces both initiatory experience and helps us to find our place in the cosmos. Echoing the symbols of John’s Revalation shows us how both Dee&Kelly’s work, along with Crowley’s work continues a tradition that has organically emerged in what is coalescing as Western consciousness in contrast with the paradigm of the East. It answers to the issues raised in the Apocalypse of John regarding his denunciation of the Goddess, as much as it revives the tradition of the ancient and controversial Hebrew mystics, who were denounced by the Rabbinical cast.

This book is an act of creation; the invention of the Thelemic mythos. It’s the natural complement of Liber AL (especially) and all the Holy Books of Thelema in that it enjoins them all into one singular Rosicrucian Vision via the constantly appearing Rose Cross symbol. It portrays the process of congealing the collective soul of our race with the dawning integral aeon of Horus and inaugurates an ethos for the post-industrial era--after the death of the old world order as heralded by Nietzsche: “God is dead.” This book responds by saying “Long live God”--but in a way not understood during the preceding matriarchal and patriarchal aeons.

As an act of creation, Crowley not only conjures up a host of apocalyptic style imagery, but he also conducts these energies into manifestation by opening up our collective psyche to the emergent post-industrial mythos. This is the channeling of fresh fever from the skies wherein the Master Therion shows a mastery of the initiations of the Ethical Triad; the skryings of the 30 Aethyrs being the skryings of an Adeptus Major at his Great Work and ultimately, the completion of such a task showing him to be an Adeptus Exemptus. Hua, the great angel that is set over the Holy Tarot appears here to show that by the art of invocation, the natural law of the Obeah and the Wanga are set into motion, so that divining into things unseen and revealing them is naturally accompanied by their manifestation.

This work is really the record of a Dharana; a vision of Crowley’s initiation into the College of the Rosy Cross and an extension of the Gnostic Dialogue; shown as much in Liber LXV. The Angel of each Aethyr really might be said to be Crowley’s Holy Guardian Angel. So that the 30 Aethyrs being concentric circles that radiate (sort of as waves) between the four elemental Watchtowers are presented here in these skryings; really, as one great realm housing the College of the Rose Cross.

What manifests in the Master Therion’s shewstone formulates itself in the collective psyche of our race, while also affecting the individual psyche of the Operator. And so it is arguable that there is a great initiation taking place in this work. However, the initiation is within the College of the Rose Cross and other images pertaining to the College of the Silver Star are as seen from the inferior college. So that indeed, this work is a record of the work of an Adeptus Major and a completion of such work conferring the Grade of Adeptus Exemptus.

So the assertions by Crowley that the record here portrays him as obtaining Magister Templi, Magus or Ipsissimus are a part of the lower ego of the imp. While indeed, all the work of the higher Grades takes place in the astral house (Yesod; the Sefirot concentric, much in the same way as the Aethyrs), images in the shewstone are merely the Obeah and can only provide half the formula. The other half must take place in the dynamic that occurs between the individual and the four worlds in which he is interacting. So that even the intense nature of what is referred to here as Crowley’s initiation at Tiphareth is but the Obeah; it’s record acting as a talisman in the phenomenal universe.

In the grander purpose that it serves, the record is for us the authoritative source for Thelemic doctrine, as it fully establishes the epic mythos for this aeon. Such importance for this work cannot be overstated. We directly find the fulfillment of much of what is recorded in Liber AL vel Legis, as much as we see images connected with several other holy books in the Thelemic canon. The apocalyptic nature of these images suggests their revelatory character and the true nature of prophecy, which is to propel the myth of our times. After all, it is for each generation to forge its own connection with the divine; this, the constant importation of ‘fresh fever from the skies.’

The hidden message in John’s New Testament Revelation is a rabid condemnation of the Goddess and the pantheistic world that existed throughout the Aeon of Isis; a matriarchal time that goes back to time immemorial and houses the true antient mythos. Here in the Astrological Age of Taurus and its Scorpionic Manifestation, that began to wane in the final Age of that Manifestation; Aries (with the onset of the patriarchal influence), the Goddess lit men’s hearts. Indeed, she persisted through parts of the Gnostic movement in the classical age of European history, but it was from the Age of Aries and into the emergent Manifestation of Sagittarius at the start of the Piscean Age that the male God attacked the old ways and the Aeon of Osiris informed our collective psyche. The Manifestation of Power gave sway to the Manifestation of Truth.

And today, we sit, as if between the Piscean and Aquarian Ages with this new, integral Aeon of Horus now manifest. Indeed, it leans back to the antient mythos and revives the Goddess for the balancing of both our collective and individual psyches; so that when the Age of Aquarius finally does begin we will have discovered on both a racial and individual scale, the balance between the planetary rulers of this age; Saturn (collective) and Uranus (individual). But the God is also integral here, as Babalon rides her Beast; akin to the ancient Ashtoreth and her consort Ba’al. But Babalon and the Beast turn the tables on John’s Revelation and not only restore the antient mythos, but revise it to a greater solvency in the human Soul; this much in the same way the formula of IAO works as described by Crowley. Isis is the Aeon of the Goddess; interrupted by Apophis and the Aeon of the Patriarch and subsequently, the dying God. It then follows that the Integral Aeon would be an aeon of Resurrection, hence Osiris leads as its first symbol.

1 Cf. Gnostic Cyles
2 Note the Patriarchs were not interested in the dying God; so much as they were interested in their overarching power over the collective and especially all women. They no longer worshipped the world around them, but a set of other-worldly ideals that only served to lay waste to the world.
The Aeons work in much larger cycles than Astrological Ages and we find at the start of the Osirian Manifestation, an Osirian Age (Pisces) that is then sublimated by once again, re-investing power and autonomy to the individual as well as the collective; giving us the label for this Aeon as the Aeon of Horus (the God in man that is the lesson of the Christ and the revealed secret of the Age of Pisces. Only now, it is further revealed that because of this, we are each, ourselves, omniscient, omnipotent and omnipresent; so that when we find this God in us (the attainment of Gnosis), our heart opens up to the entire body of Nuit and we find the divine in the entirety of the Universe.
THE VISION AND THE VOICE

The Cry of the Thirtieth or Inmost Aire or Aethyr, Which is Called $\sqrt{3}$

Introduction of the four Guardians; essential to the Enochian Universe, as they represent the four corners of the Universe in both its obverse and averse manifestations. In the averse, of course, we get the four towers of the Abyss. But more significantly, we will find the theme of the number 4 running throughout the visions; clearly remonstrating this fundamental construct.

I AM in a vast crystal cube in the form of the Great God Harpocrates. This cube is surrounded by a sphere. About me are four archangels in black robes, their wings and armour lined out in white.

In the North is a book on whose back and front are A.M.B.Z. in Enochian characters. (א.מ.ב.ז)

The theme of 4 manifests with the four elements and the 4 cardinal directions and here in a tetragrammaton that seems to suggest the name of Ambrosius the Mage; the keeper of a sacred garden. We will find the ‘garden’ symbol also occurring in several places throughout these visions.

Within it is written:

I AM, the surrounding of the four.

The book is immediately connected with “the four” and presents the angel of the Aethyr as without the four pillars of the Universe, as it is indeed, the author of the book. And as shown below, this book is the “Book of the Aeons.”

Lift up your heads, O Houses of Eternity: for my Father goeth forth to judge the World. One Light, let it become a thousand, and one sword ten thousand, that no man hide him from my Father's eye in the Day of Judgment of my God. Let the Gods hide themselves: let the Angels be troubled and flee away: for the Eye of My Father is open, and the Book of the Aeons is fallen.

2 cf. AL:II.7
3 North: Destruction = the Old Formula is abrogated.
4 ה.מ.ב.ז: The Forthsaying of the New Aeon.
Arise! Arise! Arise! Let the Light of the Sight of Time be extinguished: let the Darkness cover all things: for my Father goeth forth to seek a spouse to replace her who is fallen and defiled.

The Goddess was defiled in the old Aeon; the practice of harlotry falling into disrepute by the Patriarchs who sought to usurp the love of the Goddess and hold this to themselves alone. To accomplish this, they created the false virtue of chastity and virginity; separating the woman from the Earth. The Father isn’t looking for a chaste woman, he’s looking for a wife; a whole woman of the Earth. This is his Holy Shekinah.

Seal the book with the seals of the Stars Concealed: for the Rivers have rushed together and the Name יי is broken in a thousand pieces (against the Cubic Stone).

The Patriarch, Jehovah is expelled from the Garden of Eden, its 4 rivers coming from The Book of Aeons to remove him from the throne he has been holding. The North Star has moved (cf. The Reign of the Demiurge) and Jehovah no longer stands at the center with the Universe revolving around him.

Tremble ye, O Pillars of the Universe⁷, for Eternity is in travail of a Terrible Child; she shall bring forth an universe of Darkness, whence shall leap forth a spark that shall put his father to flight.

Babalon’s manifestation is foretold and she is the Great Mother (“Darkness”—the Sea of Binah) with the “spark” being the light of the Beast that shall overtake Jehovah, as Zeus overtook Saturn.

The Obelisks are broken; the stars have rushed together: the Light hath plunged into the Abyss: the Heavens are mixed with Hell.

Crowley will be shown to be straddling both the Ethical and Supernal triads in his later visions in this work. But also, Babalon and the Beast (as Pan) are noted to be Guardians of the Abyss; though they are also of Binah.

My Father shall not hear their Noise: His ears are closed: His eyes are covered with the clouds of Night.

The End! the End! the End: For the Eye of Shiva He hath opened: the Universe is naked before Him: for the Aeon of Saturn leaneth toward the Bosom of Death⁸.

The Aeon of Saturn would be a label for the Patriarchal Aeon in much the same way as the Aeon of Horus is for the Ingegral Aeon.

The Angel of the East\textsuperscript{10} hath a book of red written in letters of Blue A.B.F.M.A.\textsuperscript{11} in Enochian (\textit{abfma}). The Book grows before my eyes and filleth the Whole Heaven.

This book having five letters, seems to represent the equilibration of the 4 by the 5th element of Spirt. That it permeates the “Whole Heaven” (in uppercase initials), it suggests the L.V.X. that resides over the elemental plane that is of the 4.

Within: "It is Written, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord Thy God."

I see above the Book a multitude of white-robed Ones from whom droppeth a great rain of Blood\textsuperscript{12}; but above them is a Golden Sun, having an eye, whence a great Light\textsuperscript{13}.

I turned me to the South\textsuperscript{14}: and read therein:

Seal up the Book! Speak not that which thou seest and reveal it unto none: for the ear is not framed that shall hear it: nor the tongue that can speak it!

O Lord God, blessed, blessed, blessed be Thou for ever!

Thy Shadow is as great Light.

Thy Name is as the Breath of Love across all Worlds.

\textsuperscript{9} Represents the formula of Drawing all to a point: whence blooms erect a Triple Triad.
\textsuperscript{10} East. Adepts: cleansed of their Blood, and brought to Light. = There is a way to light through giving up one’s Blood. (See 12th Aethyr)
\textsuperscript{11} $\text{b}^\text{a}^\text{r}^\text{h} = $ Opening of New Aeon.
\textsuperscript{12} Symbolism of the Cup of Babalon.
\textsuperscript{13} This refers to Kether. Also to Horus.
\textsuperscript{14} South. Silence. Marriage in Binah. = This leads to the Rapture of the Ineffable Union. Closing of Old Aeon.
Love is Tiphareth and the opening of the heart chakkra; so that even in the 4, there is a key to the Supernals through the rays of the Sun (Heru-Ra-Ha).

\[\text{Figure: This is a swastika or fylfot cross. It is widdershins, with each bend going to the right when viewed down one arm from the center. All elements are either vertical or horizontal, none diagonal.}\]

(A vast Svastika is shewn unto me behind the Angel with the Book.)

Rend your garments, O ye clouds! Uncover yourselves! for the Love of My Son!

Who are they that trouble thee?

Who are they that slew thee?

O Light! Come thou, who art joined with me to bruise the Dragon's head\(^{16}\). We, who are wedded, and the Earth perceiveth it not!

Though the old god is dethroned, the Earth herself still reels in the darkness of superstition and beyond the love of Babalon. It is as if they are withholding themselves the marital bed.

O that Our Bed were seen of Men, that they might rejoice in My Fertility: that My Sister might partake of My Great Light.

O Light of God, when wilt thou find the heart of man—write not! I would not that men know the Sorrow of my Heart, Amen!

I turned me to the West\(^{17}\), and the Archangel bore a flaming Book, on which was written AN\(^{18}\) in Enochian \(\overline{\text{AN}}\). Within was drawn a fiery scorpion, yet cold withal\(^{19}\).

15 The Swastika has 17 squares out of 25, The Pentagram, or Human square. It is also \(\overline{\text{H}}\) = Harpocrates, Bacchus Diphues, Parzival, etc., the Pure Fool, the Wanderer, who weds the King's Daughter.

16 Means the Stooping Dragon (see [Golden Dawn] 4\(^\) = 7\(^\) ritual); but also the phrase = break the Maidenhead of Draco (Nuit).

17 West. Fate (Refusing Initiation.) = The alternative is despair --- of loneliness.

18 \(\overline{\text{AN}}\) means Pain; \(\overline{\text{AN}}\) = Failure. These = 51 = 3x17. Note the Three Vibrations as spoiling the ideas of 17 (IAC). The Doom of the Old Aeon.

19 \(\overline{\text{F}}\) = Fish = Jesus.
AN is Son of Son of Light (Mercury) in the Enochian prophecy, Liber Loagaeth.\(^\text{20}\)

We write in the summary to Verse 5 of the First Leaf:

There is then a triplicity in the nature of the Augoeides being the ‘word’ of God, the Son of Son of Light and by induction, the Sun of God. But what might then be the Son of Son of Light? We might suggest God’s law as manifest in the 4\(^\text{th}\) (Assiah); being that ‘hidden’ natural law held by the angels that are its messengers and that are known as the natural spirits. The Sun of God mourning for the Daughter of Light is simply Hadit adoring Nuit; her loins being the whole of the Universe and covering the immortal realm that covers the first cause (the causeless cause) with the “One” that is the totality of the Universe—even itself to adore NUIT, which is the way to immortality by “keep[ing] from the 4\(^\text{th}\).

And as well:

The Sun of God—angelic image: Hadit (also: there is then a triplicity in the nature of the Augoeides being the ‘word’ of God or Logos [Son of God] formulated to a specific word—called the Son of Son of Light and by induction, the Sun of God being the prana discussed in Verse 13)

And in our summary of Verse 6, we write:

The divine will is then the pentagram anthropomorphosized as the Son of Son of Light, who dwells in “variation” as each of 12 separate stars

In our summary of Verse 8, we later write:

That the Son of Son of Light is not of the Ruach with his father, the Son of Light; both then being of the fourth or Assiah, the Son of Son of Light is then the utterance of his father; being called the Magickal Child.

In our summary of Verse 12, we later write:

And together the four planes of the tree with the fifth plane of spirit create the holy pentagram that is the Son of Son of Light—perhaps represented as five men

Until the Book of the East be opened!

Until the hour sound!
Until the Voice vibrate!
Until it pierce my Depth;
Look not on High!
Look not Beneath!

For thou wilt find a life which is as Death: or a Death which should be infinite.

For Thou art submitted to the Four: Five thou shalt find, but Seven is lone and far.\(^\text{21}\).

\(^\text{20}\) In Loagaeth, we note that the Sons of Son of Light are the seven sacred planets.

\(^\text{21}\) Tetragrammaton --- the blind forces of the Elements --- bind the Uninitiate. He may attain to the Pentagram --- Jeheshua --- the Man Master of those Elements. But he cannot reach Seven --- Babalon. (See Sigil of A{.} A{.} A{.} 77 + 7 + 7 + 77 = 156 Babalon) For she is “lone and far”, i.e., beyond the Abyss.
The 7 that represents the Ruach is also a repeating theme throughout this work, as we shall see. With the 4, one can find the L.V.X. that is of the 5 (cf. Liber LXV); but with the 7 are the seven sacred planets and the body of the Soul. This 5th element, as the L.V.X. stands at the center of the 7; being itself the Sun and one of the seven sacred planets. So that actually we get the 4 and the 7, which together, give us the number of Magick; 11.

O Lord God, let Thy Spirit hither unto me!

O Saviour of the World, bruise Thou my Head with Thy foot to save the world, that once again I touch Him whom I slew, that in my death I feel the radiance and the heat of the moving of Thy Robes!

Let us alone! What have we to do with Thee, Thou Jesus of Nazareth?

That Crowley had not yet received Liber AL, we see here, his mind being prepared for that reception by the rejection of the heart of the old Golden Dawn system. The dark sorcery of Jesus of Nazareth is about to be ended.

Go! Go!

If I keep silence --- Or if I speak each word is anguish without hope.

And I heard the Aethyr cry aloud "Return! Return! Return! For the work is ended; and the Book is shut; and let the glory be to God the Blessed for ever in the Aeons, Amen." Thus far is the voice of TEX and no more.

Armament of the four Guardians

The sky appears covered with stars of gold; the background is of green. But the impression is also of darkness.

An immense eagle-angel is before me. His wings seem to hide all the Heaven 23.

The eagle-angel arrives from the East, the place of the rising Sun. The East is also connected with the air, as the eagle is connected with flight. And the eagle-angel describes the abandonment of the Goddess and her persecution by the Patriarchs.

He cried aloud saying: The Voice of the Lord upon the Waters: the Terror of God upon Mankind. The voice of the Lord maketh the Skies to tremble: the Stars are troubled: the Aires fall. The First Voice Speaketh and saith: Cursed, cursed be the Earth, for her iniquity is great. Oh Lord! Let Thy Mercy be lost in the great Deep! Open thine eyes of Flame and Light, O God, upon the wicked! Lighten thine Eyes! The Clamour of Thy Voice, let it smite down the Mountains!

Let us not see it! Cover we our eyes, lest we see the End of Man.

Close we our ears, lest we hear the cry of Woman.

Let none speak of it: let none write it: I, I am troubled, my eyes are moist with dews of terror: surely the Bitterness of Death is past.

And I turned me to the South and lo! a great lion 24 as wounded and perplexed.

The Beast reeleth at the persecution of John’s Revelation; no longer ridden by his Scarlet Woman.

He cried: I have conquered! Let the Sons of Earth keep silence; for my Name is become as That of Death!

When will men learn the Mysteries of Creation?

How much more those of the Dissolution (and the Pang of Fire)?

I turned me to the West and there was a great Bull\textsuperscript{25}; White with horns of White and Black and Gold. His mouth was scarlet and his eyes as Sapphire stones. With a great sword he shore the skies asunder, and amid the silver flashes of the steel grew lightnings and deep clouds of Indigo.

He spake: It is finished! My mother hath unveiled herself!

My sister hath violated herself! The life of things hath disclosed its Mystery.

The work of the Moon is done! Motion is ended for ever!

Clipped are the eagle's wings: but my Shoulders have not lost their strength.

This is the resurrected Beast, the Bull that now runs over John’s Revelation and proclaims the triumph of the Goddess over the Patriarchs. In ‘violating’ herself, the Goddess ressurects desire. Also, that the “Moon is done” foretells the chant of the Goddess in the 2nd Aethyr (“the moon ceaseth her motion”). The symmetry here; this being the second from the last and that 2nd Aethyr being the second from the first. Certainly this fits in well with the concentric symmetry of the Aethyrs.

I heard a Great Voice from above crying: Thou liest! For the Volatile hath indeed fixed itself; but it hath arisen above thy sight. The World is desert: but the Abodes of the House of my Father are peopled; and His Throne is crusted over with white Brilliant Stars, a lustre of bright gems.

In the North is a Man upon a Great Horse, having a Scourge and Balances\textsuperscript{26} in his hand (or a long spear glitters at his back or in his hand). He is clothed in black velvet and his face is stern and terrible.

Crowley has now been symbolically armed with the four elemental Guardians. Hence, he is well prepared for the journey before him; though yet, he has no idea how he’s been prepared by Aiwass for the reception of Liber AL.

He spake saying: I have judged! It is the end: the gate of the beginning. Look in the Beneath and thou shalt see a new world!

The “new world” is a metaphor for the new Aeon.

\textsuperscript{25} The Bull is Osiris or Jesus: he complains of the terrible things that are Happening, especially the Freedom (which he thinks shamelessness) or Woman. He does not understand the New Aeon, or that he is about to be destroyed. He is in the West, i.e. going into Oblivion. Cr. West in he 30th Aethyr.

I looked and saw a great abyss and a dark funnel of whirling waters or fixed airs, wherein were cities and monsters and trees and atoms and mountains and little flames (being souls) and all the material of a universe.

It is as if he’s watching a grand initiation, as the world is being bathed by the firey rays of Heru-Ra-Ha.

And all are sucked down one by one, as necessity hath ordained. For below is a glittering jewelled globe of gold and azure, set in a World of Stars 27.

And there came a Voice from the Abyss, saying: "Thou seest the Current of Destiny! Canst thou change one atom in its path? I am Destiny. Dost thou think to control me? for who can move my course?"

And there falleth a thunderbolt therein: a catastrophe of explosion: and all is shattered. And I saw above me a Vast Arm reach down, dark and terrible, and a voice cried: I AM ETERNITY.

And a great mingled cry arose: "No! no! no! All is changed; all is confounded; naught is ordered: the white is stained with blood: the black is kissed of the Christ! Return! Return! It is a new chaos that thou findest here: chaos for thee: for us it is the skeleton of a New Truth!"

The Black Brother heralds the potency of the Patriarchs; seeking to hold onto the patriarchal order by its superstitions and the darkened minds that they need to maintain in their congregations. This last Aethyr before Crowley stops, prophecies this new Gnosis as a “New Truth” that will be Liber AL vel Legis.

I said: Tell me this truth: for I have conjured ye by the Mighty Names of God, the which ye cannot but obey.

The voice said:

Light is consumed as a child in the Womb of its Mother to develop itself anew. But pain and sorrow infinite, and darkness are invoked. For this child riseth up within his Mother and doth crucify himself within her bosom. He extendeth his arms in the arms of his Mother and the Light becometh fivefold 28.

The “child” is the Magickal Childe.

A NOTE\textsuperscript{31}

Concerning the thirty Aethyrs:

The Visions of the 29th and 30th Aethyrs were given to me in Mexico in August\textsuperscript{32}, 1900, and I am now (23.11.9) trying to get the rest. It is to be remarked that the last three aethyrs have ten angels attributed to them\textsuperscript{33}, and they therefore represent the ten Sephiroth. Yet these ten form but one, a Malkuth-pendant to the next three, and so on, each set being, as it were, absorbed in the higher. The last set consists, therefore, of the first three aethyrs with the remaining twenty-seven as their Malkuth. And the letters of the first three aethyrs are the key-sigils of the most exalted interpretation of the Sephiroth.

I is therefore Kether;
L, Chokmah and Binah;
A, Chesed;
N, Geburah;
R, Tiphereth;
Z, Netzach;
N, Hod;
O, Jesod.

The geomantic correspondences of the Enochian alphabet form a sublime commentary.

Note that the total angels of the aethyrs are 91, the numeration of Amen.

The Cry of the 28th Aethyr, Which is Called ărûł34

Preparation for Initiation

There cometh an Angel into the stone with opalescent shining garments like a wheel of fire on every side of him, and in his hand is a long flail of scarlet lightning; his face is black, and his eyes white without any pupil or iris. The face is very terrible indeed to look upon. Now in front of him is a wheel, with many spokes, and many tyres; it is like a fence in front of him.

In Crowley’s footnote, “opalescent” is seen as a pun on the gem, opal, which is then of course, attributed to Sagittarius—the path connecting Yesod with Tiphareth. Tiphareth is the center of the Ruach and the apex of the Ethical Triad; its position inverted in relation to the Supernal Triad. Further, the “shing garments like a wheel,” which Crowley attributes to the Sun (Tiphareth) seems also to suggest the Fortune Atu; ruled by Jupiter—itself, the ruler of Sagittarius. As we shall more and more see, the visions shown in the skrying of these Aethyrs come from the Ethical Triad. The symbol of the wheel; especially that there are 4 firey wheels also suggests the Chariot Atu—these 4 wheels being the Cherubim that power its motion to Binah. This is supported by the idea of a “fence” that comes with this vision.

And he cries: O man, who art thou that wouldst penetrate the Mystery? for it is hidden unto the End of Time.

The mystery is the Veil of the Abyss; the “End of Time” being a label for Binah. To penetrate the mystery of Binah is to die unto the Abyss.

And I answer him: Time is not, save in the darkness of Her womb by whom evil came?

Crowley is asking: is not Binah the source of incarnation; the One becoming the All? This is the “evil” of existence, which is therefore a corruption and stain on the fabric of perfection—NOT. Binah births the fabric of stars, called Nuit; that fabric being the 4th dimension—“Time.” Babalon & the Beast are to become the primary

And now the wheel breaks away, and I see him as he is. His garment is black beneath the opal veils, but it is lined with white, and he has the shining belly of a fish, and enormous wings of black and white feathers, and innumerable little legs and claws like a centipede, and a long tail like a scorpion. The breasts are human, but they are all scored with blood; and he cries: O thou who hast broken down the veil, knowest thou not that who cometh where I am must be scarred by many sorrows? And I answer him: Sorrow is not, save in the darkness of the womb of Her by whom came evil.

I pierce the Mystery of his breast, and therein is a jewel. It is a sapphire as great as an ostrich egg, and thereon is graven this sigil:

But there is also much writing on the stone, very minute characters carved. I cannot read them. He points with his flail to the sapphire, which is now outside him and bigger than himself; and he cries: Hail! warden of the Gates of Eternity who knowest not thy right hand from thy left; for in the aeon of my Father is a god with clasped hands wherein he holdeth the universe, crushing it into the dust that ye call stars.

With this Aethyr, Crowley has now received Liber AL and will begin to carry the images it gave him into his visions. And near the end of the writing (AL:III.72),

It is therefore not destroyed with the other objects of Knowledge, though its dual modes of expression, the hands, are no longer known apart.
Crowley begins: “I am the Lord of the Double Wand of Power; the wand of the Force of Coph Nia— but my left hand is empty, for I have crushed an Universe; & nought remains.” The “aeon of my Father” seems the act of creation (the Big Bang) itself. But from the Supernal perspective, there is no difference and no left or right hand. And so the hands are “clasped”—indicating ‘no difference’ beyond the veil. The lower reflection of this is in the Sun: Ra-Hoor-Khuit. This is the godhead made manifest in the phenomenal Universe.

Hail unto thee who knowest not thy right eye\(^{55}\) from thy left; for in the aeon of my Father there is but one light.

Hail unto thee who knowest not thy right nostril\(^{56}\) from thy left; for in the aeon of my Father there is neither life nor death.

Hail unto thee who knowest not thy right ear\(^{57}\) from thy left; for in the aeon of my Father there is neither sound nor silence.

Whoso hath power to break open this sapphire stone shall find therein four elephants having tusks of mother-of-pearl, and upon whose backs are castles, those castles which ye call the watch-towers of the Universe\(^{58}\).

Crowley’s footnote indicates this series of symbols to represent the elements that are “hiddin in Binah.” Throughout this Aethyr, the symbol of ‘4’ maintains a noticeable constancy. And here, it is also attached to the 4 Watchtowers that themselves, contain the 30 Aethyrs.

Let me dwell in peace within the breast of the Angel that is warden of the aethyr. Let not the shame of my Mother be unveiled. Let not her be put to shame that lieth among the lilies that are beyond the stars.

The Mother, seemingly in with the aeon of the Father; a syzygy in the same manner as the ancient Gnostics arranged their cosmogony. Aeons were not units of time, but the incarnation of demi-gods.

O man, that must ever be opening, when wilt thou learn to seal up the mysteries of the creation? to fold thyself over thyself as a rose in the embrace of night? But thou must play the wanton to the sun, and the wind must tear thy petals from thee, and the bee must rob thee of thy honey, and thou must fall into the dusk of things. Amen and Amen.

\(^{58}\) The Elements are hidden in Binah.
The symbol of the Rose appears; suggesting the Rose Cross and the Ethical Triad. And here, the seer is told to “fold thyself over thyself,” which seems an indicator of the ego-structure connected with the Tiphareth initiation.

Verily the light is hidden, therefore he who hideth himself is like unto the light; but thou openest thyself; thou art like unto the darkness that bindeth the belly of the great goddess.\(^{59}\)

OLAHO VIRUDEN MAHORELA ZODIREDA! ON PIREDA EXTENTASER; ARBA PIRE GAH GAHA GAHAL GAHALANA VO ABRA NA GAHA VELUCORSAPAX\(^{60}\).

Words of Initiation; some of the words being translated (as our Loagaeth translation project continues, we will eventually translate all these words): “For the second time VIRUDEN MAHORELA ZODIREDA! To make PIREDA EXTENTASER; ARBA PIRE Spirit existed, exists, will exist wherein ABRA Lord of Hosts enthroned.”

And the voice of the aeon cried: Return, return, return! the time sickeneth, and the space gapeth, and the voice of him that is, was and shall be crowned rattles in the throat of the mighty dragon of eld\(^{61}\). Thou canst not pass by me, except thou have the mystery of the word of the abyss.

Now the angel putteth back the sapphire stone into his breast; and I spake unto him and said, I will fight with thee and overcome thee, except thou expound unto me the word of the abyss.

Now he makes as if to fight with me. (It is very horrible, all the tentacles moving and the flail flashing, and the fierce eyeless face, strained and swollen.) And with the Magic sword I pierce through his armour to his breast. He fell back, saying: Each of these my scars was thus made, for I am the warden of the aethyr. And he would have said more; but I cut him short, saying: expound the word of the Abyss. And he said\(^{62}\): Discipline is sorrowful and ploughing is laborious and age is weariness.

Thou shalt be vexed by dispersion\(^{63}\).

\(^{59}\) In the light of the cry of LOE, this passage seems to mean precisely the opposite of its apparent meaning. The whole cry, from “Let me dwell ...” is an Invocation of Binah. It is a foreshadowing of the Mysteries of the Crossing of the Abyss.

\(^{60}\) The translation of this is in my private copy (white and gold binding). Possibly also in the Cefalu set which was copied from that (?) by Estai. (?)

\(^{61}\) Binah or Nuit = Draco, the Dragon.

\(^{62}\) See the 14th and 13th Aethyr.

\(^{63}\) See the 10th Aethyr. These statements are prophetic.
But now, if the sun arise⁶⁴, fold thou thine arms⁶⁵; then shall God smite thee into a pillar of salt⁶⁶.

Look not so deeply into words and letters; for this Mystery hath been hidden by the Alchemists. Compose the sevenfold into a fourfold regimen⁶⁷; and when thou hast understood thou mayest make symbols⁶⁸; but by playing child's games with symbols thou shalt never understand⁶⁹. Thou hast the signs; thou hast the words; but there are many things that are not in my power, who am but the warden of the 28th Aethyr.

The symbols of 4 and 7 recurr throughout these visions; so that it can be said that these visions are in their totality, the composition of the “sevenfold into a fourfold regimen” — the Ruach (7) into balance within the 4 Watchtowers.

The first 1, the fifth 2, the sixth 3, the eleventh 4, the seventh 5, the twelfth 6, the seventeenth 7.

- F Cauda Draconis/Mars

The fascinating thing here is that the planets of the Ruach were perfectly detailed. The angel of the Aethyr is literally telling Crowley to get his Ruach together before worrying about the Supernal Triad and getting beyond the veil.

Thus hast thou my name who am above these three, but the angels of the 30th Aethyr are indeed four, and they have none above them; wherefore dispersion and disorder.

Now cometh from every side at once a voice, terribly great, crying: Close the veil; the great blasphemy hath been uttered; the face of my Mother is scarred by the nails of the devil. Shut the book, destroy the breaker of the seal!

And I answered: Had he not been destroyed he had not come hither, for I am not save in the darkness in the womb of Her by whom came evil into the world.

And this darkness swallows everything up, and the angel is gone from the stone; and there is no light therein, save only the light of the Rose and of the Cross.

The Cry of the 27th Aethyr, Which is Called \(\mathfrak{Z}\mathfrak{A}\mathfrak{A}\)^78

The vision of the Goddess of the Chemical Wedding

There is an angel with rainbow wings,\(^79\) and his dress is green\(^80\) with silver, a green veil\(^81\) over silver\(^82\) armour. Flames of many-coloured fire dart from him in all directions. It is a woman of some thirty years old, and she has the moon for a crest, and the moon is blazoned on her heart, and her sandals are curved silver, like the moon.

The colors are of Venus and the Moon; the goddess being introduced is Isis.

And she cries: Lonely am I and cold in the wilderness of the stars,\(^83\). For I am the queen of all them that dwell in Heaven, and the queen of all them that are pure upon earth, and the queen of all the sorcerers of hell.\(^84\)

Babalon is foreshadowed in the above paragraph; the “queen of all them that dwell in Heaven” is Isis—the Goddess who invites Christian Rosencreutz to the Chemical Wedding.

I am the daughter of Nuit, the lady of the stars. And I am the Bride of them that are vowed unto loneliness.\(^85\) And I am the mother of the Dog Cerberus.\(^86\) One person am I, and three gods.\(^87\)

And thou who hast blasphemed me shalt suffer knowing me. For I am cold as thou art cold, and burn with thy fire.\(^88\) Oh, when shall the war of the Aires and the elements be accomplished?\(^89\)

The character of Babalon is that she is ardent in her task (“cold as thou art cold”—“thou” being as much a symbol of Nuit, as possibly indicating the direction of the words towards the seer). The fire she burns with is the fire of desire of the godhead to move from the AIN into manifestation.

Radiant are these falchions of my brothers, invisibly about me, but the might of the aethyrs beneath my feet beareth me down. And they avail not to sever the Kamailow. There is one in green armour, with green eyes, whose sword is of vegetable fire. They shall avail me. My son is he, —and how shall I bear him that have not known man?

All this time intolerable rays are shooting forth to beat me back or destroy me; but I am encased in an egg of blue-violet, and my form is the form of a man with the head of a golden hawk. While I have been observing this, the goddess has kept up a continuous wail, like the baying of a thousand hounds; and now her voice is deep and guttural and hoarse, and she breathes very rapidly words that I cannot hear. I can hear some of them now.

UNTU LA LA ULULA UMUNA TOFA LAMA LE LI NA AHR IMA TAHARA ELULA ETFOMA UNUNA ARPETI ULU ULU ULU MARABAN ULU ULU MAHATA ULU ULU LAMASTANA.

And then her voice rises to a shriek, and there is a cauldron boiling in front of her; and the flames under the cauldron are like unto zinc flames, and in the cauldron is the Rose, the Rose of petals, seething in it. Over the cauldron she has arched her rainbow wings; and her face is bent over the cauldron, and she is blowing opalescent silvery rings on to the Rose; and each ring as it touches the water bursts into flame, and the Rose takes new colours.

Babalon is the Goddess; Our Lady to be adored by the College of the Rose Cross—no matter her higher placement on the Tree. Her Yoni is the Rose on the Cross.

Give me thy face. Let me kiss it with my cold kisses. Ah! Ah! Ah! Fall back from me. The word, the word of the aeon is MAKHASHANAH\textsuperscript{111}. And these words shalt thou say backwards: ARARNAY OBOLO MAHARNA TUTULU NOM LAHARA EN NEDIEZO LO SAD FONUSA SOBANA ARANA BINUF LA LA LA ARPAZNA UOHULU\textsuperscript{112}, when thou wilt call my burden unto appearance, for I who am the Virgin goddess am the pregnant goddess, and I have cast down my burden even unto the borders of the universe\textsuperscript{113}. Makhashanah = 418; beikng a specialized version of Abrahadabra and shows the work and word of a Neophyte and the Babe of the Abyss. A journey is formally begun here.

Now there arises a great raging of thousands and thousands of mighty warriors flashing through the aethyr so thickly that nothing is to be seen but their swords, which are like blue-gray plumes. And the noise is confused, thousands of battle-cries harmonizing to a roar, like the roar of a monstrous river in flood. And all the stone is dull, dull gray. The life is gone from it.\textsuperscript{116}

\textsuperscript{111} hnawaqam = 418. A word of 8 letters is necessary to perform the Great work on one whose Formula is $3: 8^3 = 3^8$. The Seer "knew" that this Word was _not_ the correct Word, which is Abrahadabra = 418. But on writing it down in Hebrew, as above, he saw that it was the correct word after all. Observe that this proves the Angel to have been an Intelligence not of the Seer's conscious mind. Had he given the Word which the Seer knew, it might have been derived from his subconscious Self. Furthermore, this Word contains more than the mere 418 because of its 8 letters suiting the special Formula required by this particular Angel, whereas the other Word is a general Formula, being of 11 letters, all Magick being referred to 11. so far as ABRAHADABRA is specialized, it refers to the Work of $5^5 = 6^5$, there being 5 alephs and 6 other letters. In the Latin script also Makhashanah does have 11 letters. Again, the operation of the Cauldron (above) is described by the 5 consonants of this Word.

\textsuperscript{116} Many of these Visions end in some way unconnected with the substance of the Aethyr. One must not look for coherence in such places. They are merely episodes on the return journey, useful to break the shock analogy: one might see a cab accident while returning to one's house from the theatre. This spectacle need have no connection with either the play or one's home life.
The Cry of the 26th Aethyr, Which is Called Ξαγ

Crowley meets his Augoeides

There is a very bright pentagram: and now the stone is gone, and the whole heaven is black, and the blackness is the blackness of a mighty angel. And though he is black (his face and his wings and his robe and his armour are all black), yet is he so bright that I cannot look upon him. And he cries: O ye spears and vials of poison and sharp swords and whirling thunderbolts that are about the corners of the earth, girded with wrath and justice, know ye that His name is Righteousness in Beauty? Burnt out are your eyes, for that ye have seen me in my majesty. And broken are the drum-heads of your ears, because my name is as two mountains of fornication, the breasts of a strange woman, and my Father is not in them.

The theme of duality is reiterated here and in conjunction with “Beauty” — Tiphareth and the H.G.A. or Augoeides. The duality is connoted of course, but in the text, it is also reminiscent of the twin-peaked mountain of the Rosicrucians. (cf. The Alchemical Half of the Jews & the Rose Cross of Thelema)

Lo! the pools of fire and torment mingled with sulphur! Many are their colours, and their colour is as molten gold, when all is said. Is not He one, one and alone, in whom the brightness of your countenance is as 1,728 petals of fire?

Also he spake the curse, folding his wings across and crying: Is not the son the enemy of his father? And hath not the daughter stolen the 117 DES = Θαθαθ = [א] |= 31 + 10 + 7 = 48 = מכתב = Kokab, the sphere of נ. This Aethyr describes the supersession of the Aeon of Jehovah and Jesus. The Stele of Revealing, which led to The Book of the Law, whose key number is 31. נ = ד = ה = 31. י = נ = ו = Nuit and the Point, Hadit. מ = ה = the twins, Ra-Hoor-Khuit and Hoor-Paar-Kraat combined in Heru-Ra-Ha, the Lord of the Aeon. Also ו & ה are the Houses of נ, the Logos. Thus the name of the Aethyr actually means: The Sacred Secret Keyletter of The Book of the Law of Thelema, appearing through the Operation of Mercury as well as giving a complete symbolical description of the Stele itself. The Arcanum is of Atu XX = נ = "The Last Judgment" or "The Angel". The old form of XX shows the Resurrection Formula of the Old Aeon: the new form shews the Stele of Revealing = 718.

118 The Pentagram indicates that the subject of the Vision is to be the Destiny of Man. The blackness, which is bright, is Solar. The context shows that Binah is not here implied.

119 All symbols of division and destruction, also extending only to the Blind Four Elements.

120 Righteousness = Jupiter — Jehovah — Beauty — Osiris — Jesus. These are the qualities they claimed; Their failure is that they never even had the idea of the Supernals beyond the Abyss.

121 Hearing pertains to Spirit, as sight to fire. These gods have deprived man of his highest faculties.

122 See the 10th Key.

123 Thus we have symbolism representing the ‘Crown of Light’ in Rosicrucian lore, which was signified by the letter A given twice as AA. Further, in the constellation of Cassiopeia, there is a double A star formation which was combined with the sacred Sumerian twin-peaked mountain known as KUR-KUR.

124 The Zodiac brought down to the material plane.
warmth of the bed of her mother? Therefore is the great curse irrevocable. Therefore there is neither wisdom nor understanding nor knowledge in this house, that hangeth upon the edge of hell. Thou art not 4 but 2, O thou blasphemy spoken against 1.

This rings with an Oedipal tone, which is also suggested by the theory of the Court Cards in Crowley’s Book of Thoth. And the “great curse” that is “irrevocable” is the curse of existence itself. And full manifestation is crowned by mastery of the Ruach, which sits “at the edge of hell”—the edge of the Abyss (wherein dwells the Adeptus Exemptus in the house of Jupiter). The Abyss itself (“knowledge”) is beyond the Adeptus Exemptus and further are the houses of “wisdom” (Chokmah) and “understanding” (Binah).

Therefore whoso worshippeth thee is accursed. He shall be brayed in a mortar and the powder thereof cast to the winds, that the birds of the air may eat thereof and die; and he shall be dissolved in strong acid and the elixir poured into the sea, that the fishes of the sea may breathe thereof and die. And he shall be mingled with dung and spread upon the earth, so that the herbs of the earth may feed thereof and die; and he shall be burnt utterly with fire, and the ashes thereof shall calcine the children of flame, that even in hell may be found an overflowing lamentation.

The above here is also reminiscent of the Class A Comment upon Liber AL:

"Do what thou wilt shall be the whole of the Law. The study of this Book is forbidden. It is wise to destroy this copy after the first reading. Whosoever disregards this does so at his own risk and peril. These are most dire. Those who discuss the contents of this Book are to be shunned by all, as centres of pestilence. All questions of the Law are to be decided only by appeal to my writings, each for himself. There is no law beyond Do what thou wilt. Love is the law, love under will."

With Occult work, one will find oneself a Babe of the Abyss; after having obtained the Crown of the Great Work, which is the achievement of the Adeptus Exemptus. This is the ultimate vulnerability before the gate of immortality.

And now on the breast of the Angel is a golden egg between the blackness of the wings, and that egg grows and grows all over the aethyr. And it breaks, and within there is a golden eagle.

125 The Oedipus complex. Christianity.
126 The Cult of Jehovah cannot even reach to Dath.
127 i.e. Jehovah is not even the true Chesed, but the evil Dyad, (as opposed to the true Dyad of Chokmah, which interprets Keter in terms of Vibration, the Logos.)
128 An important work that compares the psychological theory of Oedipal complex with the Rosicrucian Vision is a book entitled: Hidden Symbolism of Alchemy and the Occult Arts by Silberer.
129 The promise of breaking the tyranny of Jehovah, who was the evil 4 in the Aeon of the true 4, Isis, by the Solar (golden) Jesus. He appears as an eagle, the bird of Jupiter. so that despite the glittering hope, it was only the old Aeon all over again.
And he cries: Woe! woe! woe! Yea, woe unto the world! For there is no sin, and there is no salvation.\textsuperscript{130} My plumes are like waves of gold upon the sea. My eyes are brighter than the sun. My tongue is swifter than the lightning.

Yet am I hemmed in by the armies of night, singing, singing phrases unto Him that is smitten by the thunderbolt of the abyss. Is not the sky clear behind the sun? These clouds that burn thee up, these rays that scorch the brains of men with blindness; these are heralds before my face of the dissolution and the night.

One of the marks of Adepthood is clarity of thought and complete Gnosis of one’s relation with one’s H.G.A. (“clear behind the sun”). “[D]issolution” is the abandonment unto the Abyss that results in arrival in the “night” that is Binah.

Ye are all blinded by my glory; and though ye treasure in your heart the sacred word that is the last lever of the key to the little door beyond the abyss, yet ye gloss and comment thereupon; for the light itself is but illusion. Truth itself is but illusion. Yea, these be the great illusions beyond life and space and time.

All that is without the Abyss is in the L.V.X of the Sun, which ultimately burns the mind to that dust that will traverse the Abyss; but ultimately, the Ethical Triad in inverse in relation to the Supernal Triad—that the Supernals themselves are as illusions to those Sefira of the Ethical Triad and vice-versa. This is also reminiscent of the line in AL:II.21, wherein it states—

Think not, o king, upon that lie: That Thou Must Die: verily thou shalt not die, but live. Now let it be understood: If the body of the King dissolve, he shall remain in pure ecstasy for ever.

Let thy lips blister with my words! Are they not meteors in thy brain? Back, back from the face of the accursed one, who am I; back into the night of my father, into the silence; for all that ye deem right is left, forward is backward, upward is downward.\textsuperscript{131}

The dark side of the Augoeides (sotospeak) is the lower nature that is of the elements and of the 4 that is the recurring symbol; here, again. For the 4 here has not yet been equilibrated with the 7. In the way are the blind forces yoked to serve the higher nature of the Master Adept.

I am the great god adored of the holy ones. Yet am I the accursed one, child of the elements and not their father.\textsuperscript{132}

\begin{itemize}
\item \textsuperscript{130} He knows this truth, which destroys the whole idea of his formula. Nobody will bother about him, it they are not sinners, and need no saviour.
\item \textsuperscript{131} Observe the loud words, the confusion of the thought, throughout this excited passage.
\item \textsuperscript{132} He knows that he is not an image of the Simple, Sublime, Self, but an ill-concocted mess of Blind Forces.
\end{itemize}
O my mother! wilt thou not have pity upon me? Wilt thou not shield me? For I am naked, I am manifest, I am profane. O my father! wilt not thou withdraw me? I am extended, I am double, I am profane.

Note the “thou art not 4 but 2” — several paragraphs up. Here, the angel of the aethyr is identifying with the sayer; stating that he is also 2—dual-natured. It is the Augoeides that is clearly being suggested as the angel of the Aethyr.

Woe, woe unto me! These are they that hear not prayer. It is I that have heard all prayer alway, and there is none to answer me. Woe unto me! Woe unto me! Accursed am I unto the aeons!

The Exempt Adept must surrender to the curse of the ‘night of time’ — the ‘night of Pan.’

All this time this brilliant eagle-headed god has been attacked, seemingly, by invisible people, for he is wounded now and again, here and there; little streams of fresh blood come out over the feathers of his breast. And the smoke of the blood is gradually filling the Aethyr with a crimson veil. There is a scroll over the top, saying: Ecclesia abhorret a sanguine; and there is another scroll below it in a language of which I do not know the sounds. The meaning is, Not as they have understood.

The chance of union failing to unite.

The blood is thicker and darker now, and it is becoming clotted and black, so that everything is blotted out; because it coagulates, coagulates. And then at the top there steals a dawn of pure night-blue, — Oh, the stars, the stars in it deeply set! — and drives the blood down; so that all round the top of the oval gradually dawns the figure of our Lady Nuit, and beneath her is the flaming winged disk, and below the altar of Ra-Hoor-Khuit, even as it is upon the Stele of Revealing. But below is the supine figure of Seb, into whom is concentrated all that clotted blood.

133 Jesus has been destroyed by myriads of minute facts; the observations of Nature which have broken down the theories on which his existence depended. His blood is spilt, and veils Truth; whereas the Blood of the Master of the Temple is gathered in the Cup of BABALON, and floods the world with Life and Beauty. (See 27th Aire, footnote 3, page 19).

134 [Lat., “The Church shrinks from blood.”] The Christian, incapable of the formula of the Master of the Temple, abhors the shedding of blood. He fears to lose his vile life.

135 I.e. The meaning of the Latin is that given above, not the traditional ecclesiastical interpretation. Cf. also, AL:1.45-48.

136 Not only symbolic, but actually visible even to the physical eyes, when Nuit is manifested. Also when Ra-Hoor-Khuit is invoked, or Aiwass.

137 See the various special accounts of the Stele. The New Atu XX - 718.

138 Earth has absorbed all the ruin wrought by Jesus, to rebuild life through putrefaction, by her regular formula——as opposed to the Higher Magick.
The image is of Nuit reiterates in final, the adoration of the Goddess; reminiscent (almost point-for-point) of the scene revealed in AL:I.26—

Then saith the prophet and slave of the beauteous one: Who am I. and what shall be the sign? So she answered him, bending down, a lambent flame of blue, all-touching, all penetrant, her lovely hands upon the black earth, & her lithe body arched for love, and her soft feet not hurting the little flowers: Thou knowest! And the sign shall be my ecstasy, the consciousness of the continuity of existence, the omnipresence of my body.

And there comes a voice: It is the dawn of the aeon. The aeons of cursing are passed away. Force and fire, strength and sight, these are for the servants of the Star and the Snake.

It would seem in the usage here, that the “aeons” are as earlier in this text, ‘beings’ and not measures of time.

And now I seem to be lying in the desert, exhausted.139

139 This vision, being so close to the physical plane, required no intermediate stations on the way back. The exhaustion was due to the same cause. Communion with high spiritual forces renews the vitality of the Seer.
The Cry of the 25th Aethyr, Which is Called \( \mathfrak{VTI} \)

Development of the symbolic Chemical Wedding; being the particular nature of Crowley’s Initiation.

There is nothing in the stone but the pale gold of the Rosy Cross.

Now there comes an Angel with bright wings, that is the Angel of the 25th Aire. And all the aire is a dark olive about him, like an alexandrite stone. [In the attribution of Gemini, we find the dual theme between the lower and higher ego.] He bears a pitcher or amphora. [719 is the resurrection theme of the Stele of Revealing (718) with the coelel added. The Amphora holds the water of life.] And now there comes another Angel upon a white horse, and yet again another Angel upon a black bull. And now there comes a lion and swallows the two latter angels up.

The first angel goes to the lion and closes his mouth. And behind them are arrayed a great company of Angels with silver spears, like a forest. And the Angel says: Blow, all ye trumpets, for I will loose my hands from the mouth of the lion, and his roaring shall enkindle the worlds.

That the “silver spears” are “like a forest” we find a symbolts, clarified here to be symbols of Nuit and highly reminiscent of VII:7.36—

The forest of the spears of the Most High is called Night, and Hades, and the Day of Wrath; but I am His captain, and I bear His cup.

Then the trumpets blow, and the wind rises and whistles terribly. It is a blue wind with silver specks; and it blows through the whole Aethyr. But through it one perceives the lion, which has become as a raging flame. —his roar represents the rays of light from the Sun; Heru-Ra-Ha.

And he roareth in an unknown tongue. But this is the interpretation thereof: Let the stars be burnt up in the fire of my nostrils! Let all the gods and the archangels 140 VTI = \( \mathfrak{VTI} \) = Caput Draconis, the head of the Lion-Serpent, the Beast 666. His father is \( \mathfrak{Set} \) or Pan; his mother, the woman clothed with the Sun as in Atu XIV. See 27th Aethyr. He is the burden of the Moon, sanctified by 418. Atu XI (a partial form) with Atu XX (XI + XX = XXXI) gives the Key of the New Aeon.

141 The stone of Gemini, the twins, composing Heru-Ra-Ha, his Lord. Also the house of \( \mathfrak{Q} \); that is, his form is Oracular.

142 The angel is an avatar of BABALON.

143 \( \mathfrak{AMFORH} = 719 \). This Angel is a veil for 156, the Woman who closes the mouth of the lion in the old Atu XI, and is the Scarlet Woman who rides upon him in the new form.

I am he that swalloweth up death and victory. I have slain the crowned goat, and drunk up the great sea. Like the ash of dried leaves the worlds are blown before me. Thou hast passed by me, and thou hast not known me. Woe unto thee, that I have not devoured thee altogether!

Pan/Babalon; the Guardian of the Abyss is the “crowned goat,” as Binah is the “great sea.” And all these are devoured; including the duality of death & victory. All these are consumed by the rays of the Sun that emanate from Tiphareth; where the Great Work begins.

On my head is the crown, 419 rays far-darting. And my body is the body of the Snake, and my soul is the soul of the Crowned Child. Though an Angel in white robes leadeth me, who shall ride upon me but the Woman of Abominations? Who is the Beast? Am not I one more than he? In his hand is a sword that is a book. In his hand is a spear that is a cup of fornication. Upon his mouth is set the great and terrible seal. And he hath the secret of V. His ten horns spring from five points, and his eight heads are as the charioteer of the West. Thus doth the fire of the sun temper the spear of Mars, and thus shall he be worshipped, as the warrior lord of the sun. Yet in him is the woman that devoureth with her water all the fire of God.

419 is the number of the Great Work (418) with the addition of the Colel; on Crowley’s head, means he is the intiator of the Aeon of Horus—an integra aeon, which is why Babalon is also here.

Alas! my lord, thou art joined with him that knoweth not these things.

The paragraphs above and below clearly show the dual nature of these visions; providing personal information for Crowley’s own initiation and information regarding Crowley’s responsibilities as avatar of the Aeon of Horus.

And now the lion passeth over through the Aethyr with the crowned beast upon his back, and the tail of the lion goes on instead of stopping, and on each hair of the tail is something or other --- sometimes a little house, sometimes a planet, at other times a town.

If Nuit’s hair is the “trees of eternity,” then the hair on the lion’s tail (the tail of the Beast) is his immortality.

Then there is a great plain with soldiers fighting upon it, and an enormously high mountain carved into a thousand temples, and more houses and fields and trees, and great cities with wonderful buildings in them, statues and columns and public buildings generally. This goes on and on and on and on and on and on on and all on the hairs of this lion’s tail.

And then there is the tuft of his tail, which is like a comet, but the head is a new universe, and each hair streaming away from it is a Milky Way.

And then there is a pale stern figure, enormous, enormous, bigger than all that universe is, in silver armour, with a sword and a pair of balances. That is only vague. All has gone into stone-gray, blank.

Hrumachis is the Dawning Sun; he therefore symbolizes any new course of events. The "double-wanded one" is "Thmaist of dual form as Thmais and Thmait", from whom the Greeks derived their Themis, goddess of Justice. But we cannot know the nature of this next aeon at this beginning point in the Aeon of Horus. All pretension to this can only be such; a pretension built on the sophistic abuse of terms interpreting contemporary physics.

There is nothing.

(There were two voices in all this Cry, one behind the other --- or, one was the speech, and the other the meaning. And the voice that was the speech was simply a roaring, one tremendous noise, like a mixture of thunder and water-falls and wild beasts and bands and artillery. And yet it was articulate, though I cannot tell you what a single word was. But the meaning of the voice --- the second voice --- was quite silent, and put the ideas directly into the brain of the Seer, as if by touch. It is not certain whether the millstones and the sword-strokes that rained upon him were not these very sounds and ideas.)

The “second voice” being silent symbolizes the Silent Self that speaks to the Adept without words; transmitting Gnosis “directly into the brain of the Seer.” In other words, the ‘conversation’ with the Holy Guardian Angel doesn’t take place in words; whether English, Enochian or otherwise. This is why the Master Therion writes in MITP:

Let me declare this Work under this title: “The obtaining of the Knowledge and Conversation of the Holy Guardian Angel”’, because the theory implied in these words is so patently absurd that only simpletons would waste much time in analysing it. It would be accepted as a convention, and no one would incur the grave danger of building a philosophical system upon it.

Ths Aethyr seems to be shaping the nature of Crowley’s initiation by providing new Gnosis by developing the theme of the Chemical Wedding.
The Cry of the 24th Aethyr, Which is Called ♂♀

24. "The Rose. (The Woman of Atu XIV. Minister of Babalon; The Water-Kerub in the Initiation.) The First Kiss Of the Lady of Initiation."

The mystery of the Rose Cross

Right at the start, NIA compels us to again, consider AL:III.72—

I am the Lord of the Double Wand of Power; the wand of the Force of Coph Nia—but my left hand is empty, for I have crushed an Universe; & nought remains.

Coph Nia may be a more formal name for this Aethyr with a direct association with Liber AL. Or NIA may be something entirely separate, such as the Rose on the Rosy cross. Coph would then mean Cross; Coph Nia being literally ‘cross rose’ and the “Force of Coph Nia” would then be the antient Rosicrucian current, also known as the Great White Brotherhood.

An angel comes forward into the stone like a warrior clad in chain-armour. Upon his head are plumes of gray, spread out like the fan of a peacock. About his feet a great army of scorpions and dogs, lions, elephants, and many other wild beasts. He stretches forth his arms to heaven and cries; In the crackling of the lightning, in the rolling of the thunder, in the clashing of the swords and the hurling of the arrows: be thy name exalted!

Streams of fire come out of the heavens, a pale brilliant blue, like plumes. And they gather themselves and settle upon his lips. His lips are redder than roses, and the blue plumes gather themselves into a blue rose, and from beneath the petals of the rose come brightly coloured humming-birds, and dew falls from the rose-honey-coloured dew. I stand in the shower of it.

The blue flame that streams from the heavens seems a symbol of Nuit that then gathers on the red lips of Adonai that the honey or gold-colored dew will form his skin—the whole bathing the seer in its light, as Adonai eats into his skin, and as described in the LXV:1.16—

As an acid eats into steel, as a cancer that utterly corrupts the body; so am I unto the spirit of man.

And a voice proceeds from the rose: Come away! Our chariot is drawn by doves. Of mother-of-pearl and ivory is our chariot and the reins thereof are the heart-strings of men. Every moment that we fly shall cover an aeon. And every place on which we rest shall be a young universe rejoicing in its strength; the meadows thereof shall be covered with flowers. There shall we rest but a night, and in the morning we shall flee away, comforted.

This last sentence is reminiscent of Liber LXV:1.9

Debate not of the image, saying Beyond! Beyond! One mounteth unto the Crown by the moon and by the Sun, and by the arrow, and by the Foundation, and by the dark home of the stars from the black earth.

In the above sentence, “young universe” shows the beginning of the journey out of Malkuth to Yesod; having “cover[ed] and aeon”—the aeon being Malkuth (again, not an expression of time in its usage, here). The flowers are covering us suggest the funerary that is Tiphareth where one will “rest but a night”—die the death, “and in the morning,” resurrect; being “comforted” with the L.V.X. of Gnosis.

Now, to myself, I have imagined the chariot of which the voice spake, and I looked to see who was with me in the chariot. It was an Angel of golden hair and golden skin, whose eyes were bluer than the sea, whose mouth was redder than the fire, whose breath was ambrosial air. Finer than a spider’s web were her robes. And they were of the seven colours.

This image occurs throughout; the ‘angel of gold skin with blue eyes’ and is the symbol of the Holy Guardian Angel with the “air” being the words of the book; lettered A.M.B.Z. This angel in the chariot (reminiscent also, of Krsna in the chariot with Arjuna) is also a symbol of the Holy Spirit (Augoeides) or dove in the Cup/Chariot; hence the feminization of the symbol. Indeed, we are here speaking of the Ruach with the appearance of the number 7. The 7 colors are for each of the seven sacred planets. The spider’s web and it’s fine threads become streams of light (L.V.X.) that congeal the Ruach; the starry nature with the earthly nature that is of the 4. And all of this in the light of the goddess; suggested also by the 7, as she is the very key to the mysteries themselves. And as we will see throughout these visions, from the Ruach, the vision of the Abyss and the Supernals changes from the more purely intellectual suppositions gleaned by one who is without the pale of the College of the Rose Cross.

All this I saw; and then the hidden voice went on low and sweet: Come away! The price of the journey is little, though its name be death. Thou shalt die to all that thou fearest and hopest and hatest and lovest and thinkest and art. Yea! thou shalt die, even as thou must die. For all that thou hast, thou hast not; all that thou art, thou art not.

The similarity between the two great initiations, Tiphareth and the Abyss unto Binah is remarkable; the Goddess playing her role as Scarlet Woman in Tiphareth and as Babalon unto the Abyss. Adonai must be an effeminate image as the Goddess plays a passive role at Tiphareth and a dominant role at the Abyss, and with her complement, Pan playing the passive role.

Using those words that already exist in the commonly accepted lexicon and the new translations we have derived from Liber Loagaeth, we translate the above as:

You have become elevated to ‘wisdom, of the secret wisdom’ the secret of truth is empty eneffable with the gathering fire. Come away! Come away! For I am the All-Powerful.” Ofekufa is not attested Enochian, hence the lacuna. In his 1972 edition of The Vision and the Voice, Israel Regardie gave a very free translation by Donald Laycock, who later listed his interpretations as definitions in his otherwise generally reliable Complete Enochian Dictionary.

And I said: ODO KIKALE QAA. Why art thou hidden from me, whom I hear?

And the voice answered and said unto me: Hearing is of the spirit alone. Thou art a partaker of the five-fold mystery.

206 i.e. of the Pentagram.
Thou must roll up the ten divine ones like a scroll, and fashion therefrom a star. Yet must thou blot out the star in the heart of Hadit.

The blotting out of the star in the heart of Hadit is an echo of the radiance of the Sun’s rays dissolving all as described in our note to the 3rd paragraph in the vision of the previously scryed Aethyr. The consciousness must become fixed here; both before the traversal of the Abyss and then, on its return to the Ruach.

For the blood of my heart is like a warm bath of myrrh and ambergris; bathe thyself therein. The blood of my heart is all gathered upon my lips if I kiss thee, burns in my fingertips if I caress thee, burns in my womb when thou art caught up into my bed. Mighty are the stars; mighty is the sun; mighty is the moon; mighty is the voice of the ever-living one, and the echoes of his whisper are the thunders of the dissolution of the worlds. But my silence is mightier than they. Close up the worlds like unto a weary house; close up the book of the recorder, and let the veil swallow up the shrine, for I am arisen, O my fair one, and there is no more need of all these things.

Babalon speaks! and she is present amongst us. Her bed is the bed of the Scarlet Woman whom forms half the formula of Tiphareth—the Beast of course, being the other half. Human beings formulate into syzygies; male and female to create one transcendent Soul in the desolation of their union that is called the Magickal Childe. This is the eugenic secret that opens the door to the greater initiation of the Abyss, where one pours all of oneself into the ‘Cup of Abominations’ that contains the many saints and have displaced the patriarchal god that therein had dwelled.

If once I put thee apart from me, it was the joy of play. Is not the ebb and flowing of the tide a music of the sea? Come, let us mount unto Nuit our mother and be lost! Let being be emptied in the infinite abyss! For by me only shalt thou mount; thou hast none other wings than mine.

Again, as at the opening of this vision, this is here, reminiscent of LXV:I.9

Debate not of the image, saying Beyond! Beyond! One mounteth unto the Crown by the moon and by the Sun, and by the arrow, and by the Foundation, and by the dark home of the stars from the black earth.

All this while the Rose has been shooting out blue flames, coruscating like snakes through the whole Aire. And the snakes have taken shapes of sentences. One of them is: Sub umbra alarum tuarum Adonai quies et felicitas.\(^{210}\) And another: Summum bonum, vera sapientia, magnanima vita, sub noctis nocte sunt.\(^{211}\) And another is: Vera medicina est vinum mortis.\(^{212}\) And another is: Libertas evangelii per jugum legis ob gloriam dei intactam ad vacuum nequaquam tendit.\(^{213}\)

And another is: Sub aqu lex terrarum.\(^{214}\) And another is: Mens edax rerum, cor umbra rerum; intelligentia via summa.\(^{215}\) And another is: Summa via lucis: per Hephaestum undas regas.\(^{216}\) And another is: Vir introit tumulum regis, invenit oleum lucis.\(^{217}\)

And all round the whole of these things are the letters TARO; but the light is so dreadful that I cannot read the words. I am going to try again. All these serpents are collected together very thickly at the edges of the wheel, because there are an innumerable number of sentences. One is: _tres annos regimen oraculi._\(^{218}\) And another is: terribilis ardet rex.\(^{219}\)

And another is: Ter amb (amp?) (can't see it) Rosam oleo (?).\(^{220}\)

And another is: Tribus annulis regna olisbon.\(^{221}\) And the marvel is that with those four letters you can get a complete set of rules for doing everything, both for white magic and black.

These are all anagram or notariqons of TARO as a tetragrammaton; the 4 elements, et al, re-appearing in the symbolism, as we also find with the symbol of the rose and rose cross. Indeed, in the following paragraph, it is used in a description of the union with the Holy Guardian Angel.

And now I see the heart of the rose again. I see the face of him that is the heart of the rose, and in the glory of that face I am ended. My eyes are fixed upon his eyes; my being is sucked up through my eyes into those eyes. And I see through those eyes, and lo! the universe, like whirling sparks of gold, blown like a tempest. I seem to swell out again into him. My consciousness fills the whole Aethyr. I hear the cry NIA, ringing again and again from within me. It sounds like infinite music, and behind the sound is the meaning of the Aethyr. Again there are no words.

\(^{210}\) Refers to 5\(^\circ\) = 6\(^\circ\) initiation.

\(^{211}\) Refers to the Night of Pan (see later Aires) and so to 8\(^\ast\) = 3\(^\circ\) which with 5\(^\circ\) = 6\(^\circ\) make the two initiated steps.

\(^{212}\) Cf. the general doctrine about Death. AL II, vs. 72-74, et al.

\(^{217}\) V.L.T.R.I.O.L. Reference to 1Xs O.T.O.

\(^{218}\) Refers to time required to assimilate the Initiation of 8x=3\(^\circ\) for three years is 156 weeks; and 156 = BABALON.

\(^{219}\) Elyon: the exalted one, nVLI (?). 156, a name of BABALON, (see the Urn) with the Phallic Yod in the midst.

\(^{220}\) Meaning: the Rose must be thrice anointed (?) with oil. (That is, with the oil.)

\(^{221}\) Refers to the Tree of Life; to be ruled by the three reciprocating Paths, which is, by the supernal love, by the Formula of Babalon and the Beast conjointed, and by that Formula at which is hinted in Liber AL. 1,2,3,4. all T.A.R.O.
All this time the whirling sparks of gold go on, and they are like blue sky, with a lot of rather thin white clouds in it, outside. And now I see mountains round, far blue mountains, purple mountains. And in the midst is a little green dell of moss, which is all sparkling with dew that drips from the rose. And I am lying on that moss with my face upwards, drinking, drinking, drinking, drinking, drinking of the dew.

I cannot describe to you the joy and the exhaustion of everything that was, and the energy of everything that is, for it is only a corpse that is lying on the moss. I am the soul of the Aethyr.

The idea of a union with Babalon, seems more a self-aggrandized view from the ego of the imp; than it has anything to do with what is indicated in the symbolism. Two paragraphs prior, we note “him that is the heart of the Rose” — the Rose maybe, as a stand-alone symbol is a lady (representing the Yoni), but the center is the god and the heart that is called Adonai.

Now it reverberates like the swords of archangels, clashing upon the armour of the damned; and there seem to be the blacksmiths of heaven beating the steel of the worlds upon the anvils of hell, to make a roof to the Aethyr.

For if the great work were accomplished and all the Aethyrs were caught up into one, then would the vision fail; then would the voice be still.

Now all is gone from the stone.

222 This passage describes an Initiation, the first of this series. It is the exhaustion of the lower Self of the Seer in his first union with BABALON.

223 This roof seems to be the Path of О (Mars, blacksmiths, steel, etc., the first ring that binds the ОАІОВОЕ). The union with his Mate first occurs In Yesod, of which О may be called the roof. Later we shall find the other marriages of О and І.
The Cry of the 23rd Aethyr, Which is Called \( \aleph \)

23. "The Kerubim of Earth and Air (Minor officers in the Initiations to \( 8^* = 3^p \).) The Vision of the Interplay and Identity of Earth and Air." \(^{225}\)

The Rose Cross theme continues. It is shown that the 30 Aethyrs are contained by the 4 elements.

In the brightness of the stone are three lights, brighter than all, which revolve ceaselessly. \(^{226}\) And now there is a spider's web of silver covering the whole of the stone. Behind the spider's web is a star of twelve rays; \(^{228}\) and behind that again, a black bull, furiously pawing up the ground. The flames from his mouth increase and whirl, and he cries: Behold the mystery of toil, O thou who art taken in the toils of mystery. \(^{229}\) For I who trample the earth thereby make whirlpools in the air; be comforted, therefore, for though I be black, in the roof of my mouth is the sign of the Beetle. \(^{230}\) Bent are the backs of my brethren, yet shall they gore the lion with their horns. Have I not the wings of the eagle, and the face of the man?

The spider’s web appears again and as light, but is here given a silver attribute that suggests a lunar light, the Goddess (The Daughter of Light in Liber Loagaeth) and the zodiac of stars that are the constellations that form the “star of twelve rays” behind it. The angel of the Aethyr declares to “trample the earth,” suggesting the 4 (elements) and to make “whirlpools in the air;” suggesting the 7 (Ruach). And again appears the eagle-angel of the 29th Aethyr that is symbolic of the East and the element of Air; hence again, the Ruach. The ‘black’ plays to the symbol of Osiris, as a black god and hence, Tiphareth, but in the darkness of the dying god in the outer, but carries esoterically, the light of the Sun, as Kephra, the “Beetle.

And now he is turned into one of those winged Assyrian bull-men.

And he sayeth: The spade of the husbandman is the sceptre of the king. \(^{231}\) All the heavens beneath me, they serve me. They are my fields and my gardens and my orchards and my pastures.

\(^{224}\) \( \text{TOR} = \aleph \).

\(^{225}\) Earth is of the 4 and Air is the Ruach; of the 7.

\(^{226}\) The Three Guna, Sattvas, Rajas, Tamas. This is an Introit to the Aethyr. As we proceed, we find more and more obstacles to entering.

\(^{227}\) More introit; veils to the true Vision.

\(^{228}\) Tamas, Kerub of Earth. He and the Eagle of Air make up the 4 Officers of the New Temple.

\(^{229}\) A warning to the Seer not to allow himself to ignore or despise the plain facts of life. Mysteries --- nay, even The Mysteries themselves! are apt to seduce the Aspirant. He becomes exault (as the cold rational French, observing these errors, call him) instead of exalted.

\(^{230}\) The tradition of the Bull Apis. The Beetle is the Midnight Sun, the hidden hope of Earth.

\(^{231}\) The King rules by virtue of the labour of his people. Even Earth is necessary as the support of Heaven. Nuit is upheld by Shu, who stands on Seb. Neglect to understand this causes many "pure Mystics" to fall lamentably. They "go off their base" in the significant slang of common-sense folk.
Glory be unto thee, who didst set thy feet in the North; 232 whose forehead is pierced with the sharp points of the diamonds in thy crown; 233 whose heart is pierced with the spear of thine own fecundity. 234

Thou art an egg of blackness, and a worm of poison. But thou hast formulated thy father, and made fertile thy mother.

Thou art the basilisk whose gaze turns men to stone, and the cockatrice at the breast of an harlot that giveth death for milk. Thou art the asp that has stolen into the cradle of the babe. Glory unto thee, who art twined about the world as the vine that clingeth to the bare body of a bacchanal. 235

Also, though I be planted so firmly upon the earth, yet is my blood wine and my breath fire of madness. With these wings, though they be but little, I lift myself above the crown of the yod, 236 and being without fins I yet swim in the inviolate fountain. 237

I disport myself in the ruins of Eden, even as Leviathan in the false sea 238 , being whole as the rose at the crown of the cross. 239 Come ye unto me, my children, and be glad. At the end of labour is the power of labour 240 . And in my stability is concentrated eternal change. 241

For the whirlings of the universe are but the course of the blood in my heart. And the unspeakable variety thereof is but my divers hairs, and plumes, and gems in my tall crown. The change which ye lament is the life of my rejoicing, and the sorrow that blackeneth your hearts is the myriad deaths by which I am renewed.

The “whirlings of the universe” coursing through the body symbolizes the Holy Spirit crystallizing in the blood that is “in my heart” (Tiphareth). And all the symbols above are symbols of Tiphareth; including the symbol of the Tetragrammaton (“the crown of the yod”).

And the instability which maketh ye to fear, is the little waivings of balance by which I am assured. 242
And now the veil of silver tissue-stuff closes over him, and above that, a purple veil, and above that, a golden veil, so that now the whole stone is like a thick mat of woven gold wires; and there come forth, one from each side of the stone, two women, and grasp each other by both hands, and kiss, and melt into one another; and melt away. And now the veils open again, the gold parts, and the purple parts, and the silver parts, and there is a crowned eagle, also like the Assyrian eagles.

And he cries: All my strength and stability are turned to the use of flight. For though my wings are of fine gold, yet my heart is the heart of a scorpion.

Flight symbolizes Air and again, the Ruach; the (heart of the scorpion) suggests the transformative force that is the initiation at Tiphareth. The “crowned eagle” in flight is the congealing of the Soul that is the Ruach.

Glory unto thee, who being born in a stable didst make thee mirth of the filth thereof, who didst suck in iniquity from the breast of thy mother the harlot; who didst flood with iniquity the bodies of thy concubines.

Thou didst lie in the filth of the streets with the dogs; thou wast tumbled and shameless and wanton in a place where four roads meet. There wast thou defiled, and there wast thou slain, and there wast thou left to rot. The charred stake was thrust through thy bowels, and thy parts were cut off and thrust into thy mouth for derision.

All my unity is dissolved; I live in the tips of my feathers.

That which I think to be myself is but infinite number. Glory unto the Rose and the Cross, for the Cross is extended unto the uttermost end beyond space and time and being and knowledge and delight! Glory unto the Rose that is the minute point of its center! Even as we say; glory unto the Rose that is Nuit the circumference of all, and glory unto the Cross that is the heart of the Rose!

Therefore do I cry aloud, and my scream is the treble as the bellowing of the bull is the bass. Peace in the highest and peace in the lowest and peace in the midst thereof! Peace in the eight quarters, peace in the ten points of the Pentagram! Peace in the twelve rays of the seal 243 These are intended to show symbolically that the Bull is the same as the Eagle.

244 This transformation into Air shows the identity (in ultimate philosophy) of the two forces of change which constitute the Lesser Mysteries of the Sword and the Disk.
245 Refers to the Scorpion in the Symbol of the Bull of Mithras.
246 These two paragraphs refer to the Formula of the Dying God, its perversion and profanation at the hands of those who abused it.
247 Air has a peripheral consciousness.
248 The True Unity does not exist in any particular number, but in as a whole.
249 The Rose and Cross are not merely symbols of definite types of energy, female and male. They are extended in the correlative symbols of Infinity: Nuit and Hadit.
250 Air and Earth are harmonious vibrations, complementary.

The planetary realm of the Ruach

There comes first into the stone the mysterious table of forty-nine squares.²⁵⁴ It is surrounded by an innumerable company of angels; these angels are of all kinds, --- some brilliant and flashing as gods, down to elemental creatures. The light comes and goes on the tablet; and now it is steady, and I perceive that each letter of the tablet is composed of forty-nine other letters, in a language which looks like that of Honorius; but when I would read, the letter that I look at becomes indistinct at once.

And now there comes an Angel, to hide the tablet with his mighty wing. This Angel has all the colours mingled in his dress; his head is proud and beautiful; his headdress is of silver and red and blue and gold and black, like cascades of water, and in his left hand he has a pan-pipe of the seven holy metals, upon which he plays.²⁵⁵ I cannot tell you how wonderful the music is, but it is so wonderful that one only lives in one's ears; one cannot see anything any more.

²⁵³ LIN = dih\(\text{cx}\) is Chassan, ruler of Air; also, Strength. 118 = 2 x 59. 59 = Brethren (referred especially to Lilith and Samael). LIN declares therefore the Twins concealed in Heru-Ra-Ha. 118 is also "to change, pass, renew" and "to ferment"; indicating the Formula of Horus; His first Formula is that of BABALON, for He is as yet within Her womb. But see note on 10th Aire, regarding PARAOAN.

²⁵⁴ See The Equinox, Vol. 1, No. 7, page 231. This table contains the names of the Angels of the Seven Planetary Spheres: Shabathiel, Tzediquiel, Madimiel, Shemashiel, Negahal, Kokabiel, and Levaniel. This seven-fold arrangement is of the Sigil of A\(^2\), A\(^3\), Babalon. See Book of Lies, Cap. 49. And she is the Mother of Heru-Ra-Ha.

²⁵⁵ This "Angel" is in fact PAN. See the 9th Aire "unto All hath she born him."
Now he stops playing and moves with his finger in the air. His finger leaves a trail of fire of every colour, so that the whole Aire is become like a web of mingled lights. But through it all drops dew.256

The ‘web’ of light appears again and again, the “dew” appears and acts; the “dew” that so clearly suggests that life-force (the congealed soul) that the Aspirant (asar un nefer) offers to his Holy Guardian Angel.

(I can’t describe these things at all. Dew doesn’t represent what I mean in the least. For instance, these drops of dew are enormous globes, shining like the full moon, only perfectly transparent, as well as perfectly luminous.)

The web in a prior vision, represents the lunar or silvery light that also suggests the light that is the light of the Veil of Qesheth (Veil that hangs under the Moon, but is especially of the Ruach and couches the L.V.X. in Tiphareth); especially with the rainbow that here is a “fire of every colour.”

And now he shows the tablet again, and he says: As there are 49 letters in the tablet, so are there 49 kinds of cosmos in every thought of God. And there are 49 interpretations of every cosmos, and each interpretation is manifested in 49 ways. Thus also are the calls 49,257 but to each call there are 49 visions. And each vision is composed of 49 elements, except in the 10th Aethyr, that is accursed, and that hath 42.258

The names of the planetary angels in the Enochian universe are derived from this important tablet. And in the vision here, it shows a method for congealing the Ruach that is symbolized by placing each of the planets in the Sefira of each of the other planets to find 49 layers of Soul to identify and integrate into a whole expression of self that is called asar un nefer.

256 This “dew” is the Supernal Lion-Serpent in his Menstruum of liquid Pearl.
257 42 is the number of the Demiurge (see Genesis I), of the Assessors of the Dead (see any book on Egyptian religion), of the Sterile Mother נכום, of Terror and Destruction מזג, of loss (בכי), of the verb “to cease” (לסי), and of רכום, the Earth of Malkuth. It is connected with the 10th Aethyr. See _Equinox_ I, VII, pages 229-243, for the whole symbolism.
All this while the dewdrops have turned into cascades of gold finer than the eyelashes of a little child. And though the extent of the Aethyr is so enormous, one perceives each hair separately, as well as the whole thing at once.

The above is a perfect image of the Holy Guardian Angel as perhaps, the Magickal Childe. The dialectic here, seems to be: asar un nefer and Holy Guardian Angel resulting in the evolutionary Magickal Childe.

And now there is a mighty concourse of angels rushing toward me from every side, and they melt upon the surface of the egg in which I am standing in the form of the god Keph, so that the surface of the egg is all one dazzling blaze of liquid light.

Now I move up against the tablet, --- I cannot tell you with what rapture. And all the names of God, that are not known even to the angels, clothe me about.

All the seven senses are transmuted into one sense, and that sense is dissolved in itself ... (Here occurs Samadhi.) ... Let me speak, O God; let me declare it ... all. It is useless; my heart faints, my breath stops. There is no link between me and P . . . I withdraw myself.

I see the table again.

(He was behind the table for a very long time. O.V.)

The above again, symbolizes the congealing of the soul; the “seven senses” being “transmuted into one sense.” That Crowley experiences this when skrying this plane is an extraordinary magickal vision that then develops into full Samadhi. And so earlier in this work, Crowley experiences a vision of his angel; the first step in the process and is itself the Dharana that the aspiring mage is seeking. The second step is that one deepen the experience to Samadhi; that the ‘Knowledge & Conversation’ be attained. The whole of the process of skrying these aethyrs to obtain Dharana of the Enochian universe and work of its enlightened cosmogony—escaping the Judeo-Christian limitations on the greater mythos from which these cursed canons were originally derived. Per the assertion of the angel, Galvah regarding Liber Loagaeth, the same can be said for the whole of Enochiana and including especially, the 30 Aethyrs—

259 The Solar Child develops from the "Dew".
260 These violations of Normal Logic are stigmatic of most of the higher types of Spiritual Experience. There must be no muddle; that is the usual mistake made by most Mystics. Confused thought is the evil and averse image of the One Clear Light.
261 The winged Egg, the omniform Zero (0x) from which all positive manifestation comes.
262 This experience is perfectly clear and definite, to the peculiar type of higher consciousness which is aware of it.
263 These are those of the Table itself, read across or down, instead of diagonally, as is done to obtain the names given in note 5, p. 32. See also LXXXIV (page 231).
264 Perdurabo, the Motto (in the Outer Order) of the Seer. Even below the True Consciousness with the material and intellectual basis of him.
265 I.e. The Seer was in Samadhi; the Table had been a Veil of the Infinite.
Out of this shall be restored the holy books, which have perished even from the beginning, and from the first that lived. And herein shall be deciphered perfect truth from imperfect falsehood.

And all the table burns with intolerable light; there has been no such light in any of the Aethyrs until now. And now the table draws me back into itself; I am no more.

My arms were out in the form of a cross, and that Cross was extended, blazing with light into infinity. I myself am the minutest point in it.

This is the birth of form. 266

The ancient Tau is of course, the self in extension on the elemental plane; the 4. And of course, the Cross is the principal symbol of Tihareth. The Magick is integrating the 7 and the 4.

I am encircled by an immense sphere of many-coloured bands; it seems it is the sphere of the Sephiroth projected in the three dimensions. This is the birth of death. 267

Beneath the Veil of Paroketh

Now in the centre within me is a glowing sun. That is the birth of hell. 268

The Sun being both life-giving and punishing in its might, is a the source for deriving the nature of all sun-gods. Hell is the scorching qualities of Agni (Rig-Veda); the most ancient of known sun-gods, also known as the source of all life.

Now all that is swept away, washed away by the table. It is the virtue of the table to sweep everything away. It is the letter I in this Aethyr that gives this vision, and L is its purity, and N is its energy. 269 Now everything is confused, for I invoked the Mind, that is disruption. 270 Every Adept who beholds this vision is corrupted by mind. Yet it is by virtue of mind that he endures it, and passes on, if so be that he pass on. Yet there is nothing higher than this, for it is perfectly balanced in itself.

266 Form is the conception of the Self in extension.
267 Death is the conception of the Self extended, not into the positive balanced cross, but into the negative circle (or sphere) of Nuit.
268 For Hell, see Liber Aleph. Hell is the Secret Centre of the Self. One perceives one's Star as one's True Self.
269 L = [Sagittarius]. The Rainbow is connected with the Sevenfold projection. ☿ = [Moon] decreasing in [Cancer]. Luna, when active, always purifies. It is the passive Moon that may be "evil"; i.e. when she reflects not the Sun, her Lord, but divers spectres of the Night. ☿ = ☿ in ☿, the type of energy which informs Vision. ☿ in ☿ would cause action.
270 The Seer had begun to analyze the conceptions presented to him by the Vision. Instantly the internal coherence of its Unity was destroyed. The next two phrases show that this is a difficulty peculiar to this Vision.
I cannot read a word of the holy Table, for the letters of the Table are all wrong. They are only the shadows of shadows. And whoso beholdeth this Table with this rapture, is light. The true word for light hath seven letters. They are the same as ARARITA, transmuted.

ARARITA is then the 7 transmuted into the 1; the congealing of the Soul. One then lays the 4 over this by extension and as discussed above that one becomes fully human; the 1 and 4 making the Holy Pentagram (the 5). This 5 then placed in the 6 also forms the Holy Hexagram with Kether and again, 11 and the Magick deepens the concept of the 7 and the 4.

There is a voice in this Aethyr, but it cannot be spoken. The only way one can represent it is as a ceaseless thundering of the word Amen. It is not a repetition of Amen, because there is no time. It is one Amen continuous.

This symbolizes the 4.

Shall mine eye fade before thy glory? I am the eye. That is why the eye is seventy. You can never understand why, except in this vision.

The Devil Atu (XV), Ayin leads from Netzach to Tiphareth and therefore integrates Venus into the 1, as the Death Atu (XIII), mentioned above connects Mercury. The “birth of form” suggests Saturn and “the birth of hell” suggest Mars. And the silvery web gave us the Moon with the god Kneph representing Jupiter, the king.

And now the table recedes from me. Far, far it goes, streaming with light. And there are two black angels bending over me, covering me with their wings, shutting me up into the darkness; and I am lying in the Pastos of our Father Christian Rosenkreutz, beneath the Table in the Vault of seven sides. And I hear these words:

The voice of the Crowned Child, the Speech of the Babe that is hidden in the egg of blue. (Before me is the flaming Rosy Cross.) I have opened mine eye, and the universe is dissolved.
before me, for force is mine upper eye-lid and matter is my lower eye-lid. The naught is zero; the sum total of the seven sacred planets dissolved into the One that is none. Here, the raison d’être foe the ‘eye’ is given, as the angel had said he would do.

The naught comes without words; and then again:

I have gone forth to war, and I have slain him that sat upon the sea, crowned with the winds. I put forth my power and he was broken. I withdrew my power and he was ground into fine dust.

Rejoice with me, O ye Sons of the Morning; stand with me upon the Throne of Lotus; gather yourselves up unto me, and we shall play together in the fields of light. I have passed into the Kingdom of the West after my Father.

The “Kingdom of the West” is the initiatory place of death.

Behold! where are now the darkness and the terror and the lamentation? For ye are born into the new Aeon; ye shall not suffer death. Bind up your girdles of gold! Wreathe yourselves with garlands of my unfading flowers! In the nights we will dance together, and in the morning we will go forth to war; for, as my Father liveth that was dead, so do I live and shall never die.

And now the table comes rushing back. It covers the whole stone, but this time it pushes me before it, and a terrible voice cries: Begone! Thou hast profaned the mystery; thou hast eaten of the shew-bread; thou hast spilled the consecrated wine! Begone! For the Voice is accomplished. Begone! For that which was open is shut. And thou shalt not avail to open it, saving by virtue of him whose name is one, whose spirit is one, whose individuum is one, and whose 276 These ideas are complementary; when they combine they produce positive manifestation, which covers up the Glance of the Eye of Shiva, which annihilates all external existence.

277 The Seven spaces are the "Palaces" which contain the Sephiroth.

278 This is the foe of Horus, the Dweller of Nile. The winds which crown him are not the pure powers of Air of Libra, but the cloudy (mixed) forces of Aquarius, opposite in the Zodiac to Leo, the sign of Horus.

279 The Energy of Horus destroys indeed, but must be withdrawn to complete the work, for His rays, if left in their object, would keep it vitalized. The coherence of the broken matter must be withdrawn.

280 Harpocrates stands or sits upon the Lotus, his fortress against the malice of the Water-demon.

281 Osiris has been chased into Amennti by Horus, who follows him thither, that his reign may be established even in the realms of "Death". In the New Aeon, Death is become Life Triumphant, not through Resurrection, but in its own Essence.

282 See last note. The Thelemite does not "suffer death". He is eternal and perceives Himself the Universe, by virtue of the categories of Life and Death, which are not real but subjective forms of his artistic presentation.

283 Osiris, tricked into the belief in death, had to overcome it by Magick, the Formula IAO.

284 The Seer has erred, it seems, by translating the Doctrine into intelligible symbols. for this is likely to cause a new "Fall" into the barren kingdoms of Ratiocination.
permutation is one;\textsuperscript{285} whose light is one, whose life is one, whose love is one. For though thou art joined to the inmost mystery of the heaven, thou must accomplish the sevenfold task of the earth, even as thou sawest the Angels from the greatest unto the least. And of all this shalt thou take back with thee but a little part, for the sense shall be darkened, and the shrine re-veiled. Yet know this for thy reproof, and for the stirring up of discontent in them whose swords are of lath,\textsuperscript{286} that in every word of this vision is concealed the key of many mysteries, even of being, and of knowledge, and of bliss;\textsuperscript{287} of will, of courage, of wisdom, and of silence,\textsuperscript{288} and of that which, being all these, is greater than all these. Begone! For the night of life is fallen upon thee. And the veil of light hideth that which is.

The sevenfold task would be the work of congealing the Soul; once the four elements are equilibrated. It is here at the end of this vision, Crowley is given this task to perform by the angle; after the vision showed him in perfect Samadi, how to accomplish this.

With that, I suddenly see the world as it is, and I am very sorrowful.

\textsuperscript{285} ARARITA (--- a name of God, which is a Notariqon of the sentence: "One is His beginning; One is his Individuality; His Permutation One.") The use of this Name and Formula is to equate and identify every idea with its opposite; thus being released from the obsession of thinking any one of them as "true" (and therefore binding); one can withdraw oneself from the whole sphere of the Ruach. See Liber 813, vel Ararita. Contrast each verse of Cap. I with the corresponding verse of Cap. II for the first of these methods. Thus in Cap. III (still verse by verse correspondence) the Quintessence of the ideas is extracted; and in Cap. IV they are withdrawn each one into the one beyond it. In Cap. V they have disappeared into the Method itself. In Cap. VI they reappear in the Form appointed by the Will of the Adept. Lastly, in Cap. VII they are dissolved, one into the next until all finally disappear in the Fire Qadosh, the Quintessence of Reality.

The Cry of the 21st Aethyr, Which is Called ASP. 289

The 7 planets coagulated in the Ruach and ruled over by the Master.

A mighty wind rolls through all the Aethyr; there is a sense of absolute emptiness; no colour, no form, no substance. Only now and then there seem as it were, the shadows of great angels, swept along. No sound; there is something very remorseless about the wind, passionless, that is very terrible. In a way, it is nerve-shaking. It seems as if something kept on trying to open behind the wind, and just as it is about to open, the effort is exhausted. The wind is not cold or hot; there is no sense of any kind connected with it. One does not even feel it, for one is standing in front of it.

The wind is the Ruach. It is the wind of thoughts; emanating from each of its seven planetary energies. These are not the elemental winds of nature.

Now, the thing opens behind, just for a second, and I catch a glimpse of an avenue of pillars, and at the end a throne, supported by sphinxes. All this is black marble. 290

Now I seem to have gone through the wind, and to be standing before the throne; but he that sitteth thereon is invisible. Yet it is from him that all this desolation proceeds. 291

"[D]esolation" proceeds from the Holy Guardian Angel on the throne; and not the Patriarchal Jehovah! In other words, Jehovah on the throne tells the patriarchal adherent that he is not God. But as Adonai, the symbol reaches to each our individual Augoeides in the pseudopegriphic tradition that was set apart from the politicized canon of the ancient Rabbis. As Thelemites, we embrace this "desolation" for this is the half that the Jews don’t have; neither do the other Abrahamic canons; for that matter.

He is trying to make me understand by putting tastes in my mouth, very rapidly one after the other. Salt, honey, sugar, 292

289 ASP = यन्त्रो = रिष्य = 25 = जहैवड़ = Jehevid, God of Geburah of Briah = आश्वान्त The Beast. The aire shows the supplanting of that by this. (A’s MS. has "Mythus (?)" for "by this")[1]. Taurus is Osiris. Virgo the Virgin (the lonely one). These are the Dying God symbols, which Leo --- the Lion, Atu XI, The Beast --- replaces.

290 This setting symbolizes the Way of Time in the Temple of Inscrutable Destiny.

291 This Deity is Necessity or Fate. This whole Aire is of a metaphysic more difficult to understand than any of the earlier. The student must have finally shut out of his mind not only the crude ideas of Good and Evil, but the most fundamental logical conceptions, such as that of being obliged to think of a state of mind, or an individual, as being true to itself. This God is at the same time an Abomination and a supreme Overlord. One may indeed say that the student ought to be in a state not far from Samadhi before meditating the meaning of the Aire.

292 Salt Water or Earth, probably ......................... M
Honey Bees: feminine symbol. Binah. Probably ............ E
assafoetida, bitumen, honey again, some taste that I don't know at all; garlic, something very bitter like nux vomica, another taste, still more bitter; lemon, cloves, rose-leaves, honey again; the juice of some plant, like a dandelion, I think; honey again, salt, a taste something like phosphorus, honey, laurel, a very unpleasant taste which I don't know, coffee, then a burning taste, then a sour taste that I don't know. All these tastes issue from his eyes; he signals them.

I can see his eyes now. They are very round, with perfectly black pupils, perfectly white iris, and the cornea pale blue. The sense of desolation is so acute that I keep on trying to get away from the vision.293

I told him that I could not understand his taste-language, so instead he set up a humming very much like a big electric plant with dynamos going.

Now the atmosphere is deep night-blue; and by the power of that atmosphere, the pillars kindle to a dull glowing crimson, and the throne is a dull, ruddy gold.294 And now, through the humming, come very clear, bell-like notes, and farther still a muttering, like that of a gathering storm.

A throne of gold in a desolate temple with the beatification of the being yet to take place; once the Soul is congealed is intimating that the Seer is yet to take this throne himself; it being the throne of himself as asar un nefer.
And now I hear the meaning of the muttering: I am he who was before the beginning, and in my desolation I cried aloud, saying, let me behold my countenance in the concave of the abyss. 295 And I beheld, and lo! in the darkness of the abyss my countenance was black, and empty, and distorted, 296 that was (once) invisible and pure.

This “desolation” is Kether放弃 his height as the One becoming the All. In general, whenever a god abdicates a throne, it’s an act of ‘desolation.’ The “concave of the abyss” can only be seen from the viewpoint of Kether as it involutes.

Then I closed mine eye, that I might not behold it, and for this was it fixed. Now it is written that one glance of mine eye shall destroy it. 297 And mine eye I dare not open, because of the foulness of the vision. Therefore do I gaze with these two eyes throughout the aeon. 298 Is there not one of all my adepts that shall come unto me, and cut off mine eyelids, that I may behold and destroy? 299

The aeon here again, must be a being and not a span of time; a being that contains the field of the mind that “throughout,” yields thought with again, the symbol of the eye and hence the Devil Atu connected. The path from the sphere of Venus suggests the nature of Venus, where are the philosophical issues are worked out in the act of congelation.

Now I take a dagger, and, searching out his third eye, seek to cut off the eye-lids, but they are of adamant. And the edge of the dagger 300 is turned.

And tears 301 drop from his eyes, and there is a mournful voice:
So it hath been ever: so must it ever be! Though thou hast the strength of five bulls, thou shalt not avail in this. 302

But there sphere of Venus is the emotional sphere in terms of the 4 and the turned dagger suggests how the intellect and the emotions are inimical. Certainty does not seem present at this point in the vision.

And I said to him: Who shall avail? And he answered me: I know

300 This minor elemental weapon is evidently useless against fundamental ideas like force and matter, of which it is itself but a trivial complex.
301 Binah, mother of Sorrow, the tears from the Great Sea, Her symbol. The first issue of Understanding is the trance of Sorrow.
302 The Bull = B = ¥ = V. The Motto of the Seer as in the Grade of Binah ¥ = ,³ is V.V.V.V.V., the five Bulls. He had already chosen this motto, through he had refused to accept the Grade when offered to him three years before by the Chiefs. We now approach those Aethyrs in which his full Initiation to that Grade was accomplished.
But the dagger of penance thou shalt temper seven times, afflicting the seven courses of thy soul. And thou shalt sharpen its edge seven times by the seven ordeals.

(One keeps on looking round to try to find something else because of the terror of it. But nothing changes at all. Nothing but the empty throne, and the eyes, and the avenue of pillars!)

And I said to him: O thou that art the first countenance before time; thou of whom it is written that "He, God, is one; He is the eternal one, without equal, son or companion. Nothing shall stand before His face"; all we have heard of thine infinite glory and holiness, of thy beauty and majesty, and behold! there is nothing but this abomination of desolation.

The “one” is not represented by Jehovah; the patriarchal god whose absence in Solomon’s temple is for the Hebrews, the “abomination of desolation.” However, for the Thelemites it is the Stele of Revealing as a symbol of the Sun and equal to 52 (for the solar weeks [sets of 7 days] in a year) and added to the number of the Sun (666) is equal to 718. Here we have corroboration that it is no longer Jehovah in the Holy of Holies, but each, our own Star.

He speaks; I cannot hear a word; something about The Book of the Law. The answer is written in The Book of the Law, or something of that sort.

This is a long speech; all that I can hear is: From me pour down the fires of life and increase continually upon the earth. From me flow down the rivers of water and oil and wine. From me cometh forth the wind that beareth the seed of trees and flowers and fruits and all herbs upon its bosom. From me cometh forth the earth in her unspeakable variety. Yea! all cometh from me, naught cometh to me. Therefore am I lonely and horrible upon this unprofitable throne. Only those who accept nothing from me can bring anything to me.

The above paragraph seems a poetic articulation on the rationale for the involution; the movement towards “her” of the “earth” is the desire of Babalon. Cf. A Token of Babalon.

303 I = י nl = 61. Know = נו = 31. Not = נ = 61. Also I know not --- I know that which is Not. Such are the roots of the Equation of Ambiguity, used often by Higher Intelligences (especially in The Book of the Law, q.v.) to prove their identity as Individuals separate from the Seer, and superior to him.
304 This rebukes the Seer for having tried to use the elemental Dagger. Perhaps the four sevens in the injunction refer to Netzach, Victory. For Netzach = 7; and 28 = 1·7 as well as 4·7, 28 is a "perfect" number; its factors add up to itself.
305 That is the extreme horror: for Change is Life, the issue of love.
306 נג橣 The Great Countenance (which beheld not Countenance).
307 The Chapter of the Unity, in the Qu’ran.
308 This may refer to the Formula 0 = 2.
(He goes on speaking again: I cannot hear a word. I may have got about a twentieth of what he said.) And I say to him: It was written that his name is Silence, but thou speakest continually.

And he answers: Nay, the muttering that thou hearest is not my voice. It is the voice of the ape. 309

(When I say that he answers, it means that it is the same voice. The being on the throne has not uttered a word.) I say: O thou ape that speakest for Him whose name is Silence, how shall I know that thou speakest truly His thought? And the muttering continues: Nor speaketh He nor thinketh, so that which I say is true, because I lie in speaking His thoughts. 310

Per the intimation in Crowley’s footnote, “thought” is a symbol of the Ruach and “His thoughts” are the thoughts of the godhead. The seven Sacred Planets symbolize from ancient times, the seven demi-gods that came from the original one (biune) God. And though these thoughts on their own are contradictory 311 (as Crowley asserts in his footnote), they become integrated into the whole that is individuated at Tiphareth and in whatever particular harmonized construct that belongs to each individuated being; having reached his perfection at Tiphareth.

He goes on, nothing stops him; and the muttering comes so fast that I cannot hear him at all.

Now the muttering has ceased, or is overwhelmed by the bells, and the bells in their turn are overwhelmed by the whirring, and now the whirring is overwhelmed by the silence. And the blue light is gone, and the throne and the pillars are returned to blackness, and the eyes of him that sitteth upon the throne are no more visible.

I seek to go up close to the throne, and I am pushed back, because I cannot give the sign. I have given all the signs I know and am entitled to, 312 and I have tried to give the sign that I know and am not entitled to, 313 but have not the necessary appurtenance; and even if I had, it would be useless; for there are two more signs necessary. 314

309 Kether, of course, does not speak. His Nature is made apparent by Thoth, the Logos, the Creative Word. But this Word must evidently be false, since He is Silence. Thoth, however, is himself accompanied by the Cynocephalos, the dog-headed Ape, who imitates and caricatures all His actions, and misinterprets His speech.

310 The idea is that Truth may be stated by denying a falsehood. This lands us in the quagmires of "Zigzagginess", the paradox of Epaminoneas, et hoc genus omne. One great point of the Initiated Doctrine is that the Ruach (the Mechanism of Thought) is in its essential nature self-contradictory. From now on, the Angels of the Aethyrs begin to speak in the language of Neshamah; they use the logic which pertains above the Abyss. The student will, accordingly, find statements which must be reversed and reversed again and again; both are true and false at once; neither is true or false --- and so on.

311 Their contradictory nature are as all things below the Abyss.

312 The sign of the Grades up to 7 = 4².

313 the sign of 8 = 3².

314 The signs of 9 = 2² and 10 = 1²; necessary because this Vision pertains to Kether.
Crowley is being told that his Soul is not yet congealed and the throne is yet beyond him.

I find that I was wrong in suggesting\footnote{See the "Wake World" in \emph{Konx Om Pax}.} that a Master of the Temple had a right to enter the temple of a Magus or an Ipsissimus. On the contrary, the rule that holds below, holds also above. The higher you go, the greater is the distance from one grade to another.\footnote{See \emph{One Star in Sight}.}

I am being slowly pushed backwards down the avenue, out into the wind. And this time I am caught up by the wind and whirled away down it like a dead leaf.

And a great Angel sweeps through the wind, and catches hold of me, and bears me up against it; and he sets me down on the hither side of the wind, and he whispers in my ear: Go thou forth into the world, O thrice and four times blessed who hast gazed upon the horror of the loneliness of The First.\footnote{Observe the point-of-view, so totally opposite to any ever previously set forth, about the psychology of Kether.} No man shall look upon his face and live. And thou hast seen his eyes, and understood his heart, for the voice of the ape is the pulse of his heart and the labouring of his breast. Go, therefore, and rejoice, for thou art the prophet of the Aeon arising, wherein He is not.\footnote{In the Ontology of the New Aeon, whose prime theorem is $0 = 2$, Kether exists only as the Child of any Marriage of one particular Hadit with one particular aspect of Nuit. There are thus as many Kethers as there are positive possibilities. More, Kether is not in any case a sole Unity, for each Marriage produces a Twin, $\overline{1}$ + $\gamma$ = $\overline{1}$ + $\gamma$. There is a positive "Third Being", a Kether; and there is an Ecstasy, or dissolution into Nothing, by the same Event. One is the Magical, the other the Mystical, Result of an Act of Love under Will. Give thou praise unto thy lady Nuit, and unto her lord Hadit, that are for thee and thy bride, and the winners of the ordeal X.\footnote{this night I took the shew-stone to my breast to sleep, and immediately a Dhyana arose of the sun, seen more clearly afterwards as the Star. Exceeding was its brilliance.}

And with that we are come to the wall of the Aethyr, and there is a little narrow gate, and he pushes me through it, and I am suddenly in the desert.

The Cry of the 20th Aethyr, Which is Called KHR\textsuperscript{321}

The spiritual radiance of Jupiter and the taking on of the mantle of the king to stand before the Abyss; the false crown—implying mastery of the Ruach and the congealing of the Soul

The dew that was upon the face of the stone is gone, and it is become like a pool of clear golden water. And now the light is come into the Rosy Cross. Yet all that I see is the night, with the stars therein, as they appear through a telescope.\textsuperscript{322} And there cometh a peacock\textsuperscript{323} into the stone, filling the whole Aire. It is like the vision called the Universal Peacock, or, rather, like a representation of that vision. And now there are countless clouds of white angels\textsuperscript{324} filling the Aire as the peacock dissolves.

Now behind the angels are archangels with trumpets. These cause all things to appear at once, so that there is a tremendous confusion of images. And now I perceive that all these things are but veils of the wheel, for they all gather themselves\textsuperscript{325} into a wheel\textsuperscript{326} that spins with incredible velocity. It hath many colours, but all thrilled with white light, so that they are transparent and luminous. This one wheel is forty-nine wheels, set at different angles, so that they compose a sphere; each wheel has forty-nine spokes, and has forty-nine\textsuperscript{327} concentric tyres at equal distances from the centre. And wherever the rays from any two wheels meet, there is a blinding flash of glory. It must be understood that though so much detail is visible in the wheel, yet at the same time the impression is of a single, simple object.

The sevenfold theme continues of each other the seven planetary energies congealing in each other to formulate the 1 that merges with the 4, as we noted in our \textsuperscript{321} KHR = \Theta\Delta\Pi = \psi\kappa = 308. (N.B. by Temurah, R.H.K. = Ra-Hoor-Khuit). 308 = 28 x 11. 28 = \Gamma\Delta = \text{Jupiter} (Jupiter is exalted in Cancer) means Power. And 29 is the "mystic number" of Netzach, Victory, the Sephira that hangs from the Sphere of Jupiter, by the path of Jupiter, Atu X, the Wheel of Fortune. This Atu is the main subject of the vision in this Aethyr. In this Aethyr the Solar Body (Ruach --- the human consciousness) of the Seer was prepared for the Great Initiation which follows, as in the 27th Aire his Lunar Body (Nepesch --- automatic Consciousness) was purified.

\textsuperscript{322} These preliminary visions are veils.

\textsuperscript{323} The bird sacred to Juno, the feminine counterpart of Jupiter, whose Energy is about to appear.

\textsuperscript{324} The Chasmalim, "The brilliant ones", are the Chior of Angels which pertain to Jupiter.

\textsuperscript{325} This unification is necessary to all true comprehension.

\textsuperscript{326} The Wheel of Fortune (so called); Atu X is the Wheel of the Samsara whose spokes are the Three Gunas, the three fundamental Modes of Energy, Sattvas, Rajas, and Tamas. See also Book of Lies, Cap. 78.

\textsuperscript{327} The symbolism of the Table (see 22nd Aire) still retains its prominence. 7 is the number of the Inferiors, of the Feminine Perfection. 3 x 49 = 147 = \text{al-ga} + \text{al-ga} + \text{al-ga} + \text{al-ga} = the Four Names of god used in the Lesser Ritual of the Pentagram. Thus there is here the symbolism of the Fourfold Regimen (Tetragrammaton) implied in 3 x 7 x 7.
commentary on the 2nd Aethyr. The spinning wheel not only implies their congealing by the force of its motion, but as a symbol of Jupiter, suggests the Exempt Adept who stands before the Abyss.

It seems that this wheel is being spun by a hand. Though the wheel fills the whole Aire, yet the hand is much bigger than the wheel. And though this vision is so great and splendid, yet there is no seriousness with it, or solemnity. It seems that the hand is spinning the wheel merely for pleasure, it would be better to say amusement. A voice comes: For he is a jocund and a ruddy god, and his laughter is the vibration of all that exists, and the earthquakes of the soul.

One is conscious of the whirring of the wheel thrilling one, like an electric discharge passing through one.

Now I see the figures on the wheel, which have been interpreted as the sworded Sphinx, Hermanubis and Typhon. And that is wrong. The rim of the wheel is a vivid emerald snake; in the centre of the wheel is a scarlet heart; and, impossible to explain as it is, the scarlet of the heart and the green of the snake are yet more vivid than the blinding white brilliance of the wheel.

The Wheel here is literally being turned into the Rose of the Rose Cross.

The figures on the wheel are darker than the wheel itself; in fact, they are stains upon the purity of the wheel, and for that reason, and because of the whirling of the wheel, I cannot see them. But at the top seems to be the Lamb and Flag, such as one sees on some Christian medals, and one of the lower things is a wolf, and the other a raven. The Lamb and 328 Hand = י = 20 = K = 4. But also the first is itself K. There is, however, an esoteric doctrine in this phrase. י is the spermatozoon, the source of all Spiritual Energy, the Minute Point, Hadit, the foundation of the Alphabet, (Hebrew). But also K = [HEB:Peh-final][HEB:Koph] = 100 = 10 x 10 = י x י; and K and P are the initials of Ketis and ΘΛΛΛΩΣ whose union releases י. Thus the Universe is shown as being set in motion by Love under Will. See Book of Lies, Cap. 43.

329 See the usual drawing of Atu X by minor initiates.

330 The symbolism here assumes the form of Liber LXV. It is simpler and therefore more difficult than the sevenfold. The counter charges become more frequent; the Seer is being led up to the state in which opposites are not only equal, but identical.
Flag symbol is much brighter than the other two. It keeps on growing brighter, until now it is brighter than the wheel itself, and occupies more space than it did.

The Fortune Atu after being transformed into the Rose, then shows the symbol of the ‘Lamb of God’ upon it as a corruption upon the wheel; Jesus upon the cross being a cursed god in Liber AL.

It speaks: I am the greatest of the deceivers, for my purity and innocence shall seduce the pure and innocent, who but for me should come to the centre of the wheel.\textsuperscript{331} The wolf betrayeth only the greedy and the treacherous; the raven betrayeth only the melancholy and the dishonest.\textsuperscript{332} But I am he of whom it is written: He shall deceive the very elect.

Choronzon speaks from the Abyss and demonstrates the power to corrupt even the best of intentions, as all intent in the Abyss is for the demon to feed upon.

For in the beginning the Father of all called forth lying spirits that they might sift the creatures of the earth in three sieves, according to the three impure souls. And he chose the wolf for the lust of the flesh, and the raven for the lust of the mind; but me did he choose above all to simulate the pure prompting of the soul.\textsuperscript{333} Them that are fallen a prey to the wolf and the raven I have not scathed; but them that have rejected me, I have given over to the wrath of the raven and the wolf.\textsuperscript{334} And the jaws of the one have torn them, and the beak of the other has devoured the corpse. Therefore is my flag white, because I have left nothing upon the earth alive. I have feasted myself on the blood of the saints, but I am not suspected of men to be their enemy, for my fleece is white and warm, and my teeth are not the teeth of one that teareth flesh; and mine eyes are mild, and they know me not the chief of the lying spirits that the Father of all sent forth from before his face in the beginning.\textsuperscript{335}

Da’ath is before the force of Kether/God; Da’ath sits on top of the Ruach and before the Adeptus Exemptus. It offers the image of the false Adept; the impossible ideal of

\textsuperscript{332} Note that no hostile force is hurtful. The enemy is always oneself.

\textsuperscript{333} The attacks are against Nephesch, Ruach, and Neshama respectively.

\textsuperscript{334} When the aspiration (Neshama), the natural protection against all lower forces, is sullied, befooled, or weakened, the wretch becomes an easy prey to grosser forms of temptation. We see in fact only too often that a man of the utmost probity and intellectual integrity, who errs in some strictly spiritual matter, lose every trace of rationality, and throw off all moral restraint, becoming the helpless victim of ludicrous and hideous temptations which had never threatened him before in his whole life. His nature is so radically corrupted that his friends believe him to have become insane. But his fall is quite logical, as a tumbling steeple may crush the perfectly sound structures beneath it.

an artificially constructed dying god. And like Jehovah before him, preaches slavery as freedom and death as life. And when the raven and the wolf pounce, he would even have you turn the other cheek!

(His attribution is salt; the wolf mercury, and the raven sulphur. 336)

Now the lamb grows small again, there is again nothing but the wheel, and the hand that whirls it.

And I said: "By the word of power, double in the voice of the Master; by the word that is seven, and one in seven; 337 and by the great and terrible word 210, 338 I beseech thee, O my Lord, to grant me the vision of thy glory." And all the rays of the wheel stream out at me, and I am blasted and blinded with the light. I am caught up into the wheel. I am one with the wheel. I am greater than the wheel. 339 In the midst of a myriad lightnings I stand, and I behold his face. (I am thrown violently back on to the earth every second, so that I cannot quite concentrate.)

It is as if Crowley himself becomes the Rose and becoming “greater than the wheel,” there seems the suggestion of the cross of light to which the rose is affixed. This is a vision of his own initiation into Tiphareth.

All one gets is a liquid flame of pale gold. But its radiant force keeps hurling me back.

And I say: By the word and the will, by the penance and the prayer, let me behold thy face. (I cannot explain this, there is confusion of personalities.) I who speak to you, see what I tell you; but I, who see him, cannot communicate it to me, who speak to you. 340

All the petty egos merging as seven and seven times seven into one, as stated just above. And the personality of the Holy Guardian Angel is of the Augoeides, a starry construct that does not have a human personality and cannot be conveyed by the Adept into anything describable. This is why no doctrine should be built upon it.

If one could gaze upon the sun at noon, that might be like the substance of him. But the light is without heat. It is the vision of 338 N.O.X. = 337 = 210. ∇ represents the reduction of the Dyad to Unity by Love under Will, and thence to 0 by dissolution in Nuit. It is here used by the Seer to destroy all positive symbols, for the true Wheel (apart from ornaments) is the circle, Nuit Herself.

337 ARARITA
339 Note the above-the-Abyss-consciousness. Cf. "I who am all, and made it all, abide its separate Lord." (Bhagavad Gita)
340 This personality-paradox is characteristic of visions of similar exaltation. It constitutes an essential difficulty of expression superadded to that natural to the description of things seen and heard, which are yet not subject to the ordinary Laws of perception.
Ut\textsuperscript{341} in the Upanishads. And from this vision have come all the legends of Bacchus and Krishna and Adonis.\textsuperscript{342} For the impression is of a youth dancing and making music. But you must understand that he is not doing that, for he is still.\textsuperscript{343} Even the hand that turns the wheel is not his hand, but only a hand energized by him.

And as stated above, this god turning the Wheel has a playful nature. These are all gods of Tiphareth; including UT that represents the H.G.A. in the Upanishads.

And now it is the dance of Shiva. I lie beneath his feet, his saint, his victim.\textsuperscript{344} My form is the form of the God Phtah,\textsuperscript{345} in my essence, but the form of the god Seb in my form.\textsuperscript{346} And this is the reason of existence, that in this dance which is delight, there must needs be both the god and the adept. Also the earth herself is a saint; and the sun and the moon dance upon her, torturing her with delight.

This vision is not perfect. I am only in the outer court of the vision, because I have undertaken it in the service of the Holy One, and must retain sense and speech.\textsuperscript{347} No recorded vision is perfect, of high visions, for the seer must keep either his physical organs or his memory in working order. And neither is capable. There is no bridge. One can only be conscious of one thing at a time, and as the consciousness moves nearer to the vision, it loses control of the physical and mental. Even so, the body and the mind must be very perfect before anything can be done, or the energy of the vision may send the body into spasms and the mind into insanity. This is why the first visions give Ananda, which is a shock. When the adept is attuned to Samadhi, there is but cloudless peace.\textsuperscript{348}

This vision is particularly difficult to get into, because he is I.\textsuperscript{349} And therefore the human ego is being constantly excited, so that one comes back so often. An acentric meditation practice like \textit{mahasatipatthana} ought to be done before invocations of the Holy Guardian \textsuperscript{341} See previous note on Falutli.

\textsuperscript{342} These are Solar, not Jupiterian deities. The Jupiter of the Wheel is that Invisible Energy, whom one can only divine from his Hand, his means of Expression. He is Amoun, the Concealed One, whose plumes are Truth, and whose Phallus is the Middle Pillar, the Shivalingam. We hind accordingly that these Solar Deities, who spring from the manifested Jupiter (as it at first sight appears) are soon recognized in their deeper nature.
\textsuperscript{343} Change = Stability. $2^9 = 9^8$. See the 11th Aethyr. Again this series of paradoxes (implied in the equations $0^9 = 0^8$, $1^8 = 10^0$, etc.) is of the essence of the Aire.
\textsuperscript{344} See any true Image of Shiva, who dances upon the Yogi, whom he has destroyed in the Union of Love.
\textsuperscript{345} Phtah, the still and silent Creative Energy.
\textsuperscript{346} That is, the form of the Seer is now the Earth itself, the Malkuth at the other end of the scale from, yet identical with, His Kether.
\textsuperscript{347} Any vision as exalted as this must obviously be indicable. The plastic form of the expression, the definite character of the shapes, colours, and numbers employed, is far better mnemonically than the vaguely beatific outbursts customary in the records usually offered by Mystics.
\textsuperscript{348} The psychology of the previous note explained at length.
\textsuperscript{349} In previous visions the Angel of the Aethyr has always been peculiar to his Aire. Even in ZAA, where the Angel is Luna, and the Vision represents the lustration of the Lunar Body The invitation to the Chemical Wedding (the Automatic Consciousness) This then, would be explained as meaning spiritual intuition at a high state of development of the Seer, He was not so wholly involved. For his normal consciousness was above that which the Aethyr affected.
Angel, so that the ego may be very ready to yield itself utterly to the Beloved.

And now the breeze is blowing about us, like the sighs of love unsatisfied—or satisfied. His lips move. I cannot say the words at first.

The “breeze” is the Ruach; centered with the Will that is of Tiphareth, but this is also Love with the winds become sighs...thoughts become emotion.

And afterwords: "Shalt thou not bring the children of men to the sight of my glory? Only thy silence and thy speech that worship me avail. For as I am the last, so am I the next, and as the next shalt thou reveal me to the multitude." Fear not for aught; turn not aside for aught, eremite of Nuit, apostle of Hadit, warrior of Ra Hoor Khu! The leaven taketh, and the bread shall be sweet; the ferment worketh, and the wine shall be sweet. My sacraments are vigorous food and divine madness. Come unto me, O ye children of men; come unto me, in whom I am, in whom ye are, were ye only alive with the life that abideth in Light."

All this time I have been fading away. I sink. The veil of night comes down a dull blue-gray with one pentagram in the midst of it, watery and dull. And I am to abide there for a while before I come back to the 350 It seems that the seer recognized in this Aethyr, the Knowledge and Conversation of His Holy Guardian Angel.

351 In the Crossing of the Abyss by the Seer ("The Temple Of Solomon the King", Equinox I, No. 8 pp. 9-13) during his Burma-China journey, he accomplished the meditation called Sammasati. He became aware of his True Will, of the purpose for which he had undertaken Incarnation. And this was expressed thus: to aid Mankind to take the Next Step. And at the time he understood this as meaning: to lead them to aspire to the Knowledge and Conversation of the Holy Guardian Angel.

352 Liber LXV describes this attainment in the fullest detail. The first quotation is from VII:VI.35. The second is from LXV:III.62 (The persons are transposed—"I" to "Thou", etc.).

The Cry of the 19th Aethyr, Which is Called $\Omega\Omega\Omega$

Approaching Initiation at Tiphareth

At first there is a black web over the face of the stone. A ray of light pierces it from behind and above. Then cometh a black cross,\textsuperscript{358} reaching across the whole stone; then a golden cross, not so large. And there is a writing in an arch that spans the cross, in an alphabet in which the letters are all formed of little daggers,\textsuperscript{359} cross-hilted, differently arranged. And the writing is: Worship in the body the things of the body; worship in the mind the things of the mind; worship in the spirit the things of the spirit.\textsuperscript{360}

The “black cross” seems like the Tau of the Universe Atu, while the “golden cross” seems to represent Tiphareth. That the daggers are also made of crosses, we have the symbol of Air/Intellect and the Ruach.

The Alphabet of Daggers

\textsuperscript{357} POP = פָּרָשָׁה = פָּרָשָׁה. This Aire introduces the Hegemone, or leader of the Candidate through the Ceremony of Initiation. She is the Holy Guardian Angel, in the form of Isis-Urania, the Instructress. $\Omega$ in his Northern declination, the form of Horus in his strength of Summer. He appears in his dual form, as it were the pillars between which the Hegemone, who bears a mitreheaded wand, symbolical of the Balances, is seated. (See the Neophyte Ceremony—Equinox I, 2, pp. 244-261.) She is the reconciler between all opposites. (See the Ceremony of the Equinox --- given in Equ. I, 7, pp. 372-5). Her function is to equilibrate all symbols in the sphere of the Candidate; this is the one supremely important formula of Instruction. This Aethyr contains accordingly the knowledge (somewhat fragmentary at first sight) necessary to the Aspirant to the Grade of Magister Templi. 48 is לְלֵי, a woman; also strength, an army. $\Pi$ the Bearer of the Graal; and the seed of life; $\lambda$ the Balances, i.e. She bears the Seed of Life in the Holy Cup in balance. 48 is הָמוֹן Ham; see the sudden Revelation at the end of the Vision.

\textsuperscript{358} The Hebemone wears a Black Cross. See also 16th Aire, last paragraph.

\textsuperscript{359} The idea is that every idea, however apparently atomic, is to be analyzed.

\textsuperscript{360} Worship all things; for all things are alike necessary to the Being of the All. But keep separate the planes. Failure to do this is the most frequent Cause of error.
(This holy alphabet must be written by sinners, that is, by those who are impure.)361

"Impure" means those whose every thought is followed by another thought, or who confuse the higher with the lower, the substance with the shadow. Every Aethyr is truth, though it be but a shadow, for the shadow of a man is not the shadow of an ape.362

(Note—All this has come to me without voice, without vision, without thought.)

It is worth stating again, the experience of the Knowledge & Conversation does not come with voice, vision or thought...otherwise the A, A, A, would have to create doctrine from the dictates of the cacaphony of voices that now want to lay claim to its mystical heritage. And that would be one dysfunctional mess.

(The shew-stone is pressed upon my forehead and causes intense pain; as I go on from Aethyr to Aethyr, it seems more difficult to open the Aethyr.

The golden cross has become a little narrow door, and an old man like the Hermit363 of the Taro has opened it and come out. I ask him for admission: and he shakes his head kindly, and says: It is not given to flesh and blood to unveil the mysteries of the Aethyr, for therein are the chariots of fire364 and the tumult of the horsemen; whose entereth here may never look on life again with equal eyes. I insist.

The little gate is guarded by a great green dragon. And now the whole wall is suddenly fallen away; there is a blaze of the chariots and the horsemen; a furious battle is raging. One hears nothing but the clash of steel and the neighing of the chargers and the shrieks of the wounded. A thousand fall at every encounter and are trampled under foot. Yet the Aethyr is always full; there are infinite reserves.

No; that is all wrong, for this is not a battle between two forces, but a melee in which each warrior fights for himself against all the others. I cannot see one who has even one ally. And the least fortunate, who fall soonest, are those in the chariots. For as soon as they are engaged in fighting, their own charioteers stab them in the back.365

361 For purity means full simplification — and the keeping of each idea in its Own true perfection, separate from all others.
362 Worship each thing in itself for its own sake, not inventing ideas.
363 This is the Sphere of Kokab ( § ). Hence the Man of Atu IX.
364 The Chariot (Atu VII) of the Bearer of the Sangraal. It depends from Binah, the sphere of the Hegemone.
365 This seems to be a Vision of the Ideas which the Alphabet of Daggers is to analyze. The confusion suggests the influence of Choronzon. It is a warning of what the Aspirant must expect if he once lose his grip on Binah.
All the petty egos are fighting each other; but under the tree of Tiphareth are they yoked together; to act as one.

And in the midst of the battlefield there is a great tree, like a chinar-tree. Yet it bears fruits. And now all the warriors are dead, and they are the ripe fruits that are fallen -- the ground is covered with them.

The Death Atu leads to Tiphareth from Netzach (Venus; ruler of Libra).

There is a laugh in my right ear: "This is the tree of life."

And now there is a mighty god, Sebek, with the head of a crocodile. His head is gray, like river mud, and his jaws fill the whole Aire. And he crunches up the whole tree and the ground and everything.

Now then at last cometh forth the Angel of the Aethyr, who is like the Angel of the fourteenth key of Rota, with beautiful blue wings, blue robes, the sun in her girdle like a brooch, and the two crescents of the moon shapen into sandals for her feet. Her hair is of flowing gold, each sparkle as a star. In her hands are the torch of Penelope and the cup of Circe.

“Rota” is again the Wheel of the previous Aethyr and we can see here that this represents also the 4; ROTA suggesting a tetragrammaton of elements. The “fourteenth key” is the Art Atu; ruled by Sagittarius (that itself is ruled by Jupiter).

And so we have here, an expansion of meaning in the symbol, as it is occurring in these visions. But also, this key is of the Ruach; the path leading from Yesod to Tiphareth.

The woman here, seems an image of Isis, who assists in the Chemical Wedding; so that here, we get the idea of the Scarlet Woman who assists in Crowley’s initiation at Tiphareth.

She comes and kisses me on the mouth, and says: Blessed art thou who hast beheld Sebek my Lord in his glory. Many are the champions of life, but all are unhorsed by the lance of death. Many are the children of the light, but their eyes shall all be put out by the Mother Darkness. Many are the servants of love, but love (that is not quenched by aught but

And she says: Sweet are my kisses, O wayfarer that wanderest from star to star. Sweet are my kisses, O householder that weariest within four walls. Thou art pent within thy brain, and my shaft pierceth it, and thou art free. Thine imagination eateth up the universe as the dragon that eateth up the moon. And in my shaft is it concentrated and bound up. See how all around thee gather my warriors, strong knights in goodly armour ready for war. Look upon my crown; it is above the stars. Behold the glow and the blush thereof! Upon thy cheek is the breeze that stirs those plumes of truth. For though I am the Angel of the fourteenth key, I am also the Angel of the eighth key.\textsuperscript{374} And from the love of these two have I come, who am the warden of Pop and the servant of them that dwell therein. Though all crowns fall, mine shall not fall; for my plumes reach up unto the Knees of Him that sitteth upon the holy throne, and liveth and reigneth for ever and ever as the balance of righteousness and truth. I am the Angel of the moon. I am the veiled one that sitteth between the pillars veiled with a shining veil, and on my lap is the open Book of the mysteries of the ineffable light.\textsuperscript{375} I am the aspiration unto the higher; I am the love of the unknown. I am the blind ache within the heart of man. I am the minister of the sacrament of pain. I swing the censer of worship, and I sprinkle the waters of purification. I am the daughter of the house of the invisible. I am the Priestess of the Silver Star.\textsuperscript{376}

The angel of the Aethyr both claims to be the angel of the fourteenth key and the eighth key, as above, we noted the Death Atu connecting Venus (ruler of Libra) with Tiphereth. Also in the above, the angel claims to be the “Angel of the moon,” which is Yesod; connected via Sagittarius with Tiphereth. In the Moebius Ribbon, \textsuperscript{372} The Destruction of the Universe by the Devourer of all Things is the necessary beginning of the Initiation to the Grade of Magister Templi.

\textsuperscript{373} Man is the Candidate; he partakes of the Truth of all the Gods initiating.

\textsuperscript{374} See note 2, page 55.

\textsuperscript{375} See note 1, page 55. She is Isis-Urania, in Atu II. As Atu XIV she leads directly upwards to Tiphereth (γ), as Atu VII directly upwards to Binah (θ), and as Atu II, directly upwards to Kether (the top point of *).

\textsuperscript{376} The full title of Atu II. Note "Silver Star” as title of the Third Order. Hence she must appear as Hegemone to lead the Candidate to the first grade of that Order --- Magister Templi.
Libra trines Sagittarius. It is also the connecting path between Tiphareth and Geburah. Geburah then can be said to represent the more harsh or purifying aspects of Babalon (as “Priestess of the Silver Star”).

And she catches me up to her as a mother catches her babe, and holds me up in her left arm, and sets my lips to her breast. And upon her breast is written: Rosa Mundi est Lilium Coeli. And I look down upon the open Book of the mysteries, and it is open at the page on which is the Holy Table with the twelve squares in the midst. It radiates a blaze of light, too dazzling to make out the characters, and a voice says: Non haec piscis omnium.

Death $\text{Atu/IX} \times \text{Moon Atu/XX} = 31$

Nun/$50 + \text{Qoph}/200 = 250 \times 10$

(To interpret that, we must think of 'IXYOΣ, which does not conceal Iesous Christos Theon Uios Soter as traditionally asserted, but is a mystery of the letter Nun and the letter Qoph, as may be seen by adding it up.)

('IXYOΣ is only connected with Christianity because it was a hieroglyph of syphilis, which the Romans supposed to have been brought from Syria; and it seems to have been confounded with leprosy, which also they thought was caused by fish-eating.)

377 The Babe of the Abyss is taken to its Mother's breast. (There is a reference here to the technique of the grade.)

378 [Lat., “The Rose of the World is the Lily of Heaven.”] i.e., Malkut is Binah.

379 [Lat., “This [woman] is not the fish of all men.”] Pisces=fish. 2 means fish. P refers to the sign of Pisces. Ther versicle means: She is not attined by all men.

380 *IXYOΣ = 1219 = חור בראשה. The Former (rock-maker) of that which was in the Beginning. It refers to 2 and P: to 2 because the Fish is "Life in the Water", i.e. the Primal Water of Thales: to P because Atu XVIII shews that Life appearing in the Waters of Midnight, Kephra in the Pool of Great Dark Sea. This is the Glyph of Birth natural to Binah. There is presumably a further mystery --- numerical --- still not found.
(One important meaning of 'ΙΧΘΥΣ': it is formed of the initials of five Egyptian deities and also of five Greek deities: in both cases a magic formula of tremendous power is concealed.\textsuperscript{381}

As to the Holy Table itself, I cannot see it for the blaze of light; but I am given to understand that it appears in another Aethyr, of which it forms practically the whole content. And I am bidden to study the Holy Table very intently so as to be able to concentrate on it when it appears.

I have grown greater, so that I am as great as the Angel. And we are standing, as if crucified, face to face, our hands and lips and breasts and knees and feet together, and her eyes pierce into my eyes like whirling shafts of steel, so that I fall backwards headlong through the Aethyr\textsuperscript{382}---and there is a sudden and tremendous shout, absolutely stunning, cold and brutal: Osiris was a black god!\textsuperscript{383} And the Aethyr claps its hands, greater than the peal of a thousand mighty thunders.

To be “standing as crucified” is a symbol of the initiation at Tiphareth, which seems to be the principal subject of the entire vision of this Aethyr.

I am back.

\textsuperscript{381} The Seer cannot make Union with his Guide. She is the feminine form of his Holy Guardian Angel; but the impulse to unite is only valid when it comes from above. In the 20th Aire this was the case; and so the Marriage was accomplished.

\textsuperscript{383} This, to the Seer at that time, was a Revelation of the most appalling terror. The doctrine of the Third Order had not been promulgated. He expected to unite with the Great Mother in a Mode similar to that experienced in attaining to the Knowledge and Conversation of the Holy Guardian Angel. But the attainment of the Grade of Magister Templi involves the Annihilation of the aspirant. "Osiris was a black god"; i.e. of the nature of Binah---BLACK. The love of Binah is that of the Queen Scorpion, who devours her mate. This revelation therefore, was much as if a romantic lover of the Richard Feveral type, were suddenly made fully aware that the Maiden of his Dreams intended to conclude their First Night of Love by a Breakfast, of which he was to form the staple dish! The Doctrine implied is that one must not be the child, but the Mother.
The Cry of the 18th Aethyr, Which is Called ZEN

Initiation at Tiphareth

A Voice comes before any vision: Accursed are they who enter herein if they have nails, for they shall be pierced therewith; or if they have thorns, for they shall be crowned withal; or if they have whips, for with whips they shall be scourged: or if they bear wine, for their wine shall be turned to bitterness; or if they have a spear, for with a spear shall they be pierced unto the heart. And the nails are desires, of which there are three; the desire of light, the desire of life, the desire of love.

(And the thorns are thoughts, and the whips are regrets, and the wine is ease, or perhaps unsteadiness, especially in ecstasy, and the spear is attachment.)

And now there dawns the scene of the Crucifixion; but the Crucified One is an enormous bat, and for the two thieves are two little children. It is night, and the night is full of hideous things and howlings.

The above reads like an initiation in Tiphareth. This virtually echoes Crowley’s description of Tiphareth in the Wake World.

And an angel cometh forth, and saith: Be wary, for if thou change so much as the style of a letter, the holy word is blasphemed. But enter into the mountain of the Caverns, for that this (how much more then that Calvary which mocks it, as his ape mocks Thoth?) is but the empty shell of the mystery of ZEN. Verily, I say unto thee, many are the adepts that have looked upon the back parts of my father, and cried, "our eyes fail before the glory of thy countenance."

And with that he gives the sign of the rending of the veil, and tears down the vision. And behold! whirling columns of fiery light, seventy-384 ZEN = כח = כח = 69. 69 = כח = כח, a manger, stable, enclosure. This Aethyr describes the Place of the Preliminary Ceremony of the Initiation of the Master of the Temple. The Candidate is fortified for the Ordeal of Intimate Communion with his Holy Guardian Angel, who comes upon him unaware, and prepares him interiorly below any normal sphere of consciousness.

385 The Exempt Adept must be freed from all attachment.

386 The aspirant is reminded by this vision of the horror which is always ready to take the place of a True Magical Operation. Coruptio optimi pessima.

387 This warning is given directly.

388 It is repeated in detail.
two. Upon them is supported a mountain of pure crystal. The mountain is a cone, the angle of the apex being sixty degrees. And within the crystal is a pyramid of ruby, like unto the Great Pyramid of Gizeh.

The pyramid as the entrance to the Tuat; the crystal mountain, a Rosicrucian symbol of Tiphareth and the veil that is rent is Paroketh.

I am entered in by the little door thereof, and I am come into the chamber of the king, which is fashioned like unto the vault of the adepts, or rather it is fitting to say that the vault of the adepts is a vile imitation of it. For there are four sides to the chamber, which with the roof and the floor and the chamber itself makes seven. So also is the pastos seven, for that which is within is like unto that which is without. And there is no furniture, and there are no symbols.

The “seven” that is the number set for the “vault of the adepts” indicates the heart of the Ruach (pun intended).

Light streams from every side upon the pastos. This light is that blue of Horus which we know, but being refined it is brilliance. For the light of Horus only appears blue because of the imperfection of our eyes. But though the light pours from the pastos, yet the pastos remains perfectly dark, so that it is invisible. It hath no form: only, at a certain point in the chamber, the light is beaten back.

The candidate in the initiation is hoodwinked by darkness.

I lie prostate upon the ground before this mystery. Its splendour is impossible to describe. I can only say that its splendour is so great that my heart stops with the terror and the wonder and the rapture of it.

389 The number of the letters of Shemhamphorash, the "Divided Name", i.e., Tetragrammaton in detail. Also, 72 = 36, the "Secret Nature" of Atziluth, the Archetypal World of Pure Reality.

390 The cone is a figure of Iacchus, Lord of the Highest Ecstasy. It is the Phallus. Its mathematical implications are many and important. In particular, its relations with the Great Pyramid of Cheops yield remarkable correspondences.

392 Similarly, the Hexagram is attributed to the Seven Planets; for the Centre contains {Sun}.

393 Compare this whole geometrical symbolism with that given in the Ritual of Adeptus Minor.

394 Compare, in external nature, the appearance of the blue sky.

395 This very strange phenomenon is perhaps quite inadequately described. It is a general condition of most Spiritual Experience that the familiar laws of Nature do not obtain in their accustomed forms. It is only when Experience enables one to observe them with detachment that they are seen to be as uniform, simple and exact as those of normal physics.

396 Compare with this unlighted, light-radiating Pastos, the Boundless Cube in the Vision of Pure Love:

"In the morning I woke early, before 7, in an absolutely renewed physical condition. I had the clean fresh feeling of a healthy boyhood, and was alert and active as a kitten---post talem mortem! [Lat., “after such a death.”] Mentally, I woke into Pure Love. This was symbolized as a cube of blue-white light like a diamond of the best quality. It was lucid, translucent, self-luminous, and yet not radiating forth. I suppose because there was nothing else in the Cosmos.

This withdrawal from sense of the Pastos, which is the Inmost and most sacred Self of the Aspirant, is his surrender of “all that he has and all that he is” on entering the Abyss.

* [Note] I say "a cube", yet its most salient property was that it was without boundaries. Experience of similar trances is necessary for the understanding of this statement, which is a perfectly proper expression of a a perfectly observed fact, despite its intellectual self-contradiction.
I am almost mad. A million insane images chase each other through my brain... A voice comes: (it is my own voice -- I did not know it). "When thou shalt know me, O thou empty God, my little flame shall utterly expire in thy great N.O.X." There is no answer... (20 minutes. O.V.)...

The N.O.X. here is the surrender of the Soul to the unknown; it is an abysmal leap, but this description can be used for both initiations.

And now, after so long a while, the Angel lifts me and takes me from the room, and sets me in a little chamber where is another Angel like a fair youth in shining garments, who makes me partake of the sacraments; bread, that is labour; and fire, that is wit; and a rose, that is sin; and wine, that is death. And all about us is a great company of angels in many-coloured robes, rose and spring-green, and sky-blue, and pale gold, and silver, and lilac, solemnly chanting without words. It is music wonderful beyond all that can be thought.

Eucharist of the 5 elements; the body congealed with spirit.

397 There is a fleeting Image of the Horror of the Abyss, as a mountaineer, leaping a Bergschund, obtains a momentary glimpse of the Terrors beneath his airy Path. Cf. 10th Aire for these images of madness.

398 This quotation is from VII.1.40. (This Book describes in detail the whole Attainment of the Grade of Magister Templi. It had been given to the Seer, years previously; but he had not understood it, even with his Neschamah, as a coherent entity. Nor does he even yet (An XXI, in $\mathfrak{S}$) understand it with his Rauch. Incidentally the full meaning of this Book 418, as a connected account of his Initiation, is only now becoming clear to him in the process of writing this Commentary upon it. For N.O.X., see Note above, 20th Aire. Observe that although the Exemp Adept, or the Babe of the Abyss, is completely baffled by the circumstances, and in no wise understands the situation, his Chiah, the Magician in him, acts with sublime confidence and correctness.

399 The quotation, accepting annihilation, instantly destroys the myriad of insane images which hastened to occupy the vacuum created by the leap of the Exempt Adept into the Abyss. Had he faltered, he would have become --- against his will --- a "Black Brother". But this being involuntary, he would not have attempted to maintain his coherence, as the Black Brothers do. He would therefore, have been destroyed at once; that is, to outward appearance he would have become a demented babbler. Spiritists present this phenomenon, on a much lower plane, and in a diluted form; though, with them as with the average Theosophist, there is usually a certain degree of obsession by pet phantoms --- a "Chinese Guide," or "Koot Hoomi," or what not --- to lend a species of semi-organized structure to the legions of disconnected ideas that throng their disintegrated gray matter.

400 (No Angel has been mentioned. The Seer was lost to being.) In this preliminary --- and so to say, symbolic --- crossing of the Abyss, His Holy Guardian Angel comes to the rescue of the Aspirant.

Contrast the unspeakable Terror of the actual Crossing, when that Angel Himself abandons the Seer (see 5th Aire, the last paragraph.) Exactly how the Angel dealt with the Seer in this 20 minutes of earthly time is impossible to say; for he has no memory soever --- nor had he even at the time --- of what took place. We may, however, deduce from the fact that the Communion took place in a sphere beyond even Neschamah. It may well have been a Quintessence of Union sufficiently intimate to have identified the Seer with his Angel so perfectly as to have given him the right to make the passage fully, in every sense; and to have ensured his safety on the way. For the Angel cometh forth from above the Abyss, and dwelleth of right in the Bosom of the Great Mother. But the Angel deals not with the little pile of dust in the City of the Pyramids, (see 14th Aethyr) but with the Star that is cast forth to give light to the Earth.

401 This pyramid, where is the Pastos, is the Chamber of Annihilation. The Pastos contains the Essence of the Aspirant, and is in a Chamber containing the Essence of the Universe. This is all ready to be burnt up in the Energy of Aspiration to the Creative Annihilation, the Ruby Pyramid of Phallus. Finally, this Pyramid is within a Cone, a figure combining the straight line and the circle (Rose and Cross in their purest form) representing the new Universe into which the Old is to be transmuted. It is established, like all types of Universe, upon the Four Elements (divided into 72) which are the conditions of manifested Existence. (The elements are not only "material"; they include categories like "Time", "Space" and "Causality.")

402 This is the Birth-Chamber, where the Magister Templi awakes from the Oblivion of the Abyss.

403 These sacraments furnish him with the material of his new Life. Bread (olare) is labour, the nourishment of his being. Fire is the perception of clear understanding (Neschamah). The Rose (-rise) is Sin, the restriction which prevents him from being dissolved in pure light (Kether) for his Oath as a Master of the Temple is to deny himself the enjoyment of that privilege, for the sake of the Love that he bears to Mankind; wherefore is that Sin fragrant with the sent of love. Finally, Wine ( is Death, the Ecstasy of transmuting all things into Joy by the Sacrament of Creative Love.
And now we go out of the chamber; on the right is a pylon, and the right figure is Isis, and the left figure Nephthys, and they are folding their wings over, and supporting Ra.

Ra is the Sun; solar initiation...but Isis and Nephthys are paired in the funary nature of this pyramidal rite and its passing through the Tuat.

I wanted to go back to the King's Chamber. The Angel pushed me away, saying: "Thou shalt see these visions from afar off, but thou shalt not partake of them save in the manner prescribed. For if thou change so much as the style of a letter, the holy word is blasphemed."

And this is the manner prescribed:

Let there be a room furnished as for the ritual of passing through Tuat. And let the aspirant be clad in the robes of, and let him bear the insignia of his grade. And at the least he shall be a neophyte.

The Tuat initiation is actually that of the Zelator; seated in Yesod. The Neophyte in Malkuth receives the Pyramid Initiation.

Three days and three nights shall he have been in the tomb, vigilant and fasting, for he shall sleep no longer than three hours at any one time, and he shall drink pure water, and eat little sweet cakes consecrated unto the moon, and fruits, and the eggs of the duck, or of the goose, or of the plover. And he shall be shut in, so that no man may break in upon his meditation. But in the last twelve hours he shall neither eat nor sleep.

404 Isis, Nature, and Nephthys, Perfection, preside over the Arising of the New Star. The Magister Templi is a little pyramid of dust in the City of the Pyramids (see 14th Aire) awaiting the Fire that shall burn him up to a white Ash (see 6th Aire). But the original combination of Sankharas (tendencies --- the elements of the Character of the Man) is void of the Ego. Ahamkara (the ego-making faculty) has been assimilated. The Sankharas are, however, still linked by the Karma of the Adept; for they had to be most strongly knit by him that he might be able to concentrate their whole Energies upon the Great Work of abandoning in a single gesture "all that he has and all that he is". They accordingly hold together: His Will has been accomplished, and he is free from them; but they depend upon the Elements which compose that true Will, which, since he has succeeded, can only be that Sublime Passion for Mankind, to help it to "Conquer Space, and lastly climb the walls of Time, and by the Golden Path the great have trod, Reach up to God." A phenomenon of this nature thus appears "as a morning star, or as an evening star, to give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death". This is then the man himself, save that his separate individuality is no longer present; it is replaced by this single passion to rescue mankind.

405 The Seer's first impulse was to proceed with the Work on which he had been engaged when the Dissolution of his Being took place.

406 As stated in a previous Aire, these higher visions are not to be obtained by the methods applicable to less exalted spheres.

407 See the Book of the Dead, as adopted for modern use by the Authorities of the G.:D.:

408 He must be a neophyte to have access to the Ritual of Passing through the Tuat.
Then shall he break his fast, eating rich food, and drinking sweet wines, and wines that foam; and he shall banish the elements and the planets and the signs and the sephiroth; and then shall he take the holy table that he hath made for his altar; and he shall take the call of the Aethyr of which he will partake, which he hath written in the angelic character, or in the character of the holy alphabet that is revealed in Pop, upon a fair sheet of virgin vellum; and therewith shall he conjure the Aethyr, chanting the call. And in the lamp that is hung above the altar shall he burn the call that he hath written.

Then shall he kneel before the holy table, and it shall be given him to partake of the mystery of the Aethyr.

And concerning the ink with which he shall write; for the first Aethyr let it be gold, for the second scarlet, for the third violet, for the fourth emerald, for the fifth silver, for the sixth sapphire, for the seventh orange, for the eighth indigo, for the ninth gray, for the tenth black, for the eleventh maroon, for the twelfth russet, for the thirteenth green-gray, for the fourteenth amber, for the fifteenth olive, for the sixteenth pale blue, for the seventeenth crimson, for the eighteenth bright yellow, for the nineteenth crimson adorned with silver, for the twentieth mauve, for the twenty-first pale green, for the twenty-second rose-madder, for the twenty-third violet cobalt, for the twenty-fourth beetle-brown, blue-brown colour, for the twenty-fifth a cold dark gray, for the twenty-sixth white flecked with red, blue, and yellow; the edges of the letters shall be green, for the twenty-seventh angry clouds of ruddy brown, for the twenty-eighth indigo, for the twenty-ninth bluish-green, for the thirtieth mixed colours.

409 See AL:151. The general idea is to create true appetite in a body purified by fasting and a mind clarified by meditation, so as to make certain of being perfectly intoxicated. It should be needless to say that this state of mind, like all others, should be absolutely willed, criticized and controlled.

410 The Aethyrs pertain to an order of nature, _sui generis_. Though they possess many correspondences with the 32 Paths of Wisdom, all of these must be impartially banished; otherwise the Vacuum would be disturbed by an unequilibrated symbol sympathetic with the Aire to be invoked, which would flood the circle, and prevent the Aethyr arising in its perfect plenitude.

411 This injunction has several obvious Magical advantages. The symbolic gesture is to consume the matter of the Operation in the Spirit thereof.

412 This is by no means a gesture of supplication, the vile attitude of the unmanly devotee of the Slave-Gods. It has as specific and positive practical purpose, which should be easy for the Neophyte to divine if his Zelator have well and wisely so instructed him.

This shall be the form to be used by him who would partake of the mystery of any Aethyr. And let him not change so much as the style of a letter, lest the holy word be blasphemed.

And let him beware, after he hath been permitted to partake of this mystery, that he await the completion of the 91st hour of his retirement, before he open the door of the place of his retirement; lest he contaminate his glory with uncleanness, and lest they that behold him be smitten by his glory unto death.\footnote{This injunction is to be taken very seriously. I have known uninitiates made ill by the shock of seeing Adept\s too high "residual charge"; worse, thrown off their moral balance.}

For this is a holy mystery, and he that did first attain to reveal the alphabet thereof,\footnote{Presumably Sir Edward Kelly. There is certainly no hint of the sublimity and profundity of such visions as the present series in the working of that adept.} perceived not one ten-thousandth part of the fringe that is upon its vesture.

Come away! for the clouds are gathered together, and the Aire heaveth like the womb of a woman in travail. Come away! lest he loose the lightnings from his hand, and unleash his hounds of thunder. Come away! For the voice of the Aethyr is accomplished. Come away! For the seal of His loving-kindness is made sure. And let there be praise and blessing unspeakable unto him that sitteth upon the Holy Throne, for he casteth down mercies as a spendthrift that scattereth gold. And he hath shut up judgment and hidden it away as a miser that hoardeth coins of little worth.\footnote{This peroration suggests that early working by its style. It has little definite thought contained in it; the sublimity of the language ill conceals its vagueness. Nevertheless, it is a fitting conclusion to the mystery of this Aire. The ritual, and its lyrical outburst, were doubtless necessary to let the seer down gently from the colossal exaltation of the central event of the Aethyr.}

All this while the Angel hath been pushing me backwards, and now he is turned into a \textit{golden cross with a rose at its heart}, and that is the red cross wherein is set the golden shewstone.

The Cry of the 17th Aethyr, Which is Called 𐤇𐤆𐤄 𐤃 𐤊 𐤉 𐤁 𐤇 𐤂

17. "The Path of Lamed. (The combination Gimel, Lamed, Samech. The Vision of the Justice or Balance of the Universe."

Fulfillment of initiation at Tiphareth; completion of three-fold initiation with Aethyr 19 presenting Gimel (ג), Aethyr 18 being Tiphareth (ㅌ) itself and the present Aethyr begin the vision of Babalon and the Beast conjoined, as the method of Tiphareth in the new Aeon.

Into the stone there first cometh the head of a dragon, and then the Angel Madimi.418 She is not the mere elemental that one would suppose from the account of Casaubon. I enquire why her form is different.

She says: Since all things are God, in all things thou seest just so much of God as thy capacity affordeth thee.419 But behold! Thou must pierce deeply into this Aethyr before true images appear.420 For TAN is that which transformeth judgment into justice.421 BAL is the sword, and TAN the balances.

A pair of balances appears in the stone, and on the bar of the balance is written: Motion about a point is iniquity.423

And behind the balances is a plume, luminous, azure.424 And somehow connected with the plume, but I cannot divine how, are these words: Breath is iniquity.425 (That is, any wind must stir the feather of truth.)

And behind the plume is a shining filament of quartz, suspended vertically from the abyss to the abyss.426 And in the midst is a winged disk of some extremely delicate, translucent substance, on 417 TAN = סח = סח = 59. This number is a prime, representing the Yoni demanding "justice". This Aethyr instructs the candidate in the formula of justice, of Equilibrium.

418 See Casaubon's edition of the Sixth book of Dr. Dee's "Conversations with some Spirits."

419 A profound truth of universal application. The master-key to any man's character is his appreciation of the universe. To one, Pan means terror and madness, to another, the All-God.

420 This is more and more the case as we progress.

421 Judgment --- the unmitigated feminine, the severity of sterility. Justice --- she is satisfied by the sword (phallus) and balances (testes) as shown in Atu XIII. The symbolism of the letter Lamed must be very thoroughly studied. It represents the flux of the universe in extension. Contrast this positive equilibrium with the negative, Aleph. The two together form AL (the title of The Book of the Law ) which expresses the universe in its phases, 0 and 2.

422 The Enochian word for Justice used at the end of the Call of the 30 Aethyrs is BALATANU, (the 2nd A and the U merely support their constants L and N). Bal is Hebrew for Lord, i.e. the phallus. See previous note.

423 It disturbs the simplicity, introducing a new dimension.

424 The blue feather is Maat, the Goddess of Truth.

425 Breath implies duality, vibration. It thus disturbs peace and silence.

426 The middle pillar of the Tree of Life. Quartz, perhaps as auriferous.

427 The winged disk = Hadit, i.e. any point which one chooses to consider as being the centre from which to contemplate the universe.
which is written in the "dagger" alphabet: Torsion is iniquity. \(^{428}\)
(This means, that the Rashith Ha-Gilgalim is the first appearance of evil. \(^{429}\))

And now an Angel appears, like as he were carven in black diamonds. And he cries: Woe unto the Second, whom all nations of men call the First. \(^{430}\)

Tiphareth or Adonai as God; Kether being the true first, but beyond the pale of men.

Woe unto the First, whom all grades of Adepts call the First. \(^{431}\)

Tiphareth is the central position from which the Adepts stand and from there, Kether comes into view; beyond the veil of the Abyss.

Woe unto me, for I, even as they, have worshipped him. But she is whose paps are the galaxies, \(^{432}\) and he that never shall be known, \(^{433}\) in them is no motion. For the infinite Without filleth all and moveth not, \(^{434}\) and the infinite Within goeth indeed; \(^{435}\) but it is no odds, else were the space-marks confounded. \(^{436}\)

The confusion of men; the Black Brothers confound the space-marks as noted in Trigrammaton. But the reference here is a clarification of the prophecy in AL:I.52—

If this be not aright; if ye confound the space-marks, saying: They are one; or saying, They are many; if the ritual be not ever unto me: then expect the direful judgments of Ra Hoor Khuit!

And now the Angel is but a shining speck of blackness in the midst of a tremendous sphere of liquid and vibrating light, at first gold, then becoming green, and lastly pure blue. \(^{437}\) [Jupiter] And I see that the green of Libra is made up of the yellow of air and the blue of water, swords and \(^{429}\) The "Beginning of Whirling Motions" introduces duality.

\(^{430}\) The Demiurgos, Microprosopus, the Black Reflected Countenance, the Creator. He must be distinguished from the Logos. The difference is that the Demiurge creates on his own account; he is not like the Logos, the transmitter of Energy of Kether, and its formulation in a Word.
\(^{431}\) Macroposopus himself. For in the ontology of the New Aeon, he is no longer the unique and supreme Point-of-View, to which every ego is subsidiary and must conform.

cups, judgment and mercy. \(^{438}\) And this word TAN meaneth mercy. \(^{439}\) And the feather of Maat is blue because the truth of justice is mercy. \(^{440}\)

Truth and Justice are equilibrated on the Tree-of-Life.

And a voice cometh, as it were the music of the ripples of the surface of the sphere: Truth is delight. \(^{441}\) (This means that the Truth of the universe is delight. [Lola in the Wake World])

Another voice cometh; it is the voice of a mighty Angel, all in silver; the scales of his armour and the plumes of his wings are like mother-of-pearl in a framework of silver. \(^{442}\) And he sayeth: Justice is the equity that ye have made for yourselves between truth and falsehood. But in Truth there is nothing of this, for there is only Truth. Your falsehood is but a little falser than your truth. \(^{443}\) Yet by your truth shall ye come to Truth. Your truth is your troth with Adonai the Beloved one. \(^{444}\)

Your ‘relation’ with your Holy Guardian Angel is your Dharma; that which is called ‘true will.’ This is not something that gets expressed in words, but is couched in a much greater spiritual subtlety.

And the Chymical Marriage of the Alchemists beginneth with a Weighing, and he that is not found wanting hath within him one spark of fire, so dense and so intense that it cannot be moved, through all the winds of heaven should clamour against it, and all the waters of the abyss surge against it, and all the multitude of the earths heap themselves upon it to smother it. Nay, it shall not be moved. \(^{445}\)

And this is the fire of which it is written: "Hear thou the voice of fire!" And the voice of fire is in the second chapter of The Book of the \(^{438}\) Severity and Mercy (Geburah and Chesed) are joined by the reciprocating path of Leo. This is Atu XI countercharged with Atu VIII (Libra). Thus Leo, the strength of the Sun, life itself, is one with Libra, justice; for the letter Lamed signifies the Universe in extension.

\(^{439}\) TAN is given in above as meaning the Balances. Thus, as shown in the previous note, the truth of Justice is Mercy. Hence, to aim at Mercy, which is an idea without measure, and therefore incommensurable with Truth, is to invoke Justice. The injunction is: Be strictly just, and you will find that you have accomplished the true Work of Love.

\(^{440}\) See previous note. The blue is again that of Nuit. Justice is only complete when the disturbance of positive existence is annulled by absorption into the Body of Our Lady of the Stars.

\(^{441}\) See AL:II.9 "Remember all ye that existence is pure joy!" et al.

\(^{442}\) This silver is the queen scale of Luna, the reflection in positive material nature of the personified idea of Nuit. The angel appears in the path of Gimel uniting Tiphereth with Kether, He is Atu II. See infra.

\(^{443}\) Human justice is a compromise intended to meet an admittedly false situation. Cf. Lao-tse: Benevolence and righteousness only appear when all naturalness is gone.

\(^{444}\) Hence the justice of making the Attainment of the Knowledge and Conversation of the Holy Guardian Angel is the next step. The original evil is the separation from Him; so the only approximation to truth is one’s oath to Him.

\(^{445}\) This spark is Hadit; (hence the reference to AL:II) he cannot be moved because he is already in motion at the limit of velocity.
Law, that is revealed unto him that is a score and half a score and three that are scores, and six, by Aiwass, that is his guardian, the mighty Angel that extendeth from the first unto the last, and maketh known the mysteries that are beyond. And the method and the form of invocation whereby a man shall attain to the knowledge and conversation of his Holy Guardian Angel shall be given unto thee in the proper place, and seeing that the word is deadlier than lightning, do thou meditate straitly thereupon, solitary, in a place where is no living thing visible, but only the light of the sun. And thy head shall be bare. Thus mayest thou become fitted to receive this, the holiest of the Mysteries. And it is the holiest of the Mysteries because it is the Next Step.

In other words, right here, the angel of the Aethyr is telling Crowley in no uncertain terms that his Tiphareth initiation is the next step for him. And as shown just below, the next step will then be the crossing of the Abyss.

And those Mysteries which lie beyond, though they be holier, are not holy unto thee, but only remote. (The sense of this passage seems to be, that the holiness of a thing implies its personal relation with one, just as one cannot blaspheme an unknown god, because one does not know what to say to annoy him. And this explains the perfect inefficiency of those who try to insult the saints; the most violent attacks are very often merely clumsy compliments.)

Now the Angel is spread completely over the globe, a dewy film of silver upon that luminous blue.

And a great voice cries: Behold the Queen of Heaven, how she hath woven her robes from the loom of justice. For as that straight path of the Arrow cleaving the Rainbow became righteousness in her that sitteth in the hall of double truth, so at last is she exalted unto the throne of the High Priestess, the Priestess of the Silver Star [Babalon], wherein also is thine Angel made manifest. And this is the mystery of the camel that is ten days in the desert, and is not athirst, because 446 The Oracle of Zoroaster says: "And when, after all the phantoms are vanished shall appear that holy and formless fire, that fire which darts and flashes throughout the depths of the universe --- hear thou the voice of the fire!" And this is the utterance of Hadit, the deepest expression of one's inmost point of view.

449 Isis; she who invites Christian Rosencreutz to the Chemical Wedding.

450 This blue and silver of Luna, the "queen of heaven" (in King and Queen scales) are said to be derived from the justice in her true nature. This justice refers to her point on the Tree; the truth with Adonai.

453 Here we are asked to note a certain correspondence of ascending vibration, ɔ = s, ɔ = θ, θ = 1 = Ʌ. ATlg are the consonants of Logos. We shall see later an important doctrine drawn from this special association of these three letters. The Holy Guardian Angel appears as Ʌ because of its position on the Tree.

The equation 78 = Aiwass; at this time, the Seer thought that Aiwass was spelled \textsuperscript{כַּמוֹשִׁי} = 78, Whereas, as he found later, \textsuperscript{זֶבַע} = 93 and \textsuperscript{אָיָוָא} = 418. But 78 is actually the number of Aiwass in another way.] for that the ineffable wisdom, that also is of the sphere of the stars, informeth me.

And even as the shew-stone burneth thy forehead with its intolerable flame, so he who hath known me, though but from afar, is marked out and chosen among men, and he shall never turn back or turn aside, for he hath made the link that is not to be broken, nay, not by the malice of the Four Great Princes of evil of the world, nor by Chorozon, that mighty Devil, nor by the wrath of God, nor by the affliction and feebleness of the soul.

Yet with this assurance be not thou content; for though thou hast the wings of the Eagle, they are vain, except they be joined to the shoulders of the Bull.

The image with “the wings of the Eagle” and “the shoulders of the Bull” is a re-appearance of the eagle-angel, which is what Crowley is to transform himself in his adeptship; that he become the Beast.

Now, therefore, I send forth a shaft of my light, even as a ladder let down from the heaven upon the earth, and by this black cross of Themis that I hold before thine eyes, do I swear unto thee that the path shall be open henceforth for evermore.

There is a clash of a myriad silver cymbals, and silence. And then three times a note is struck upon a bell, which sounds like my holy Tibetan bell, that is made of electrum magicum.\footnote{\textsuperscript{459} Electrum magicum is an alloy of the seven sacred metals, each being added at a moment chosen for its astrological advantages.}
The metal is a reference to the Table of 49; thus the 7 that is to be united with the 4 (TARO; above). When these two are fulfilled, a greater wholism (asar un nefer) is attained by the individual.

I am happily returned unto the earth.

The Cry of the 16th Aethyr, Which is Called 460

16. "Keter. (Path of Pe.) The Overthrow of the Slave-Gods by The Beast 666."

The Great Work; re-establishment of the Goddess religion...the Major Adept crowned as prophet and herald.

There are faint and flickering images in a misty landscape, all very transient. But the general impression is of moonrise at midnight, and a crowned virgin riding upon a bull.461

And they come up into the surface of the stone. And she is singing a chant of praise: Glory unto him that hath taken upon himself the image of toil. For by his labour is my labour accomplished.

For I, being a woman, lust ever to mate myself with some beast. And this is the salvation of the world, that always I am deceived by some god, and that my child is the guardian of the labyrinth that hath two-and-seventy paths.462

72 represents the Shemhamphoresh; the One God (Adonai) that is the Magickal Childe and product of fornication by “some [beast]” with the Scarlet Woman.

Now she is gone.

And now there are Angels, walking up and down in the stone. They are the Angels of the Holy Sevenfold Table. It seems that they are waiting for the Angel of the Aethyr to come forth.

Now at last he appears in the gloom. He is a mighty King,463 with crown and orb and sceptre, and his robes are of purple and gold. And he casts down the orb and sceptre to the earth, and he tears off his crown, and throws it on the ground, and tramples it. And he tears out his hair, that is of ruddy gold tinged with silver, and he plucks at his beard, and cries with as terrible voice: Woe unto me that am cast down from my place by the might of the new Aeon. For the ten palaces are broken, and the ten kings are carried away into bondage, and they are set 461 See previous note.

462 This reference is to Pasiphae and the Minotaur. All mythologies contain this mystery of the woman and the beast as the heart of the cult. Notably certain tribes on the Terai at this day send their women annually into the jungle and any half-monkeys that result are worshipped in their temples. Atu XI exhibits this mystery, and it is the subject of constant reference in the higher Aires.

463 This is the Jehovah-god of the Aeon of Osiris, on whose existence (as an offended and vengeful deity) the whole theory of Atonement depends.
to fight as the gladiators in the circus of him that hath laid his hand upon eleven.\footnote{464} For the ancient tower is shattered by the Lord of the Flame and the Lightning. And they that walk upon their hands shall build the holy place.\footnote{465} Blessed are they who have turned the Eye of Hoor unto the zenith, for they shall be filled with the vigour of the goat.\footnote{466}

That the angels hair is both gold and silver shows the Sun and the Moon conjoined and the image is also the Sun atop Qesheth (the rainbow).

All that was ordered and stable is shaken. The Aeon of Wonders is come. Like locusts shall they gather themselves together, the servants of the Star and of the Snake,\footnote{467} and they shall eat up everything that is upon the earth. For why? Because the Lord of Righteousness delighteth in them.

It is declared that the Aeon of Horus is inaugurated.

The prophets shall prophesy monstrous things, and the wizards shall perform monstrous things. The sorceress shall be desired of all men, and the enchanter shall rule the earth.

The return of the Goddess is heralded.

Blessing unto the name of the Beast, for he hath let loose a mighty flood of fire from his manhood, and from his womanhood hath he let loose a mighty flood of water. Every thought of his mind is as a tempest that uprooteth the great trees of the earth, and shaketh the mountains thereof.

And the throne of his spirit is a mighty throne of madness and desolation,\footnote{468} so that they that look upon it shall cry: Behold the abomination!\footnote{469}

Through the hermaphroditic symbol; that he has both, a manhood and a womanhood within himself, we find a description of the nature of the integral Aeon. But as seen next, the “tempest” of “his mind” tells us we’re still in the Ruach. Tiphareth is the temple (of the self) that Adonai indwells and its ‘desolation’ leaves room for the specific Augoeides of the individual. The ‘abomination’ again, is the Augoeides itself that is now installed in the temple.

\footnote{464}{For 10 is the stable number of the established system, which regards 11 the number of Magick (by the equation $0 = 2 = 11$, 11 being the active form of 2) as “Evil”. Hence the Beast took 11 as his formula and thereby destroyed the 10.} \footnote{465}{See Atu XVI. The figures cast out of the Tower are in the form of the letter $\gamma$; they “walk upon their hands”. They pertain to $\gamma$: --- Set or Had, i.e. the Holy Place is to be built from within, from the “core of every star”, not from above, as in the shattered tower of Theism.} \footnote{466}{\{Capricorn\} is the goat. The eye of Hoor turned to the zenith refers to a mystery of magick, practical and puissant, which the student must be left to solve for himself.} \footnote{467}{See VII:II.21.} \footnote{468}{See VII:III.21. He has manifested the insanity of the Ruach; that is his “throne”; i.e. the basis of his philosophical position.} \footnote{469}{See VII:III.21.}
Of a single ruby shall that throne be built, and it shall be set upon a high mountain, \(^{470}\) and men shall see it afar off. Then will I gather together my chariots and my horsemen and my ships of war. By sea and land shall my armies and my navies encompass it, and I will encamp round about it, and besiege it, and by the flame thereof shall I be utterly devoured. Many lying spirits have I sent into the world that my Aeon might be established, and they shall be all overthrown.

Great is the Beast that cometh forth like a lion, the servant of the Star and of the Snake. He is the Eternal one; He is the Almighty one. Blessed are they upon whom he shall look with favour, for nothing shall stand before his face. \(^{471}\) Accursed are they upon whom he shall look with derision, for nothing shall stand before his face.

And every mystery that hath not been revealed from the foundation of the world he shall reveal unto his chosen.

The above is fulfilled in the communication of Liber Loagaeth unto Dee & Kelly. However, only now is any attempt being made to translate this document. What follows next is a repeating of the ancient Greek fragment that was incorportated into Liber Samekh; a ritual to invoke the Augoeides or Holy Guardian Angel.

And they shall have power over every spirit of the Ether; and of the earth and under the earth; on dry land and in the water; of whirling air and of rushing fire. And they shall have power over all the inhabitants of the earth, and every scourge of God shall be subdued beneath their feet. The angels shall come unto them and walk with them, and the great gods of heaven shall be their guests.

But I must sit apart, with dust upon my head, discrowned and desolate. I must lurk in forbidden corners of the earth. I must plot secretly in the by-ways of great cities, in the fog, and in marshes of the rivers of pestilence. And all my cunning shall not serve me. And all my undertakings shall be brought to naught. And all the ministers of the Beast shall catch me and tear out my tongue with pincers of red-hot iron, and they shall brand my forehead with the word of derision, and they shall shave my head, and pluck out my beard, and make a show of me.

And the spirit of prophecy shall come upon me despite me ever and anon, as even now upon my heart and upon my throat; and upon my tongue seared with strong acid are the words: \textit{Vim patior}.\(^{472}\)
The theme of prophecy is introduced and is one of the themes of the Aethyr.

For so must I give glory to him that hath supplanted me, that hath cast me down into the dust. I have hated him, and with hate my bones are rotten. I would have spat upon him, and my spittle hath befouled my beard. I have taken up the sword against him, and I am fallen upon it, and mine entrails are about my feet.

Who shall strive with his might? Hath he not the sword and the spear of the Warrior Lord of the Sun? Who shall contend with him? Who shall lift himself up against him? For the latchet of his sandal is more than the helmet of the Most High. Who shall reach up to him in supplication, save those that he shall set upon his shoulders? Would God that my tongue were torn out by the roots, and my throat cut across, and my heart torn out and given to the vultures, before I say this that I must say: Blessing and Worship to the Prophet of the Lovely Star!473

The prophecy of Crowley is articulated by the Vision and the Voice.

And now he is fallen quite to the ground, in a heap, and dust is upon his head; and the throne upon which he sat is shattered into many pieces.

And dimly dawning in this unutterable gloom, far, far above, is the face that is the face of a man and of a woman, and upon the brow is a circle, and upon the breast is a circle, and in the palm of the right hand is a circle.474 Gigantic is his stature, and he hath the Uraeus crown, and the leopard’s skin, and the flaming orange apron of a god. And invisibly about him is Nuit, and in his heart is Hadit, and between his feet is the great god Ra Hoor Khuit. And in his right hand is a flaming wand, and in his left a book.475 Yet is he silent; and that which is understood between him and me shall not be revealed in this place. And the mystery shall be revealed to whosoever shall say, with ecstasy of worship in his heart, with a clear mind, and a passionate body: It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.476

The above is as thorough a symbolic description of the Augoeides as one might hope to record; including the hermaphroditic nature (“the face of a man and of a woman”) that suggests the syzygy of the Scarlet Woman and her Concubine as the key to human evolution at this time. That he holds “in his right hand,” “a flaming wand, and in his left a book,” we find a vision of Prospero and hence of the Exempt

Adept whose work is to abandon Magick for the Abyss. The book also suggests the power of prophecy and continues this theme as it also suggests the ROTA and the 4 that again, is put with the 1 (formulated from the 7 in congealing the Soul); symbolized by the wand.

And now all that glory hath withdrawn itself; and the old King lies prostate, abject.

And the virgin that rode upon the bull cometh forth, led by all those Angels of the Holy Sevenfold Table, and they are dancing round her with garlands and sheaves of flowers, loose robes and hair dancing in the wind.

And she smiles upon me with infinite brilliance, so that the whole Aethyr flushes warm, and she\textsuperscript{477} says with a subtle sub-meaning, pointing downwards: By this, that.\textsuperscript{478}

And I took her hand and kissed it, and I say to her: Am I not nearly purged of the iniquity of my forefathers?\textsuperscript{479}

With that she bends down, and kisses me on the mouth, and says: "Yet a little, and on thy left arm shalt thou carry a man-child,\textsuperscript{480} and give him to drink of the milk of thy breasts. But I go dancing."\textsuperscript{481}

And I wave my hand, and the Aethyr is empty and dark, and I bow myself before it in the sign that I, and only I, may know. And I sink through waves of blackness, poised on an eagle, down, down, down.

And I give the sign that only I may know.

And now there is nothing in the stone but the black cross of Themis,\textsuperscript{482} and on it these words: Memento: Sequor. (These words probably mean that the Equinox of Horus is to be followed by that of Themis.)

Themis is the Goddess of Prophecy; continuing the flow of Aeons and developing the integral aeon into the reuniting of heaven and Earth; hence the free-flow of prophecy amongst the people in a society where creativity and ‘fresh fever from the skies’ colors its ideas of virtue and power.

The Cry of the 15th Aethyr, Which is Called OXO

15. "The Vision of the rose of 49 petals, and of the Holy 12-fold Table. Examination of the Candidate for M.T."

The Great Work completed by the Adeptus Exemptus; both the Greater & Lesser Mysteries are equilibrated.

There appears immediately in the Aethyr a tremendous column of scarlet fire, whirling forth, rebounding, crying aloud. And about it are four columns of green and blue and gold and silver, each inscribed with writings in the character of the dagger. And the column of fire is dancing among the pillars. Now it seems that the fire is but the skirt of the dancer, and the dancer is a mighty god. The vision is overpowering.

The four pillars are the four elements with the pillar of fire as the fifth element of spirit; creating an overall vision of the pentagram. Again, the fifth element is the 7 into 7 of the Ruach—the planets congealed with the elements.

As the dancer whirls, she chants in a strange, slow voice, quickening as she goes: Lo! I gather up every spirit that is pure, and weave him into my vesture of flame. I lick up the lives of men, and their souls sparkle from mine eyes. I am the mighty sorceress, the lust of the spirit. And by my dancing I gather for my mother Nuit the heads of all them that are baptized in the waters of life. I am the lust of the spirit that eateth up the soul of man. I have prepared a feast for the adepts, and they that partake thereof shall see God.

Now it is clear what she has woven in her dance; it is the Crimson Rose of 49 Petals, and the Pillars are the Cross with which it is conjoined. And between the pillars shoot out rays of pure green fire; and now all the pillars are golden. She ceases to dance, and dwindles, gathering herself into the centre of the Rose.

The 7 woven into a Rose and the 4 made into Tau for the Rose Cross. The pure green fire represents Babalon.

Now it is seen that the Rose is a vast ampitheatre, with seven tiers, each tier divided into seven partitions. And they that sit in the Amphitheatre are the seven grades of the Order of the Rosy Cross. This Amphitheatre is built of rose-coloured marble, and of its size I can say only that the sun might be used as a ball to be thrown by the players in the arena. But in the arena there is a

483 \( \text{OXO} = \text{סס} \). The Rose of Earth on the Place of Judgment; this is the scene of the Aire. \( \text{לך דת 460 = חפסילקרפ} \) "Holy unto the Lord", and refers to the consecration (after examination) of the Exempt Adept. It is his final preparation for undergoing in consciousness the full ceremony of passing to the grade of Magister Templi.

484 [See The Chaldean Oracles of Zoroaster, S198, ed. Westcott.]

485 This is a form of Babalon. There is a reference to the story of Salome in the lesser mysteries of the dagger and disk in the cult of "the God, John". "John" is "ON" --- Oannes, Nu, Noah, Jonah, etc., the Sun entering the watery sign of Cancer (the sign of the whale, ark, etc.) at the summer solstice. [The MS notes "Nuit=Babalon. Herodas and Salome legend is this."] little altar of emerald, and its top has the heads of the Four Beasts, in turquoise and rock-crystal. And the floor of the arena is ridged like a grating of lapis lazuli. And it is full of pure quicksilver.

The “rose-coloured marble” symbolizes the blood of the Adept; the ampitheater being the Cup of Bablan—the One becoming the ALL and then back to the One in the Cup of Our Lady. The Order of the Rose Cross of course, is the college of the Adepts.

Above the altar is a veiled Figure, whose name is Pan. Those in the outer tier adore him as a Man; and in the next tier they adore him as a Goat; and in the next tier they adore him as a Ram; and in the next tier they adore him as a Crab; and in the next tier they adore him as an Ibis; and in the next tier they adore him as a Golden Hawk; and in the next tier they adore him not.

And now the light streameth out from the altar, splashed out by the feet of him that is above it. It is the Holy Twelve-fold Table of OIT.

The voice of him that is above the altar is silence, but the echo thereof cometh back from the walls of the circus, and is speech. And this is the speech: Three and four are the days of a quarter of the moon, and on the seventh day is the sabbath, but thrice four is the Sabbath of the Adepts whereof the form is revealed in the Aethyr ZID; that is the eighth of the Aires. And the mysteries of the Table shall not be wholly revealed, nor shall they be revealed herein. But thou shalt gather of the sweat of thy brow a pool of clear water wherein this shall be revealed. And of the oil that thou burnest in the midnight shall be gathered together thirteen rivers of blessing; and of the oil and the water I will prepare a wine to intoxicate the young men and the maidens.

The mystery of the 7 and the 4 combined; the 4 is also the 3 as the Tau representes the Trinity.

In 8°=3', a crab (connected with the star sponge vision). In 9°=2', an ibis (Thoth). In 10°=1' a golden hawk (Ra Hoor Khuit). Above this (Kether), He is the Negative only.

492 The Seven are the inferiors, unless the reference be to Babalon, as in the table of 49 squares. Twelve refers to (Kohet = 12) and the Zodiac. The interweaving of multiplication is to the juxtaposition of addition as is chemical combination to mechanical mixture.
493 Cf. the Zohar for 13 rivers of Holy Oil that flow down the Beard of Macroprosopus. (These are the first 13 letters.) [See Knorr von Rosenroth, The Kabbalah Unveiled, trans. Mathers, chap.23.]
And now the Table is become the universe; every star is a letter of the Book of Enoch. And the Book of Enoch is drawn therefrom by an inscrutable Mystery, that is known only to the Angels and the Holy Sevenfold Table. While I have been gazing upon this table, an Adept has come forth, one from each tier, except the inmost Tier.

And the first drove a dagger into my heart, and tasted the blood, and said: καθαρος, καθαρος, καθαρος, καθαρος, καθαρος, καθαρος. And the second Adept has been testing the muscles of my right arm and shoulder, and he says: fortis, fortis, fortis, fortis, fortis.

And the third Adept examines the skin and tastes the sweat of my left arm, and says: TAN, TAN, TAN, TAN.

And the fourth Adept examines my neck, and seems to approve, though he says nothing; and he hath opened the right half of my brain, and he makes some examination, and says: "Samajh, samajh, samajh.

The work of the Exempt Adept; to nail himself to his work.

And the fifth Adept examines the left half of my brain, and then holds up his hand in protest, and says "PLA . . ." (I cannot get the sentence, but the meaning is: In the thick darkness the seed awaiteth spring.)

And now am I again rapt in contemplation of that universe of letters which are stars.

Dharmic rapture.

The words ORLO, ILRO, TULE are three most secret names of God. They are Magick names, each having an interpretation of the same kind as the interpretation of I.N.R.I., and the name OIT, RLU, LRL, OOE are other names of God, that contain magical formulae, the first to invoke fire; the second, water; the third, air; and the fourth, earth.

494 See 22nd Aire for a fuller indication of this mystery, and infra.
495 5°=6.
496 This Adept guards Tiphareth and tests the heart (which pertains thereto) for its purity. (ΧΑΘΑΡΟΣ = pure) six times; 6 being the number of Tiphareth.
497 6°=5.
498 Similarly, the right arm (of Geburah) five times. Fortis means strong.
499 7°=4.
500 Similarly the left arm (of Chesed) four times, for the virtue of Chesed, Mercy. (See 17th Aire).
501 7°=4.
502 The neck is of Daath which is not a Sephirah, and so has no number or corresponding symbol.
503 This part of the brain is of Binah (3). Samajh means understanding. That is, he admitted the right of the seer to the grade of Magister Templi.
504 The seer was not worthy of the grade of Magus. Note that each adept uses a different language.
505 All these practical mysteries must be worked out by the student himself. Any formula given by the annotator would probably be "dead" in the hands of another man.
The Mystery of the 4 and 3.

And if the Table be read diagonally, every letter, and every combination of letters, is the name of a devil. And from these are drawn the formulae of evil magick. But the holy letter I [Gon] above the triad LLL dominateth the Table, and preserveth the peace of the universe.

And in the seven talismans about the central Table are contained the Mysteries of drawing forth the letters. And the letters of the circumference declare in glory of Nuit, that beginneth from Aries.

The 7 are the Ensigns of Creation; placed on the Holy Table of Practice. The letters of then surround on the table, which are then connected by the Tablet of Union to the 4 Watchtowers.

All this while the Adepts must have been chanting as it were an oratorio for seven instruments. And this oratorio hath one dominant theme of rapture. Yet it applieth to every detail of the universe as well as to the whole. And herein is Choronzon brought utterly to ruin, that all his work is against his will, not only in the whole, but in every part thereof, even as a fly that walketh upon a beryl-stone.

And the tablet blazeth ever brighter till it filleth the whole Aire. And behold! there is one God therein, and the letters of the stars in his crown, Orion, and the Pleiades, and Aldebaran, and Alpha Centauri, and Cor Leonis, and Cor Scorpionis, and Spica, and the pole-star, and Hercules, and Regulus, and Aquila, and the Ram's Eye.

Cf. The Starry Gnosis as the crown of the Lesser Mysteries.

And upon a map of the stars shalt thou draw the sigil of that name; and because also some of the letters are alike, thou shalt know that the stars also have tribes and nations. The letter of a star is but the totem thereof. And the letter representeth not the whole nature of the star, but each star must be known by itself in the wisdom of him that hath the Cynocephalus in leash.

And this pertaineth unto the grade of a Magus --- and that is beyond thine. (All this is communicated not by voice, or by writing; and there is no form in the stone, but only the brilliance of the Table. And now I am

506 See previous note.
507 The easiest explanation of this is to suppose that the letters are not attributed as usual (i.e. I to {Sagittarius}, L to {Cancer}), but taken for their English shape: I the Middle Pillar, L the Square --- but this is far from satisfactory.
508 Note that the corner letters in this table are all B
509 i.e. there are different systems of physical motion for certain groups.
510 i.e. Thoth. The attribution of the fixed stars to the Enochian alphabet has not been worked out. It pertains to the grade of Magus, and would have no interest or meaning for those of lower grades.
withdrawn from all that, but the Rosy Cross of 49 petals is set upright upon the summit of a pyramid, and all is dark, because of the exceeding light behind.)

The “Rosy Cross of 49 petals” symbolizes the Greater Mysteries; both the Lesser and Greater Mysteries being known to the Adeptus Exemptus.

And there cometh a voice: The fly cried unto the ox, "Beware! Strengthen thyself. Set thy feet firmly upon the earth, for it is my purpose to alight between thy shoulders, and I would not harm thee." So also are they who wish well unto the Masters of the Pyramid.

4+3+7=14 (Art Atu and path from Yesod to Tiphareth); “Masters of the Pyramid” being the Adepts of the College of the Rose Cross.

And the bee said unto the flower: "Give me of thine honey," and the flower gave richly thereof; but the bee, though he wit it not, carried the seed of the flower into many fields of sun. So also are they that take unto themselves the Masters of the Pyramid for servants.

The Adeptus Exemptus is the Grade of the Boddhisattva.

Now the exceeding light that was behind the Pyramid, and the Rosy Cross that is set thereon, hath fulfilled the whole Aire. The black Pyramid is like the back of a black diamond. Also the Rosy Cross is loosened, and the petals of the Rose are the mingled hues of sunset and of dawn; and the Cross is the Golden light of noon, and in the heart of the Rose there is the secret light that men call midnight.

The Pyramid is a 3 by 4 structure (3 triangular walls built on a triangle; giving 12—the Universe of Stars.

And a voice: "Glory to God and thanksgiving to God, and there is no God but God. And He is exalted; He is great; and in the Sevenfold Table is His Name writ openly, and in the Twelvelfold Table is His Name concealed."

And the Pyramid casts a shadow of itself into the sky, and the shadow spreads over the whole stone. And an angel clad in blue and scarlet, with golden wings and plumes of purple fire, comes forth and scatters disks of green and gold, filing all the Aire. And they become swiftly-whirling wheels, singing together.

And the voice of the angel cries: Gather up thy garments about thee,⁵¹¹ O thou that hast entered the circle of the Sabbath; for in thy grave-clothes shouldest thou behold the resurrection.

⁵¹¹ Since the examination in the amphitheatre I have been a naked spirit without garments or anything; by garments he means the body.
The flesh hangeth upon thee like his rags upon a beggar that is a pilgrim to the shrine of the Exalted One. Nevertheless, bear them bravely, and rejoice in the beauty thereof, for the company of the pilgrims is a glad company, and they have no care, and with song and dance and wine and fair women do they make merry. And every hostel is their place, and every maid their queen.

Gather up thy garments about thee, I say, for the voice of the Aethyr, that is the voice of the Aeon, is ended, and thou art absorbed into the lesser night, and caught in the web of the light of thy mother in the word ARBADAHARBA.512

And now the five and the six are divorced,513 and I am come again within my body.

Five is the pentagram; man and six is the hexagram; god in man. Their divorce indicates the breaking of the communion with his angelic consciousness.

14. "The Vision of the City of the Pyramids. The Reception Of the Master of the Temple."

50 Gates of Understanding and the desolation of Tiphareth and Binah as the two initiatory points that produce the experience called the Dark Night of the Soul.

There come into the stone a white goat, a green dragon, and a tawny bull. But they pass away immediately. There is a veil of such darkness before the Aethyr that it seems impossible to pierce it. But there is a voice saying: Behold, the Great One of the Night of Time stirreth, and with his tail he churneth up the slime, and of the foam thereof shall he make stars. And in the battle of the Python and the Sphinx shall the glory be to the Sphinx, but the victory to the Python.

Now the veil of darkness is formed of a very great number of exceedingly fine black veils, and one tears them off one at a time. And the voice says, There is no light or knowledge or beauty or stability in the Kingdom of the Grave, whither thou goest. And the worm is crowned. All that thou wast hath he eaten up, and all that thou art is his pasture until to-morrow. And all that thou shalt be is nothing. Thou who wouldst enter the domain of the Great One of the Night of Time, this burden must thou take up. Deepen not a superficialis.

But I go on tearing down the veil that I may behold the vision of UTI, and hear the voice thererof. And there is a voice: He hath drawn the black bean. And another voice answers it: Not otherwise could he plant the Rose. And the first voice: He hath drunk of the waters of death. The answer: Not otherwise could he water the Rose. And the first voice: He hath burnt himself at the Fires of life. And the answer: Not otherwise could he sun the Rose. And the first voice is so faint that I cannot hear it. But the answer is: Not otherwise could he pluck the Rose.

Planting the Rose indicates the element of Earth; drinking the “waters of death” is of course the element of Water—but also, might indirectly suggest the Hanged Man Atu. Sunning the Rose symbolizes the element of Fire and plucking it is of Air; the

515 The bull was probably seen in mistake for a stag. Then U = (HEB: Ayin)
= the goat. T = ג = the Dragon. I = ק, the stag.
516 This is Saturn. He is conceived as a dragon, Thel. He is referred to Binah.
517 The Sphinx is one of the four elements referred to the path of Tau = Saturn. The Python is the great snake that surrounds and devours the Universe. This is his victory; glory is a function of the manifested existence of the Sphinx.
518 On the Middle Pillar: Kether, Dath, Tiphereth, Yesod. Thus the spine of existence itself is destroyed in this initiation.

four elements returning to this long, deepening vision that started with the thirtieth Aethyr in a relatively contiguous fashion to the present Aethyr.

And still I go on, struggling with the blackness. Now there is an earthquake. The veil is torn into thousands of pieces that go flying away in a whirling wind. And there is an all-glorious Angel before me, standing in the sign of Apophis and Typhon.\(^5\) On his Forehead is a star, but all about him is darkness, and the crying of beasts. And there are lamps moving in the darkness.

And the Angel says: Depart! For thou must invoke me only in the darkness. Therein will I appear, and reveal unto thee the Mystery of UTI. For the Mystery thereof is great and terrible. And it shall not be spoken in sight of the sun.

The record here shows a failure to enter this Aethyr with instructions obtained for entering it properly. Because entry was barred, it’s almost as if the Seer was being toyed with by the angel connected with this Aethyr. The angel, yet again described the 4 elements; though still, with additional symbolism connected. But again, the constant symbol of the Rosy Cross indicating the vision and the angels of all these Aethyrs seems to emanate from the Ethical Triad.

Therefore I withdraw myself. (Thus far the vision upon Da'leh Addin, a mountain in the desert near Bou-Sada.\(^5\))

December 3, 2:50-3:15 p.m.

_The Angel re-appears_.

The blackness gathers about, so thick, so clinging, so penetrating, so oppressive, that all the other darkness that I have ever conceived would be like bright light beside it.\(^5\)

His voice comes in a whisper: O thou that art master of the fifty gates of Understanding [Binah], is not my mother a black woman? O thou that art master of the Pentagram, is not the egg of spirit a black egg?\(^5\) Here abideth terror, and the blind ache of the Soul, and lo! even I, who am the sole light, a spark shut up, stand in the sign of Apophis and Typhon.

The Dark Night of the Soul is expressed.

\(^5\) He is about to destroy.
\(^5\) There was also an instruction to build a Temple of stone with altar and circle. There was a public sacrifice offered to the God Pan by the Rite of XI degree O.T.O. See _Equinox_ I, No. X, pp. 114-115.
\(^5\) This is the absolute negation of light, which is Binah. For she absorbs it perfectly.
\(^5\) Akasa, the Tatva (element) of Spirit is a black egg, symbolically. It is the darkness in which all things are conceived.
I am the snake that devoureth the spirit of man with the lust of light. I am the sightless storm in the night that wrappeth the world about with desolation. Chaos is my name, and thick darkness. Know thou that the darkness of the earth is ruddy, and the darkness of the air is grey, but the darkness of the soul is utter blackness.

The egg of the spirit is a basilisk egg, and the gates of the understanding are fifty, that is the sign of the Scorpion.\(^{526}\)

The Fifty Gates of Understanding are derived by taking each of the seven Sephiroth of the Ruach and equilibrating their influence upon each other \((7^2 = 49)\). When each is equilibrated in relation to the whole, one arrives at asar un nefer; a perfectly harmonized Ruach. The fiftieth gate is then, Binah and Understanding is attained.

And once again, the 7 is important. Additionally, the Ruach in Yetzirah is congealed the other three worlds (Atziluth, Briah and Assiah); producing once again, the 4. (cf. The Fifty Gates of Wisdom).

The pillars about the neophyte are crowned with flame, and the vault of the Adept is lighted by the Rose. And in the abyss is the eye of the hawk.\(^{527}\) But upon the great sea shall the Master of the Temple find neither star nor moon.

And I was about to answer him: "The light is within me." But before I could frame the words, he answered me with the great word that is the Key of the Abyss.\(^{528}\) And he said: Thou hast entered the night; dost thou yet lust for day? Sorrow is my name, and affliction. I am girt about with tribulation. Here still hangs the Crucified One,\(^{529}\) and here the Mother weeps over the children that she hath not borne. Sterility is my name, and desolation. Intolerable is thine ache, and incurable thy wound.

This seems a description of the ‘dark night of the soul’ that occurs before this intitiation. Morbid images and dark feelings overcome the Soul as it suffers the pain of congealing and fusing its parts (sotospeak).

I said, Let the darkness cover me; and behold, I am compassed about with the blackness that hath no name. O thou, who hast cast down the light into the earth, so must thou do for ever. And the light of the sun shall not shine upon thee, and the moon shall not lend thee of her lustre, and the stars shall be hidden, because thou art passed beyond these things, beyond the need of these things, beyond the desire of these things.

\(^{526}\) The fifty gates of Binah have been variously explained. They do not appear to be of any great importance; it is only their number which is significant. The reference is to \(2 = 50 = \mathfrak{M}, \text{Atu XIII} \equiv \text{Death}\).

\(^{527}\) Reference to previous ceremonies of initiation.

\(^{528}\) N.O.X. = 210.

\(^{529}\) This seems like an image from the shadow of Tiphareth.
What I thought were shapes of rocks, rather felt than seen, now appear to be veiled Masters, sitting absolutely still and silent. Nor can any one be distinguished from the others.

And the Angel sayeth: Behold where thine Angel hath led thee! Thou didst ask fame, power and pleasure, health and wealth and love, and strength, and length of days. Thou didst hold life with eight tentacles, like an octopus. Thou didst seek the four powers and the seven delights and the twelve emancipations and the two and twenty Privileges and the nine and forty Manifestations, and lo! thou art become as one of These. Bowed are their backs, whereon resteth the universe. Veiled are their faces, that have beheld the glory Ineffable.

The 4 elements and parts of the Soul with the 7 sacred planets of the Ruach and the 12 constellations in the Starry Gnosis; the 22 lesser paths on the Tree-of-Life and 49 has now been expanded beyond $7^2$ and into the Fifty Gates of Understanding without the last that is the Sea of Binah itself.

These adepts seem like Pyramids --- their hoods and robes are like Pyramids.

And the Angel sayeth: Verily is the Pyramid a Temple of Initiation. Verily also is it a tomb.\textsuperscript{530} Thinest thou that there is life within the Masters of the Temple, that sit hooded, encamped upon the Sea? Verily, there is no life in them.

The Pyramid is the temple of Initiation from even the initiation of the Neophyte and the Adept is being told about the City of the Pyramids and the nature of the “Masters of the Temple”—saints who have come before and have since poured their life’s blood into the Cup of Our Lady; that they are “encamped upon the sea [of Binah].”

Their sandals were the pure light, and they have taken them from their feet and cast them down through the abyss, for this Aethyr is holy ground.

Herein no forms appear, and the vision of God face to face, that is transmuted in the Athanor called dissolution, or hammered into one forge of meditation, is in this place but a blasphemy and a mockery.

And the Beatific Vision is no more, and the glory of the Most High is no more. There is no more knowledge. There is no more bliss. There is no more power. There is no more beauty. For this is the Palace of Understanding: for thou art one with the Primeval things.

\textsuperscript{530} It is also a phallus, which dies itself to communicate life to others.
Drink in the myrrh of my speech, that is bruised with the gall of the roc, and dissolved in the ink of the cuttle-fish, and perfumed with the deadly nightshade.

Shadow images of Tiphareth in its corruption as the Crucifixion of Jesus.

This is thy wine, who wast drunk upon the wine of Iacchus. And for bread shalt thou eat salt, O thou on the corn of Ceres that didst wax fat! For as pure being is pure nothing, so is pure wisdom pure ---, and so is pure understanding silence, and stillness, and darkness. The eye is called seventy, and the triple Aleph whereby thou perceivest it, divideth into the number of the terrible word that is the Key of the Abyss.

I am Hermes, that am sent from the Father to expound all things discreetly in these the last words that thou shalt hear before thou take thy seat among these, whose eyes are sealed up, and whose ears are stopped, and whose mouths are clenched, who are folded in upon themselves, the liquor of whose bodies is dried up, so that nothing remains but a little pyramid of dust.

And that bright light of comfort, and that piercing sword of truth, and all that power and beauty that they have made of themselves, is cast from them, as it is written, "I saw Satan like lightning fall from Heaven." And as a flaming sword is it dropt through the abyss, where the four beasts keep watch and ward. And it appeareth in the heaven of Jupiter as a morning star, or as an evening star. And the light thereof shineth even unto the earth, and bringeth hope and help to them that dwell in the darkness of thought, and drink of the poison of life.

Fifty are the gates of understanding, and one hundred and six are the seasons thereof. And the name of every season is Death.

This Aethyr has been difficult to assess, as there seems a subtlety in the point it’s trying to make; overall. Certainly, the nature of the Dark Night of the Soul is being discussed here; something that occurs twice in a career—at Tiphareth and at the Abyss.

During all this speech, the figure of the Angel has dwindled and flickered, and now it is gone out.

531 I suppose that only a Magus could have heard this word. It seems to be "Inertia" or some equivalent. It is the reverse of the three Binah qualities to balance them: speech, and motion, and light.
532 70 x 333 = .210. The process of reducing the dyad to zero, which at once becomes again the dyad, is recurrent; the cycle of existence and non-existence.
533 Different M. T.’s may be cast out into different spheres.
534 The Sankharas --- the constituent elements --- of the man that has become a Master of the Temple, are reconstituted below the Abyss, so that they can function as an Exempt Adept. But their permanent function is in that grade to which their "centre of gravity" (so to speak) tends.
535 50 = מ = נ.

Bou-Saada.
December 3, 1909 9:50-11:15 p.m.

A description of the internal universe of the Adept.

Into the Stone there cometh an image of shining waters, glistening in the sun. Unfathomable is their beauty, for they are limpid, and the floor is of gold. Yet the sense thereof is of frutlessness.

And an Angel cometh forth, of pure pale gold, walking upon the water. Above his head is a rainbow, and the water foams beneath his feet. And he saith: Before his face am I come that hath the thirty-three thunders of increase in his hand. From the golden water shalt thou gather corn.

All the Aire behind him is gold, but it opens as it were a veil. There are two terrible black giants, wrestling in mortal hatred. And there is a little bird upon a bush, and the bird flaps its wings. Thereat the strength of the giants snaps, and they fall in heaps to the earth, as though all their bones were suddenly broken.

And now waves of light roll through the Aethyr, as if they were playing. Therefore suddenly I am in a garden, upon a terrace of a great castle, that is upon a rocky mountain. In the garden are fountains and many flowers. There are girls also in the garden, tall, slim, delicate and pale. And now I see that the flowers are the girls, for they change from one to another; so varied, and lucent, and harmonious is all this garden, that it seems like a great opal.

This castle is that found in the Chymical Wedding. The “flowers [being] girls in the garden” are an allusion to roses, and again, the Rose Cross. The “rocky mountain” is Mount Abiegnus.

A voice comes: This water which thou seest is called the water of death.

But NEMO hath filled therefrom our springs.

The “water[s] of death” re-appears from the last Aethyr; where it was used to show the four elements and it was suggested that the image of the Hanged Man Atu was implied. This atu runs from Hod to Geburah, as the Fortune Atu runs in the opposite and complementary position on the Tree; from Netzach to Chesed; perhaps creating a balance of images presented, as we had been working with a lot of Jupiterian symbolism.

And I said: Who is NEMO?

And the voice answered: A dolphin's tooth, and a ram's horns, and the hand of a man that is hanged, and the phallus of a goat.\(^{544}\) (By this I understand that nun is explained by shin, and he' by resh, and mem by yod, and ayin by tau.\(^ {545}\) NEMO is therefore called

There are symmetries here; the most glaring being the Hanged Man Atu and its positional (on the Tree) complement, the Fortune Atu, as discussed immediately above... “the hand [Kaph/Fortune] of man that is hanged [Mem/Waters of Death].

The “dolphin’s tooth (Nun/Fish/Death Atu & Shin; Water and Fire), which is well, may be seen simply as a dolphin or fish (Nun); finding another complement with the “phallus of the Goat (Devil Atu).

The Ram’s horns are seen in Crowley’s footnote as the spiraling ‘energy’ (“E”), which is characteristic of Aries, but also can be said to denote the firey Mars (ruler of Aries) and Horus. Overall, all this symmetry suggests the Ethical Triad.

Nemo is of course, the Master of the Temple. However, even in his numeration (165) we find the Death (13 [XIII] * 70 [Ayin]) and Devil (11 * 15) Atus. 91 = Amen (Amoun/Jupiter) reasserts the Jupiterian symbolism in complement with the symbolism of the Hanged Man.

And now there cometh an Angel into the garden, but he hath not any of the attributes of the former Angels, for he is like a young man, dressed in white linen robes.

The Logos, which speaks from Tiphareth.

And he saith: No man hath beheld the face of my Father. Therefore he that hath beheld it is called NEMO. And know thou that every man that is called NEMO hath a garden that he tendeth.\(^ {546}\) And every garden that is and flourisheth hath been prepared from the desert by NEMO, watered with the waters that were called death.

And I say unto him: To what end is the garden prepared?

\(^ {544}\) נ = Nun, the fish (dolphin); E = א, the ram; ג = Atu XII = the Hanged Man; ב = (Capricorn), the goat.

\(^ {545}\) 910 = בראֹת Beginning. These attributions explain the nature of NEMO, the Master of the Temple.

\(^ {546}\) Every Magister Templi has a Work to do for the world. <This [garden] is the world; also, the world of disciples; also, perhaps, the world of one’s mistresses.>
And he saith: First for the beauty and delight thereof; and next because it is written, "And Tetragrammaton Elohim planted a garden eastward in Eden." [Gen:2.8] And lastly, because though every flower bringeth forth a maiden, yet is there one flower that shall bring forth a man-child. And his name shall be called NEMO, when he beholdeth the face of my Father. And he that tendeth the garden seeketh not to single out the flower that shall be NEMO.

He doeth naught but tend the garden.

The “man-child” would then be the Magickal Childe that is Nemo or the Master of the Temple reflected back into the Ruach.

And I said: Pleasant indeed is the garden, and light is the toil of tending it, and great is the reward.

And he said: Bethink thee that NEMO hath beheld the face of my Father.
In Him is only Peace.

And I said: Are all gardens like unto this garden?

And he waved his hand, and in the Aire across the valley appeared an island of coral, rosy, with green palms and fruit-trees, in the midst of the bluest of the seas.

And he waved his hand again, and there appeared a valley shut in by mighty snow mountains, and in it were pleasant streams of water, rushing through, and broad rivers, and lakes covered with lilies.

And he waved his hand again, and there was a vision, as it were of an oasis in the desert.

It’s as if it’s being shown that Tiphareth is inside Binah; the idea being of concentric Sefiroth.

And again he waved his hand, and there was a dim country with grey rocks, and heather, and gorse [official flower of the A.T.A.T. and can be seen growing wild all around Boleskine], and bracken.

There are many kinds of gardens; many paths into the mountain; many cultures and many ways to dance and play. The first garden is rosy (has roses) as the second has lillies; the Ethical and Supernal Triads (respectively). The desert seems the Abyss between them, as the “dim country” seems the outer court of garden of Assiah.

And he waved his hand yet again, and there was a park, and a small house therein, surrounded by yews. This time the house opens, and I see in it an old man, sitting by a table. He is blind. Yet he writeth in a great book, constantly. I see what he is writing: "The words of the Book [Tarot] are as the leaves of the flowers in the garden. Many indeed of these my songs shall go forth as maidens, but there is one among them, which one I know not, that shall be a man-child, whose name shall be NEMO, when he hath beheld the face of the Father, and become blind."

(All this vision is most extraordinarily pleasant and peaceful, entirely without strength or ecstasy, or any positive quality, but equally free from the opposites of any of those qualities.) And the young man seems to read my thought, which is, that I should love to stay in this garden and do nothing for ever; for he sayeth to me: Come with me, and behold how NEMO tendeth his garden.

So we enter the earth, and there is a veiled figure, in absolute darkness. Yet it is perfectly possible to see in it, so that the minutest details do not escape us. And upon the root of one flower he pours acid so that that root writhes as if in torture. And another he cuts, and the shriek is like the shriek of a mandrake, torn up by the roots. And another he chars with fire, and yet another he anoints with oil.

These are the methods for tempering metals; that through Ordeal one becomes tried and true.

And I said: Heavy is the labour, but great indeed is the reward.

And the young man answered me: He shall not see the reward, he tendeth the garden.

As Moses did not...and then was said to be assumed bodily into heaven; like Enoch (who became Metatron). Therefore, ‘no man’ is “reward[ed].” All activity is for the sake of the activity and not for its product.

And I said: What shall come unto him?

And he said: This thou canst not know, nor is it revealed by the letters that are the totems of the stars, but only by the stars.

These are the three Grades (Hermit, Lover & Man of Earth) expressed in terms of the Starry Gnosis.

552 A certain secret house of the Great White Brotherhood. Yews, and certain other trees, as Persian Nuts, are used to indicate to passing initiates that they have there a resting place.
553 Now follow further instructions to the Master of the Temple, how he is to do his work.
554 Otherwise: "Art for art’s sake."
And he says to me, quite disconnectedly: The man of earth is the adherent. The lover giveth his life unto the work among men. The hermit goeth solitary, and giveth only of his light unto men.\(^{555}\)

And I ask him: Why does he tell me that?

And he says: I tell thee not. Thou tellest thyself, for thou hast pondered thereupon for many days, and hast not found light. And now that thou art called NEMO, the answer to every riddle that thou hast not found shall spring up in thy mind, unsought. Who can tell upon what day a flower shall bloom?\(^{556}\)

Great discoveries and the solutions to great riddles (such as the riddle of the Sphinx, which might be said to be five-fold per the five ways to temper metal; shown above) often have come in the form of dreams. For example, Einstein solved his dilemma and produced the physical formula—\(E=MC^2\) after dreaming that he was straddling a beam of light. So also, the Magickal practice of scrying the 30 Aethyrs is a way to do this in a controlled fashion; the methodology of Scientific Illuminism.

And thou shalt give thy wisdom unto the world, and that shall be thy garden. And concerning time and death, thou hast naught to do with these things. For though a precious stone be hidden in the sand of the desert, it shall not heed for the wind of the desert, although it be but sand. For the worker of works hath worked thereupon; and because it is clear, it is invisible; and because it is hard, it moveth not.

The “wisdom [of] the world” in the “garden” symbolizes the three Grades in one word (logos); a trinity of Grades as aspects of the Self.

All these words are heard by everyone that is called NEMO. And with that doth he apply himself to understanding. And he must understand the virtue of the waters of death, and he must understand the virtue of the sun and the wind, and of the worm that turneth the earth, and the stars that roof in the garden. And he must understand the separate nature and property of every flower, or how shall he tend his garden?

The five elements are presented as composing the garden and its tending. These are the five methods to temper the metal of the Soul; the metal itself congealed of the metals of the 7 sacred planets.

And I said to him: Concerning the Vision and the Voice, I would know if these things be of essence of the Aethyr, or of the essence of the seer.\(^{557}\) And he answers: It is of the essence of him that is called NEMO, combined with essence of the Aethyr, for from the 1st Aethyr to the 15th Aethyr, there is no vision and no voice, save for him that is called NEMO.

\(^{555}\) See AL:L40. These are the three true grades of the Great Order.

\(^{556}\) This certainly happened.

\(^{557}\) The seer enquires into the objectivity of the vision. These doubts arose in his mind because of the memory pictures in the earlier paragraphs.
And he that seeketh the vision and the voice therein is led away by dog-faced demons that show no sign of truth, seducing from the Sacred Mysteries, unless his name be NEMO.

The Master of the Temple of course, speaks without providing any vision or voice; silence being his mode of communication (developing the garden, which is not about speaking but about doing). But it doesn’t seem obvious that the first fifteen aethyrs are all in Binah; rather, the number 15, the Devil Atu suggests the Holy Guardian Angel (Shaitan). So though Nemo tends to his garden, he does so from the place of the Ruach and Tiphareth, as the Adept.

And hadst thou not been fitted, thou too hadst been led away, for before the gate of the 15th Aethyr, is this written: He shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie. And again it is written:

The Lord hardened Pharaoh’s heart.

A second reference to Moses as Master of the Temple.

And again it is written that God tempteth man. But thou hadst the word and the sign, and thou hadst authority from thy superior, and licence. And thou hast done well in that thou didst not dare, and in that thou dost dare. For daring is not presumption.

Daring is the third power of the Sphinx.

And he said moreover: Thou dost well to keep silence, for I perceive how many questions arise in thy mind; yet already thou knowest that the answering, as the asking, must be vain. For NEMO hath all in himself. He hath come where there is no light or knowledge, only when he needeth them no more.

Silence is the fourth power of the Sphinx. That “NEMO hath all in himself,” again, a symbol showing that the other Sefirot are contained in Binah, as stated above.

And then we bow silently, giving a certain sign, called the Sign of Isis Rejoicing. And then he remaineth to ward the Aethyr, while I return unto the bank of sand that is the bed of the river near the desert.

New Gnosis: Metaphysic and mythos of Babalon

There appear in the stone two pillars of flame, and in the midst is a chariot of white fire.

This seems to be the chariot of the Seventh Key of Tarot. But it is drawn by four sphinxes, diverse, like the four sphinxes upon the door of the vault of the adepts, counterchanged in their component parts.

The symbol of the Sphinx was used in the previous Aethyr to denote five elements and here, the four. And though of course, the “Seventh Key of the Tarot” is the image of the Chariot, the number 7 is here also expressed; the symbol connoting two ideas simultaneously.

The chariot itself is the lunar crescent, waning. The canopy is supported by eight pillars of amber. These pillars are upright, and yet the canopy which they support is the whole vault of the night.

The ancients symbolized the night sky as a canopy of stars, upon which the mythos of the Starry Gnosis is generated.

The charioteer is a man in golden armour, studded with sapphires, but over his shoulders is a white robe, and over that a red robe. Upon his golden helmet he beareth for his crest a crab. His hands are clasped upon a cup, from which radiates a ruddy glow, constantly increasing, so that everything is blotted out by its glory, and the whole Aire is filled with it.

And there is a marvelous perfume in the Aire, like unto the perfume of Ra Hoor Khuit, but sublimated, as if the quintessence of that perfume alone were burnt. For it hath the richness and voluptuousness and humanity of blood, and the strength and freshness of meal, and the sweetness of honey, and the purity of olive-oil, and the holiness of that oil which is made of myrrh, and cinnamon, and galangal.

562 LOE = ㎡. These are all aspects of Babalon.
563 The true Sangreal, of which the Christian legend is a perversion.
564 See AL:III.23-25. The recipe for the oil is given in the Sacred Magic of Abramelin the Mage.
The charioteer speaks in a low, solemn voice, awe-inspiring, like a large and very distant bell: Let him look upon the cup whose blood is mingled therein, for the wine of the cup is the blood of the saints. Glory unto the Scarlet Woman, Babylon the Mother of Abominations, that rideth upon the Beast, for she hath spilt their blood in every corner of the earth and lo! she hath mingled it in the cup of her whoredom.

We are each an ‘abomination,’ as we each supplant the idol of God in the temple with our own sainthood/adeptship and stain the floor of the temple with our own blood in the Holy of Holies; the temple then being also the Cup of Babalon. Note that her name is being introduced for the first time in this Aethyr and that the Master Therion hasn’t yet derived the correct spelling. But it is here that Nuit fulfills her promise; give in AL:1.22—

Now, therefore, I am known to ye by my name Nuit, and to him by a secret name which I will give him when at last he knoweth me. Since I am Infinite Space, and the Infinite Stars thereof, do ye also thus. Bind nothing! Let there be no difference made among you between any one thing & any other thing; for thereby there cometh hurt.

With the breath of her kisses hath she fermented it, and it hath become the wine of the Sacrament, the wine of the Sabbath; and in the Holy Assembly hath she poured it out for her worshippers, and they had become drunken thereon, so that face to face they beheld my Father. Thus are they made worthy to become partakers of the Mystery of this holy vessel, for the blood is the life. So sitteth she from age to age, and the righteous are never weary of her kisses, and by her murders and fornications she seduceth the world. Therein is manifested the glory of my Father, who is truth.

(This wine is such that its virtue radiateth through the cup, and I reel under the intoxication of it. And every thought is destroyed by it.

It abideth alone, and its name is Compassion. I understand by "Compassion," the sacrament of suffering, partaken by the true worshippers of the Highest. And it is an ecstasy in which there is no trace of pain. Its passivity (=passion) is like the giving-up of the self to the beloved.)

Passion is action—‘to do’ and Will means ‘to do’—as the Master of the Temple has ‘to do’ and as discussed on the previous Aethyr. Here, “Compassion” can be shown to mean ‘with action’—the vice of kings, as only kings can do their wills on the surface of the Earth. Cf. AL:II.21.

The voice continues: This is the Mystery of Babylon, the Mother of abominations, and this is the mystery of her adulteries, for she hath yielded up herself to everything that liveth, and hath become a partaker in its mystery. And because she hath made herself the servant of each, therefore is she become the mistress of all. Not as yet canst thou comprehend her glory.

\[565\] As in Atu XI
Beautiful art thou, O Babylon, and desirable, for thou hast given thyself to everything that liveth, and thy weakness hath subdued their strength. For in that union thou didst understand. Therefore art thou called Understanding, O Babylon, Lady of the Night!

This is that which is written, "O my God, in one last rapture let me attain to the union with the many." For she is Love, and her love is one, and she hath divided the one love into infinite loves, and each love is one, and equal to The One, and therefore is she passed "from the assembly and the law and the enlightenment unto the anarchy of solitude and darkness. For ever thus must she veil the brilliance of Her Self."

The revelation of the nature and metaphysic of Babalon; the mythos presented here in great articulation. “For she is Love and her love is one, and she hath divided the one love into infinite loves, and each love is one, and equal to The One...” is beautiful (beauty[Tiphareth]=truth). Further, we each as individuals are one of her loves; she is the Cup that we each must pour our life’s blood into. This is her sacred whoredom and the establishment of a new covenant.

O Babylon, Babylon, thou mighty Mother, that ridest upon the crownd beast, let me be drunken upon the wine of thy fornications; let thy kisses wanton me unto death, that even I, thy cup-bearer, may understand.

Now, through the ruddy glow of the cup, I may perceive far above, and infinitely great, the vision of Babylon. And the Beast whereon she rideth is the Lord of the City of the Pyramids, that I beheld in the fourteenth Aethyr.

Now that is gone in the glow of the cup, and the Angel saith: Not as yet mayest thou understand the mystery of the Beast, for it pertaineth not unto the mystery of this Aire, and few that are new-born unto Understanding are capable thereof.

The cup glows ever brighter and fierier. All my sense is unsteady, being smitten with ecstasy.

And the Angel sayeth: Blessed are the saints, that their blood is mingled in the cup, and can never be separate any more. For Babylon the Beautiful, the Mother of Abominations, hath sworn by her holy kteis, whereof every point is a pang, that she will not rest from her adulteries until the blood of everything that liveth is gathered therein, and the wine thereof laid up and matured and consecrated, and worthy to gladden the heart of my Father. For my Father is weary with the stress of eld, and cometh not to her bed. Yet shall this perfect wine be the quintessence, and the elixir, and by the draught thereof shall he renew his youth; and so shall it be eternally, as age by age the worlds do dissolve and change, and the universe unfoldeth itself as a Rose, and shutteth itself up as the Cross that is bent into the cube.

The above is both an expression of the IX* formula of the O.T.O. and an expression of the 4, as is the symbol of the Rosy Cross; immediately below.

...likewise the comedy of Pan, that is played at night in the thick forest. And this is the mystery of Dionysus Zagreus, that is celebrated upon the holy mountain of Kithairon. And this is the secret of the brothers of the Rosy Cross; and this is the heart of the ritual that is accomplished in the Vault of the Adepts that is hidden in the Mountain of the Caverns, even the Holy Mountain Abiegnus.

And this is the meaning of the Supper of the Passover, the spilling of the blood of the Lamb being a ritual of the Dark Brothers, for they have sealed up the Pylon with blood, lest the Angel of Death should enter therein. Thus do they shut themselves off from the company of the saints. Thus do they keep themselves from compassion and from understanding. Accursed are they, for they shut up their blood in their heart.

Cf. Liber 333; Cap 89 and Liber LXXXIX. So also must Judaism be one of the cursed religions; though the Jews are said to have the half. They have the Qabalah and the ancient wisdom from which it is derived. But the esoteric and the exoteric have suffered the same split as found in all the great religions of the world today.

They keep themselves from the kisses of my Mother Babylon, and in their lonely fortresses they pray to the false moon. And they bind themselves together with an oath, and with a great curse. And of their malice they conspire together, and they have power, and mastery, and in their cauldrons do they brew the harsh wine of delusion, mingled with the poison of their selfishness.

The false flag of the Moon hangs below Tiphareth in the Ethical Triad. This is the Veil of Qesheth; seen in its entirety. But also, the lunar worship of the Jews has kept them from seeing the Sun, which Rome and Christianity would turn to (though they were perverted). It is because in Tiphareth one discovers the original Christian secret (that God is in Man) that one turns from narcissism (selfishness) to servanthood. It is in this way that the Master of the Temple tends to his garden.
Thus they make war upon the Holy One, sending forth their delusion upon men, and upon everything that liveth. So that their false compassion is called compassion, and their false understanding is called understanding, for this is their most potent spell.

False compassion is the pretense of effort usurping the labor (‘to do’) of others by changing them to the slavery of the slave god. For they do not give their whole lives to service of the Goddess; but to their petty appetites.

Yet of their own poison do they perish, and in their lonely fortresses shall they be eaten up by Time that hath cheated them to serve him, and by the mighty devil Choronzon, their master, whose name is the Second Death, for the blood that they have sprinkled on their Pylon, that is a bar against the Angel Death, is the key by which he entereth in.

I think it not that the Black Brother himself passes up on the opportunity provided by the angel of death. Rather, that those he enslaves are tricked into passing up the opportunity. This is accomplished by the perversion of the symbols. Cf. Liber Trigrammaton (“Against him the Brothers of the Left-hand Path, confusing the symbols.”). After having their life-force used up, they must suffer the second death; having been ill-prepared for physical death—cf. Magickal Theory in Volume I of Thelemic Qabalah. And even this serves for the Black Masters run the machine that is the colluqium of slaves (that AL says “shall serve”). Their egos maintain the 4 in the Abyss; the lonely towers of their egoism.

Per Crowley’s footnote, the death of the saints can be shown to be the proper reformulation of energy as David M. Kiersey explains in Scientific Illuminism:

This process of death is viewed in terms of major levels of complexity with the context of massive dissipative structures. We hypothesize that within a level of major complexity there are three regimes: chaotic, ordered, and the edge-of-chaos. The role of “death” is a form of information feedback from order to chaos via the edge-of-chaos between levels of major complexity. Death can release stored information that is key to the further evolution of complexity of a surrounding dissipative structure. It is further hypothesized that in the increasing complexity of our existence, there are successive levels of selection processes. The role of “death” as a type of process is essential in the creation of complexity. The “process of death” is a generic process that is inherent in massive dissipative structures. Thermodynamic death of complex structures will occur in dissipative structures. However, “death” is not as complete as it implies. Even in “death”, there is something remaining of the original entity. Some of the parts of the entity still remain and those released parts will interact with the surrounding environment at a lower level of complexity. The potential diversity of the lower level of complexity is increased with the death. Thus, death is a form of information feedback between levels of complexity. The original entity loses weight upon death. It is this mass that returns to chaos.

Note that the death or love of the saints is really increased life. The formula of 156 is constant copulation or Samadhi on everything.

(I think the trouble with these people was, that they wanted to substitute the blood of someone else for their own blood, because they wanted to keep their personalities.)
The Angel sayeth: And this is the word of double power in the voice of the Master, wherein the Five interpenetrateth the Six. This is its secret interpretation that may not be understood, save only of them that understand. And for this is the Key of the Pylon of Power, because there is no power that may endure, save only the power that descendeth in this my chariot from Babylon, the city of Fifty Gates, the Gate of the God On [צלע]. Moreover is On the Key of the Vault that is 120. So also do the Majesty and the Beauty derive from the Supernal Wisdom.

But this is a mystery utterly beyond thine understanding. For Wisdom is the Man, and Understanding the Woman, and not until thou hast perfectly understood canst thou begin to be wise. But I reveal unto thee a mystery of the Aethyrs, that not only are they bound up with the Sephiroth, but also with the Paths. Now, the plane of the Aethyrs interpenetrateth and surroundeth the universe wherein the Sephiroth are established, and therefore is the order of the Aethyrs not the order of the Tree of Life. And only in a few places do they coincide. But the knowledge of the Aethyrs is deeper than the knowledge of the Sephiroth, for that in the Aethyrs is the knowledge of the Aeons, and of ΘΕΑΕΜΑ. And to each shall it be given according to his capacity. (He has been saying certain secret things to the unconscious mind of the seer, of a personal nature.)

Again, the Scarlet Woman and her consort, the Beast are the Man and Woman in the formula of Adeptship at Tiphareth; symbolized by the Formula of ON. Cf. The Formula of ON and Liber Laiad vel In Occultus.

Now a voice comes from without: And lo! I saw you to the end.

And a great bell begins to toll. And there come six little children out of the floor of the chariot, and in their hands is a veil so fine and transparent that it is hardly visible. Yet, when they put it over the Cup, the Angel bowing his head reverently, the light of the Cup goes out entirely. And as the light of the Cup vanishes, it is like a swift sunset in the whole Aire, for it was from the light of that Cup alone that it was lighted.

And now the light is all gone out of the stone, and I am very cold.

The Cry of the 11th Aethyr, Which is Called IKH

11. "Yesod. The Frontier of the Abyss."

The connection between Da’ath & Yesod is shown with Tiphareth as the pivot.

There appears in the stone immediately the Kamea of the Moon. And it is rolled up; and behind it there appeareth a great Host of Angels. Their backs are turned towards me, but I can see how tremendous are their arms, which are swords and spears. They have wings upon their helmets and their heels: they are clad in complete armour, and the least of their swords is like the breaking forth of a tremendous storm of lightning. The least of their spears is like a great water-spout. On their shields are the eyes of Tetragrammaton, winged with flame, --- white, red, black, yellow and blue. On their flanks are vast squadrons of elephants, and behind them is their meteor-artillery. They that sit upon the elephants are armed with the thunderbolt of Zeus.

The “Tetragrammaton” is of the four, and the “winged flame” is colored with the Queen Scale for the five elements: White=Spirit; Red=Fire; Black=Earth; Yellow=Air and Blue=Water.

Now in all that host there is no motion. Yet they are not resting upon their arms, but tense and vigilant. And between them and me is the God Shu, whom before I did not see, because his force filleth the whole Aethyr. And indeed he is not visible in his form. Nor does he come to the seer through any of the senses; he is understood, rather than expressed.

Shu supports the air and is the Sign of the Zelator (the Air Grade) who sits at Yesod, which is why the Kamea of the Moon is the first symbol to appear. The number nine and the “silver armour” indicate Yesod as well. But the nine towers are of iron, which is the metal of Mars and the tension about the aethyr with warriors wearing the silver armour as much indicate Geburah (or Ra-Hoor-Khuit). Yesod in Hebrew = 80, as is the value of the Hebrew letter Peh, which is attributed to Mars. So it seems RHK has some special function in Yesod. Certainly, the war engine he promises to give is of the Ruach, as explained in the English Qabalah (‘war engine’=934, which reduces to 7).

IKH = DA = Peh, the Supernal Triad, the Hexagon and Malkuth, the arrangement of the Tree of Life. Also 361 Adonai ha-Aretz. For it is the formulation of the Sephiroth which is a barrier of organic structure against the confusion of matter.

Kamea --- "magic square" containing the letters corresponding to the numbers (in this case from 1 to 81) --- so arranged that each line, vertical or horizontal, shall add to the same total.

Shu is in Jesod, as the supporter of the Tree of Life, and he is Zeus, the Lord of Air. But also Zeus is the orderer of all things.
I perceive that all this army is defended by fortresses, nine mighty towers of iron upon the frontier of the Aethyr. Each tower is filled with warriors in silver armour. It is impossible to describe the feeling of tension; they are like oarsmen waiting for the gun.

I perceive that an Angel is standing on either side of me; nay, I am in the midst of a company of armed angels, and their captain is standing in front of me. He too is clad in silver armour; and about him, closely wrapped to his body, is a whirling wind, so swift that any blow struck against him would be broken.

This “wind” indicates the Ruach, which houses the 7 sacred planets.

And he speaketh unto me these words:

Behold, a mighty guard against the terror of things, the fastness of the Most High, the legions of eternal vigilance; these are they that keep watch and ward day and night throughout the aeons. Set in them is all force of the Mighty One, yet there stirreth not one plume of the wings of their helmets.

Behold, the foundation [Yesod] of the Holy City, the towers and the bastions thereof! Behold the armies of light that are set against the outermost Abys, against the horror of emptiness, and the malice of Choronzon.
Behold how worshipful is the wisdom of the Master, that he hath set his stability in the all-wandering Air and in the changeful Moon. In the purple flashes of lightning hath He written the word Eternity, and in the wings of the swallow hath He appointed rest.

By three and by three and by three hath He made firm the foundation [Yesod] against the earthquake that is three. For in the number nine is the changefulness of the numbers brought to naught. For with whatsoever number thou wilt cover it, it appeareth unchanged.

It is well worth quoting here, the description of numbers found in Gnostic Cycles:
We come next to the Gnostic Circle. We start with the Triangle, as it is the strongest structural shape in the Universe. And of course, we add the circle, as its involvement in the Universe is apparent in both the motion of the planets and the Will for that matter as well as the cyclic nature of life. The realization of the circle simultaneously produces the realization of the number nine, as it is the highest of all known numbers (0 through 9) and at the opposite end of the numbers, which start with the circle or zero. This should become more obvious if you consider the circular nature of things and note that the end is connected to the beginning. Perhaps also, one could consider that there are nine planets circling the Sun in our Solar System. The circle then represents the orbit, which is the nature of the Will whose highest expression is then the number nine.

Madame Blavatsky writes in her commentary to the Secret Doctrine; Stanza 4, Verse 5:

“0. "This means that the “Boundless Circle,” the zero, becomes a figure or number only when one of the other nine figures precedes it, and thus manifests is value and potency; the Word or Logos in union with the Voice and Spirit* (the expression and source of Consciousness), standing for the nine figures, the thus forming the Cypher, the Decad which contains in itself all the Universe. The Triad forms the Tetrakys, or the Sacred Four, within the Circle, the Square within the Circle being the most potent of all the magical figures.

AL III.47—“This book shall be translated into all tongues: but always with the original in the writing of the Beast; for in the chance shape of the letters and their position to one another: in these are mysteries that no Beast shall divine. Let him not seek to try: but one cometh after him, whence I say not, who shall discover the Key of it all. Then this line drawn is a key: then this circle squared in its failure is a key also. And Abrahadabra. It shall be his child & that strangely. Let him not seek after this: for thereby alone can he fall from it.”

* The footnote HPB adds here provides further clarification:

This refers to the Abstract Thought and concrete Voice, or the manifestation thereof, the effect of the Cause. Adam Kadmon, or Tetragrammaton, was the logos in the Kabalah. Therefore this Triad answers in the latter to the highest Triangle of Kether, Chokmah and Binah, the last a female potency, and at the same time the male Jehovah, as partaking of the nature of Chokmah, or the male Wisdom.

The Will is the singular point, Hadit, whose symbol is the dot. Therefore, when there is realization of the dot or point, we can comprehend zero. Zero and nine are then, the numerical essence of the Sun whose symbol is the dot in the circle. The Universe is the circle, Nuit, whose circumference, though “nowhere found” is discovered through the orbiting points embedded in her fabric. Note also that number is the key to time, which is also connected to Astrology and its cosmic harmonies.

Nuit is attributed to Binah of which the planet Saturn is also attributed. And Saturn is in the position of the sixth orbit and holds three principal rings about it, suggesting the nature of the Supernal Triad. Three, six and nine with zero become important numbers and go to the points of the triangle as shown above. There’s an amazing amount that can be gleaned from this if one takes the time to consider it. Most notably or at least initially, the circle and symbol of the Sun is 360 degrees with 9 planets orbiting about it. Nine is Yesod, six is Tiphereth and three is Binah; these are the principal Initiations in the A’.’A.’ system and pertain to the three veils on the Tree-of-Life; Qesheth, Paroketh and the Abyss.
We have then greater insight into the 9 as “By three and by three and by three,” as well as the “earthquake that is three.” The latter is of course the triangle, as the strongest in structural shape and that is also denotative (within the circle, as shown) as the failure of the circle squared; re: the quote from AL:III.47. But also the triangle is the Triad; being the three triads (Supernal, Ethical & Astral) on the Tree-of-Life. And the Earthquake could then be the complement to these triads, as the Lightening Flash is to the Sefirot.

These things are spoken unto him that understandeth, that is a breastplate unto the elephants, or a corselet unto the angels, or a scale upon the towers of iron; yet is this mighty host set only for a defense, and whoso passeth beyond their lines hath no help in them.

Yet must he that understandeth go forth unto the outermost Abyss, and there must he speak with him that is set above the four-fold terror, the Princes of Evil, even with Choronzon, the mighty devil that inhabiteth the outermost Abyss. And none may speak with him, or understand him, but the servants of Babylon, that understand, and they that are without understanding, his servants.

Binah/Understanding; there are those that don’t get there and are lost in the Abyss.

Behold! it entereth not into the heart, nor into the mind of man to conceive this matter; for the sickness of the body is death, and the sickness of the heart is despair, and the sickness of the mind is madness. But in the outermost Abyss is sickness of the aspiration, and sickness of the will, and sickness of the essence of all, and there is neither word nor thought wherein the image of its image is reflected.

And whoso passeth into the outermost Abyss, except he be of them that understand, holdeth out his hands, and boweth his neck, unto the chains of Choronzon. And as a devil he walketh about the earth, immortal, and he blasteth the flowers of the earth, and he corrupteth the fresh air, and he maketh poisonous the water; and the fire that is the friend of man, and the pledge of his aspiration, seeing that it mounteth ever upward as a pyramid, and seeing that man stole it in a hollow tube from Heaven, even that fire he turneth unto ruin, and madness, and fever, and destruction. And thou, that art an heap of dry dust in the city of the pyramids, must understand these things.

And now a thing happens, which is unfortunately sheer nonsense; for the Aethyr that is the foundation of the universe was attacked by the Outermost Abyss, and the only way that I can express it is by saying that the universe was shaken. But the universe was not shaken. And that is the exact truth; so that the rational mind which is interpreting these spiritual things is offended; but, being trained to obey, it setteth down that which it doth not understand. For the rational mind indeed reasoneth, but never attaineth unto Understanding; but the Seer is of them that understand.

Yesod and Da’ath are connected.

And the Angel saith:

Behold, He hath established His mercy and His might, and unto His might is added victory, and unto his Mercy is added splendour. And all these things hath He ordered in beauty, and He hath set them firmly upon the Eternal Rock, and therefrom He hath suspended His kingdom as one pearl that is set in a jewel of threescore pearls and twelve. And He hath garnished it with the Four Holy Living Creatures for Guardians, and He hath graven therein the seal of righteousness, and He hath burnished it with the fire of His Angel, and the blush of His loveliness informeth it, and with delight and with wit hath He made it merry at the heart, and the core thereof is the Secret of His being, and therein is His name Generation. And this His stability had the number 80, for that the price thereof is War.

War makes things happen (cf. A Summation of War) and Ra-Hoor-Khuit is the force and fire of war.

Beware, therefore, O thou who art appointed to understand the secret of the Outermost Abyss, for in every Abyss thou must assume the mask and form of the Angel thereof. Hadst thou a name, thou wert irrevocably lost. Search, therefore, if there be yet one drop of blood that is not gathered into the cup of Babylon the Beautiful, for in that little pile of dust, if there could be one drop of blood, it should be utterly corrupt; it should breed scorpions and vipers, and the cat of slime.

And I said unto the Angel:

Is there not one appointed as a warden?

And he said:

Eloi, Eloi, lama sabacthani.

586 The 72 pearls are the quinaries of the Zodiac. They appear in the XXIst Atu. See Liber CCXXXI (_Equinox_ I, vii), v. 21. Full title of Jesod is Tzedeq Jesod Olamh, "The Righteous is the Foundation of the World."
587 I.S.V.D., Jesod = 80, the number of p, the letter of Mars.
589 This is the danger which threatens all aspirants to the Grade of Magister Templi. Woe to those who accept it lightly, or without the fullest preparation.
Such an ecstasy of anguish racks me that I cannot give it voice, yet I know it is but as the anguish of Gethsemane. And that is the last word of the Aethyr. The outposts are passed, and before the seer extends the outermost Abyss.

The symbol of the crucifixion showing up seems the ordeal of Choronzon that is a part of the work in Yesod for the Zelator. That God abandons one on the Cross, one then finds spirit taken from matter, which really is the six divorcing the five. In the 13th Aethyr we noted that this is the Seer disconnecting from this angelic consciousness.

I am returned.

Restriction unto Choronzon.\textsuperscript{590}

\textsuperscript{590} Choronzon is described by Sir Edward Kelly as "that mighty devil", as the first and deadliest of all the powers of evil. Rightly so, for although he is not a person, he is the metaphysical contrary of the whole Process of Magick.
The Tenth Aethyr is Called \( \Phi \Gamma \).

This Aethyr being accurs’d, and the seer forewarned, he taketh these precautions for the scribe.

First let the scribe be seated in the centre of the circle in the desert sand, and let the circle be fortified by the Holy Names of God --- Tetragrammaton and Shaddai El Chai and Ararita.

And let the Demon be invoked within a triangle, wherein is inscribed the name of Choronzon, and about it let him write ANAPHAXETON --- ANAPHANETON -- PRIMEUMATON, and in the angles MI-CA-EL: and at each angle the Seer shall slay a pigeon, and having done this, let him retire to a secret place, where is neither sight nor hearing, and sit within his black robe, secretly invoking the Aethyr.

And let the Scribe perform the Banishing Rituals of the Pentagram and Hexagram, and let him call upon the Holy Names of God, and say the Exorcism of Honorius, and let him beseech protection and help of the Most High.

591 The three Governors of this Aethyr, Lexarp, Comanan, and Tabiton, are drawn from the "little Black Tablet" of Spirit, which united the four watchtowers of the elements. (See _Equinox_ I, No. VII, Plate III; facing p. 234). The one extra letter, L, is the eighth of the reversed letters beneath the bars of the Calvary Crosses in the watch-towers to form trilateral names which designate malignant forces. These letters are thus impurities introduced into the perfection of the Elementary Schema. (That they should be attributed to the element of spirit, which harmonizes and sanctifies the four, is a sublime mystery. The arcanum is declared --- as far as may be --- in this book 418 itself). The other 7 letters form the name PARAOAN, which is the central governor of the 22nd Aire; but here is a correspondence with I, the center letter of LIN; this Aire discloses the glory of the Table 7 x 7, which is pure spirit, the rose which is the heart of Babalon.

592 ZAX = ΩΩΩ. Z is the Sun in His southern declination, i.e. at His weakest effect on an hemisphere. Follows the Bull, the type of the "Dying Gods", and the element of Earth. This letter X occurs only in this, the 15th and 30th Aires. In the 15th, water is the prima materia which is treated by being placed between the pillars of judgement. In the 30th, it represents the reduction to mere matter of the false structure of the Aeon of the false formula. Here X is the basis, without constructive possibilities, of the universe; thus the whole formula represents the weakening of the energy of the Sun, and the falling into incoherent elements of all that is organized.

594 Concerning the bloody sacrifice, see _Book 4_, part 3, cap. 12. For the pigeons see the text.

595 The greatest precautions were taken at the time, and have since been yet further fortified, to keep silence concerning the rite of evocation. The Major Adept is warned most seriously against attempting to emulate this operation, which is (in any case) improper for him to perform. To call forth Choronzon, unless one be wholly above the Abyss, is to ensure the most appalling and immediate catastrophe.

596 These are given in the _Equinox_ Vol. I, No. 2.

597 Given in the French translation by Eliphaz Levi; and in the English by Aleister Crowley in "The Winged Beetle." ("The Magician" is the title of that poem, see p. 228.)

---

Mighty One save me from Hell's dark gloom
Guard my spirit from the demons' tomb
Into their dread abodes without fright
I will proclaim thy will, the Law of Light!
The Circle and Triangle; drawn with the Solomonic proportions of 1:3.

I bid the sky shew forth the shining spheres:
Sun arise, and Moon shine sharp and clear!
Into their dread abodes without fright
I will proclaim thy will, the Law of Light!
Their names and forms are evil and strange,
Yet they by thy magick will I change!
The nameless horrors I bind without fright;
I now proclaim thy will, the Law of Light!
These phantoms pale of my inner view
None but thee their wasted beauty can renew;
To the Abyss, I plunge without fright:
I have proclaimed thy will, the Law of Light!
And let him be furnished with the Magick Dagger, and let him strike fearlessly at anything that may seek to break through the circle, were it the appearance of the Seer himself. And if the Demon pass out of the triangle, let him threaten him with the Dagger, and command him to return. And let him beware lest he himself lean beyond the circle. And since he reverenceth the Person of the Seer as his Teacher, let the Seer bind him with a great Oath to do this.

Now, then, the Seer being entered within the triangle, let him take the Victims and cut their throats, pouring the blood within the Triangle, and being most heedful that not one drop fall without the Triangle; or else Choronzon should be able to manifest in the universe.

And when the sand hath sucked up the blood of the victims, let him recite the Call of the Aethyr apart secretly as aforesaid. Then will the Vision be revealed, and the Voice heard.

The Oath

I, Omnia Vincam, a Probationer of A.'. A.'., hereby solemnly promise upon my magical honour, and swear by Adonai the angel that guardeth me, that I will defend this magic circle of Art with thoughts and words and deeds. I promise to threaten with the Dagger and command back into the triangle the spirit incontinent, if he should strive to escape from it; and to strike with a Dagger at anything that may seek to enter this Circle, were it in appearance the body of the Seer himself. And I will be exceeding wary, armed against force and cunning; and I will preserve with my life the inviolability of this Circle, Amen.

And I summon mine Holy Guardian Angel to witness this mine oath, the which if I break, may I perish, forsaken of Him. Amen and Amen.

There is no being in the outermost Abyss, but constant forms come forth from the nothingness of it.

Then the Devil of the Aethyr, that mighty devil Choronzon, crieth aloud, Zazaz, Zazas, Nasatanada Zasas.

The above phrase is stated in the Neophyte, Pyramid ritual (Liber Pyramidos) and is said to open the Abyss. The Neophyte sits in Malkuth and is working to open 598 See _Book 4_, part 2, caps. 4 and 8.

599 It is very difficult to give a good metaphysical interpretation of this statement. But to one who is given this perception, the words will appear to be the natural and inevitable expression of the facts.
600 These words are from some vision of old time: by them Adam was said to have opened the gates of Hell. These are the traditional words which open the Abyss.
himself to the consciousness of Yesod; itself, a path to the Abyss—via the nightside of the Tree-of-Life.

I am the Master of Form, and from me all forms proceed.

This is the voice of Pan, who is also a Guardian of the Abyss. And we must ask, is Pan but the other side of the coin that holds Choronzon? —Pan being seen by the godhead involuting from the One to the All and Choronzon is seen by each one of the All on its evolutionary journey to unite consciousness with the One.

I am I.

Contrast this with “I am” —in the speech to follow, the demon threatens divinity and then expounds the sentiment of the ‘shut-up.’

I have shut myself up from the spendthrifts, my gold is safe in my treasure-chamber, and I have made every living thing my concubine, and none shall touch them, save only I. And yet I am scorched, even while I shiver in the wind. He hateth me and tormenteth me. He would have stolen me from myself, but I shut myself up and mock at him, even while he plagueth me. From me come leprosy and pox and plague and cancer and cholera and the falling sickness. Ah! I will reach up to the knees of the Most High, and tear his phallus with my teeth, and I will bray his testicles in a mortar, and make poison thereof, to slay the sons of men.

(Here the Spirit stimulated the voice of Frater P., which also appeared to come from his station and not from the triangle.)

I don't think I can get any more; I think that's all there is.

(The Frater was seated in a secret place covered completely by a black robe, in the position called the "Thunderbolt". He did not move or speak during the ceremony.)

Next the Scribe was hallucinated, believing that before him was a beautiful courtesan whom previously he had loved in Paris. Now, she wooed him with soft words and glances, but he knew these things for delusions of the devil, and he would not leave the circle.

601 This (and many following assertions) must not be taken as true. Choronzon is in no sense the master of anything. It is the personification of a moral idea in a much more far-fetched way than that in which we say "Venus is the Lady of Love". For one can imagine Venus as a living individual being, while Choronzon is essentially not any sort of person.

602 Various elements had been bound up into a “bundle” by the energy of the Call, and thus constituted a momentary unity capable of sensation and of expression. The obsessing idea of any such being, conscious that it is not a true organism, and threatened with immediate dissolution, which in its rudimentary psychology it is bound to dread, is of necessity, fear; and fear breeds pain, malice, and envy. Above all there is an insane hatred for the supposed creator because the supposed blessing of creation has been withheld from the “bundle”.

603 That of modesty, none less.
The demon then laughed wildly and loud.

(Upon the Scribe threatening him, the Demon proceeded, after a short delay.)

They have called me the God of laughter, and I laugh when I will slay. And they have thought that I could not smile, but I smile upon whom I would seduce. O inviolable one, that canst not not be tempted. If thou canst command me by the power of the Most High, know that I did indeed tempt thee, and it repenteth me. I bow myself humbly before the great and terrible names whereby thou hast conjured and constrained me. But thy name is mercy, and I cry aloud for pardon. Let me come and put my head beneath thy feet, that I may serve thee. For if thou commandest me to obedience in the Holy names, I cannot swerve therefrom, for their first whispering is greater than the noise of all my temptests. Bid me therefore come unto thee upon my hands and knees that I may adore thee, and partake of thy forgiveness. Is not thy mercy infinite?

(Here Choronzon attempts to seduce the Scribe by appealing to his pride. But the Scribe refused to be tempted, and commanded the demon to continue with the Aethyr.)

There was again a short delay.)

Choronzon hath no form, because he is the maker of all form; and so rapidly he changeth from one to the other as he may best think fit to seduce those whom he hateth, the servants of the Most High.

Crowley is basically saying Choronzon is Pan (“all form”).

Thus taketh he the form of a beautiful woman, or of a wise and holy man, or of a serpent that writheth upon the earth ready to sting.

And, because he is himself, therefore he is no self; the terror of darkness, and the blindness of night, and the deafness of the adder, and the tastelessness of stale and stagnant water, and the black fire of hatred, and the udders of the Cat of slime; not one thing, but many things. Yet, with all that, his torment is eternal. The sun burns him as he writhes naked upon the sands of hell, and the wind cuts him bitterly to the bone, a harsh dry wind, so that he is sore athirst. Give unto me, I pray thee, one drop of water from the pure springs of Paradise, that I may quench my thirst.

604 Here the assumed character of this courtesan who was a marvelous mistress of irony as of fascination, intrudes upon that of the demon proper.

605 He actually assumed these forms at the time.
The embodiment of the Dark Night of the Soul; the winds of the Ruach (Air) generate the thirst that is quenched in Briah (Water).

(The Scribe refused.)

Sprinkle water upon my head. I can hardly go on.606

(This last was spoken from the triangle in the natural voice of the Frater, which Choronzon again simulated. But he did not succeed in taking the Frater's form --- which was absurd!

The Scribe resisted the appeal to his pity, and conjured the demon to proceed by the names of the Most High. Choronzon attempted also to seduce the faithfulness of the Scribe. A long colloquy ensued. The Scribe cursed him by the Holy Names of God, and the power of the Pentagram.607

I feed upon the names of the Most High. I churn them in my jaws, and I void them from my fundament. I fear not the power of the Pentagram, for I am the Master of the Triangle. My name is three hundred and thirty and three, and that is thrice one.608

333 is Binah; the Abyss being the darkside of Binah: NOT vs. N.O.X.

Be vigilant, therefore, for I warn thee that I am about to deceive thee. I shall say words that thou wilt take to be the cry of the Aethyr, and thou wilt write them down, thinking them to be great secrets of Magick power, and they will be only my jesting with thee.

(Here the Scribe invoked the Angels, and the Holy Guardian Angel of the Frater P. . . . The demon replied:)

I know the name of the Angel of thee and thy brother P. . . ., and all thy dealings with him are but a cloak for thy filthy sorceries.

(Here the Scribe averred that he knew more than the demon, and so feared him not, and ordered the demon to proceed.)

Thou canst tell me naught that I know not, for in me is all Knowledge:

606 In this Aethyr are certain silences maintained.
607 χρωστήριον = 333 = 3 x 111, and 111 = τὸ ὁμότεσσαὶ = K = 1. 333 alsois ἀκρασία, impotence, lack of control; and ἀκολασία, dispersion. The seer had no idea of these correspondences: nor had Dr. Dee and Sir Edward Kelly, from whom we have the name.
608 Ibid.
Knowledge is my name. Is not the head of the great Serpent arisen into Knowledge?\(^{609}\)

Knowledge is that which ‘is’ and is a contradistinction of ‘NOT.’ The confusing syntax of the paragraph is treacherous speech. (NOT vs. N.O.X.)

(Here the Scribe again commanded Choronzon to continue with the call.)

Know thou that there is no Cry in the tenth Aethyr like unto the other Cries, for Choronzon is Dispersion, and cannot fix his mind upon any one thing for any length of time. Thou canst master him in argument, O talkative one; thou wast commanded, wast thou not, to talk to Choronzon? He sought not to enter the circle, or to leave the triangle, yet thou didst prate of all these things.

(Here the Scribe threatened the demon with anger and pain and hell. The demon replied:)

Thinkest thou, O fool, that there is any anger and any pain that I am not, or any hell but this my spirit?

Images, images, images, all without control, all without reason. The malice of Choronzon is not the malice of a being; it is the quality of malice, because he that boasteth himself "I am I", hath in truth no self, and these are they that are fallen under my power, the slaves of the Blind One that boasted himself to be the Enlightened One. For there is no centre, nay, nothing but Dispersion.

Woe, woe, woe, threefold to him that is led away by talk, O talkative One.

O thou that hast written two-and-thirty books of Wisdom, and art more stupid than an owl, by thine own talk is thy vigilance wearied, and by my talk art thou befooled and tricked, O thou that sayest that thou shalt endure. Knowest thou how nigh thou art to destruction? For thou that art the Scribe hast not the understanding\(^{610}\) that alone availeth against Choronzon. And wert thou not protected by the Holy Names of God and the circle, I would rush upon thee and tear thee. For when I made myself like unto a beautiful woman, if thou hadst come to me, I would have rotted thy body with the pox, and thy liver with cancer, and I would have torn off thy

\(^{609}\) Dath. The doctrine of the "Fall" and the "Stooping Dragon" must be studied carefully. _Equinox_ Vol. I, Nos. 2 and 3, have much information, with diagrams, in the "Temple of Solomon the King". See also _Liber 777_. This question of the Abyss must be thoroughly understood. The entire system of initiation of the A.'.A.' depend on these theorems. (See "One Star in Sight.")

\(^{610}\) Originally, for "understanding" was written "power". Choronzon was always using some word that did not represent his thought, because there is no proper link between his thought and speech. Note that he never seems able to distinguish between the Frater and the Scribe, and addresses first one, then the other, in the same sentence.
testicles with my teeth. And if I had seduced thy pride, and thou hadst bidden me to come into the circle, I would have trampled thee under foot, and for a thousand years shouldst thou have been but one of the tape-worms that is in me. And if I had seduced thy pity, and thou hadst poured one drop of water without the circle, then would I have blasted thee with flame. But I was not able to prevail against thee.

How beautiful are the shadows of the ripples of the sand!

Would God that I were dead.

For know that I am proud and revengeful and lascivious, and I prate even as thou. For even as I walked among the Sons of God, I heard it said that P. . . . could both will and know, and might learn at length to dare, but that to keep silence he should never learn.

The 4 Powers of the Sphinx are presented here.

O thou that art so ready to speak, so slow to watch, thou art delivered over unto my power for this. And now one word was necessary unto me, and I could not speak it. I behold the beauty of the earth in her desolation, and greater far is mine, who sought to be my naked self. Knowest thou that in my soul is utmost fear? And such is my force and my cunning, that a hundred times have I been ready to leap, and for fear have missed. And a thousand times am I baulked by them of the City of the Pyramids, that set snares for my feet. More knowledge have I than the Most High, but my will is broken, and my fierceness is marred by fear, and I must speak, speak, speak, millions of mad voices in my brain.

With a heart of furious fancies,
Whereof I am Commander,
With a burning spear
And a horse of Air
To the wilderness I wander.

(The idea was to keep the Scribe busy writing, so as to spring upon him. For, while the Scribe talked, Choronzon had thrown sand into the circle, and filled it up. But Choronzon could not think fast and continuously, and so resorted to the device of quotation.

The Scribe had written two or three words of "Tom o'Bedlam," when Choronzon sprang within the circle (that part of the circumference of which that was nearest to him he had been filling up with sand all this time), and leaped upon the Scribe, throwing him to the earth. The conflict took place within the circle. The Scribe called upon Tetragrammaton, and succeeded in compelling Choronzon to return into his triangle. By dint of anger and of threatening him with the Magick Staff did he accomplish this. He then repaired the circle. The discomfited demon now continued:

All is dispersion. These are the qualities of things.

The tenth Aethyr is the world of adjectives, and there is no substance therein.

(Now returneth the beautiful woman who had before tempted the Scribe. She prevailed not.)

I am afraid of sunset, for Tum is more terrible than Ra, and Khephra the Beetle is greater than the Lion Mau.

Another presentation of the 4; expressed in terms of the stations of the Sun.

I am a-cold.

(Here Choronzon wanted to leave the triangle to obtain wherewith to cover his nakedness. The Scribe refused the request, threatening the demon. After a while the latter continued:)

I am commanded, why I know not, by him that speaketh. Were it thou, thou little fool, I would tear thee limb from limb. I would bite off thine ears and nose before I began with thee. I would take thy guts for fiddle-strings at the Black Sabbath.

Thou didst make a great fight there in the circle; thou art a goodly warrior!

(Then did the demon laugh loudly. The Scribe said: Thou canst not harm one hair of my head.)

I will pull out every hair of thy head, every hair of thy body, every hair of thy soul, one by one.

(Then said the Scribe: Thou hast no power.)

Yea, verily I have power over thee, for thou hast taken the Oath, and art bound unto the White Brothers, and therefore have I the power to torture thee so long as thou shalt be.

(Then said the Scribe unto him: Thou liest.)

Ask of thy brother P. . . ., and he shall tell thee if I lie!
(This the Scribe refused to do, saying that it was no concern of the demon’s.)

I have prevailed against the Kingdom of the Father, and befouled his beard; and I have prevailed against the Kingdom of the Son, and torn off his Phallus; but against the Kingdom of the Holy Ghost shall I strive and not prevail. The three slain doves are my threefold blasphemy against him; but their blood shall make fertile the sand,611 and I writhe in blackness and horror of hate, and prevail not.

In the New Testament, Paul says the only unpardonable sin is blasphemy agans the Holy Spirits; against the Father or the Son being not so great a sin.

(Then the demon tried to make the Scribe laugh at Magick, and to think that it was all rubbish, that he might deny the names of God that he had invoked to protect him; which, if he had doubted but for an instant, he had leapt upon him, and gnawed through his spine at the neck.

At this high level of Magick, the names on the circle and triangle must be thoroughly understood.

Choronzon succeed not in his design.)

In this Aethyr is neither beginning nor end, for it is all hotch-potch, because it is of the wicked on earth and the damned in hell. And so long as it be hotch-potch, it mattereth little what may be written by the sea-green incorruptible Scribe.

The horror of it will be given in another place and time, and through another Seer, and that Seer shall be slain as a result of his revealing.
But the present Seer, who is not P... , seeth not the horror, because he is shut up, and hath no name.

(Now was there some further parleying betwixt the demon and the Scribe, concerning the departure and the writing of the word, the Scribe not knowing if it were meet that the demon should depart.

Then the Seer took the Holy Ring, and wrote the name BABALON, that is victory over Choronzon, and he was no more manifest.)

Here, more overtly, we see the two sides of the same coin. The Goddess Babalon is Pan on the one side and Choronzon is the demon on the other.

611 This actually happened. On returning to Bou-Sada on another journey this spot had begun to show signs of vegetation.
(This cry was obtained on Dec. 6, 1909, between 2 and 4:15 p.m., in a lonely valley of fine sand, in the desert near Bou-Sada. The Aethyr was edited and revised on the following day.)

After the conclusion of the Ceremony, a great fire was kindled to purify the place, and the Circle and Triangle were destroyed.

NOTE BY SCRIBE

Almost from the beginning of the ceremony was the Scribe overshadowed, and he spoke as it were in spite of himself, remembering afterwards scarcely a word of his speeches, some of which were long and seemingly eloquent.

All the time he had a sense of being protected from Choronzon, and this sense of security prevented his knowing fear.

Several times did the Scribe threaten to put a curse upon the demon; but ever, before he uttered the words of the curse, did the demon obey him. For himself, he knoweth not the words of the curse.

Also is it meet to record in this place that the Scribe several times whistled in a Magical manner, which never before had he attempted, and the demon was apparently much discomforted thereat.

Now knoweth the Scribe that he was wrong in holding much converse with the demon; for Choronzon, in the confusion and chaos of his thought, is much terrified by silence. And by silence can he be brought to obey.

Silence and Knowledge are two sides of the same coin.

For cunningly doth he talk of many things, going from subject to subject, and thus he misleadeth the wary into argument with him. And though Choronzon be easily beaten in argument, yet, by disturbing the attention of him who would command him, doth he gain the victory.

For Choronzon feareth of all things concentration and silence: he therefore who would command him should will in silence: thus is he brought to obey.

This the Scribe knoweth; for that since the obtaining of the Accursed Tenth Aethyr, he hath held converse with Choronzon. And unexpectedly did he obtain the information he sought after having long refused to answer the demon's speeches.

Choronzon is dispersion; and such is his fear of concentration that he will obey rather than be subjected to it, or even behold it in another. The account of the further dealings of Choronzon with the Scribe will be found in the Record of Omnia Vincam.
The Cry of the 9th Aethyr, Which is Called $\mathcal{P}\mathcal{L}\mathcal{O}^\text{612}$

9. "Malkuth. (The Pure Virgin.) The reward of the Magister Templi."

The Universe as the macro- or greater Ruach or Shekinah; the individual Ruach being its reflection.

(The terrible Curse that is the Call of the Thirty Aethyrs sounds like a song of ecstasy and triumph; every phrase in it has a secret meaning of blessing.)

The Shew-stone is of soft lucent white, on which the Rose-Cross shows a brilliant yet colourless well of light.

And now the veil of the stone is rent with as clap of thunder, and I am walking upon a razor-edge of light suspended over the Abyss, and before me and above me are ranged the terrible armies of the Most High, like unto those in the 11th Aethyr, but there is one that cometh forth to meet me upon the ridge, holding out his arms to me and saying:

v. I

Who is this that cometh forth from the Abyss from the place of rent garments, the habitation of him that is only a name? Who is this that walketh upon a ray of the bright, evening star?

Refrain

Glory unto him that is concealed, and glory unto her that beareth the cup, and glory unto the one that is the child and the father of their love. Glory unto the star, and glory unto the snake, and glory unto the swordsman of the sun. And worship and blessing throughout the Aeon unto the name of the Beast, four-square, mystic, wonderful!

v. II

Who is this that travelleth between the hosts, that is poised upon the edge of the Aethyr by the wings of Maut? Who is this that seeketh the House of the Virgin?

$\text{ZIP} = \mathcal{P}\mathcal{L}\mathcal{O} = \text{ese} = 78$, the influence from the Most High. It is the Virgin Artemis in the midst of the House of the Sun, in his Northern and Southern declinations both. For her girdle is the Girdle of the World. She is the Woman clothed with the Sun in Atu XIV.
v. III

This is he that hath given up his name. This is he whose blood hath been gathered into the cup of BABALON.\(^{613}\) This is he that sitteth, a little pile of dry dust, in the city of the Pyramids.

(Refrain.)

Thge Aethyrs, as stated earlier, are contained by the 4 Watchtowers. Together they are symbolized by the Cup of Babaloon. Perhaps we could say that to pour oneself into the Aethyrs is as to pour oneself into her cup. Working the Enochian system then, is the summit of magickal experience. Crowley certainly proves a success at a Great Work that develops the mythos for humanity at large; as much as this work had a personal benefit for the development of his own initiation. It seems then that each of us could strive to glean our own personal mythos; our personal Dharma (or ‘true will’) from our own skrying of these Aethyrs. Hence this skrying work is the work or an Adeptus Major.

v. IV

Until the light of the Father of all kindle that death.

Until the breath touch that dry dust. Until the Ibis be revealed unto the Crab, and the sixfold Star become the radiant Triangle.\(^{614}\)

(Refrain.)

v. V

Blessed is not I, not thou, not he, Blessed without name or number who hath taken the azure of night, and crystallized it into a pure sapphire-stone, who hath taken the gold of the sun, and beaten it into an infinite ring, and hath set the sapphire therein, and put it upon his finger.

(Refrain.)

v. VI

Open wide your gates, O City of God, for I bring No-one with me. Sink your swords and your spears in salutation, for the Mother and the Babe are my companions. Let the banquet be prepared in the palace of the King's daughter. Let the lights be kindled; Are not we the children of the light?

(Refrain.)

\(^{613}\) BABALON = 156 = 12 x 13, which is the formula of the four watchtowers of the universe. These watchtowers are composed of truncated pyramids, each one concealing a sphinx. They contain the symbols of the energies of the four elements. We may thus say that as each watchtower contains 12 x 13 pyramids, Baboloon is indicated as Shakti. For the elements are the manifested powers of the All-Father. Again we may consider the watchtowers as the "City of the Pyramids" though in a sense less exalted than that usually implied in these visions.

\(^{614}\) Cf. 15th Aire. Note this triangle for 2. It seems very important to note that d(1 + 2) = 3, and so on.
The “palace of the King’s daughter” is an image of the Chemical Wedding.

v. VII

For this is the key-stone of the palace of the King's daughter.
This is the Stone of the Philosophers. This is the Stone that is hidden in the walls of the ramparts. Peace, Peace, Peace unto Him that is throned therein!

(Refrain.)

Now then we are passed within the lines of the army, and we are come unto a palace of which every stone is a separate jewel, and is set with millions of moons.

The palace is Yesod (the ‘foundation’ of the Ruach); where all of the ‘Great Work’ is done.

And this palace is nothing but the body of a woman, proud and delicate, and beyond imagination fair. She is like a child of twelve years old. She has very deep eye-lids, and long lashes. Her eyes are closed, or nearly closed. It is impossible to say anything about her. She is naked; her whole body is covered with fine gold hairs, that are the electric flames that are the spears of mighty and terrible Angels who breast-plates are the scales of her skin. And the hair of her head, that flows down to her feet, is the very light of God himself. Of all the glories beheld by the seer in the Aethyrs, there is not one which is worthy to be compared with her littlest finger-nail. For although he may not partake of the Aethyr, without the ceremonial preparations, even the beholding of this Aethyr from afar is like the partaking of all the former Aethyrs.

This is the Daughter of Light (Nuit) found in Liber Loagaeth. And as shown below, she is also the “daughter of Babalon” and the “Daughter of the King.”

The Seer is lost in wonder, which is peace.

And the ring of the horizon above her is a company of glorious Archangels with joined hands, that stand and sing: This is the daughter of BABALON the Beautiful, that she hath borne unto the Father of All. And unto all hath she borne her.

This is the Daughter of the King. This is the Virgin of Eternity. This is she that the Holy One hath wrested from the Giant Time, and the prize of them that have overcome Space. This is she that is set upon the Throne of Understanding. Holy, Holy, Holy is her name, not to be spoken among men. For Kor they have called her, and Malkuth, and Betulah, and Persephone.
The divine Shekinah.

And the poets have feigned songs about her, and the prophets have spoken vain things, and the young men have dreamed vain dreams; but this is she, that immaculate, the name of whose name may not be spoken. Thought cannot pierce the glory that defendeth her, for thought is smitten dead before her presence. Memory is blank, and in the most ancient books of Magick are neither words to conjure her, nor adorations to praise her.

Will bends like a reed in the temptests that sweep the borders of her kingdom, and imagination cannot figure so much as one petal of the lilies whereon she standeth in the lake of crystal, in the sea of glass.

This is she that hath bedecked her hair with seven stars, the seven breaths of God that move and thrill its excellence. And she hath tired her hair with seven combs, whereupon are written the seven secret names of God that are not known even of the Angels, or of the Archangels, or of the Leader of the armies of the Lord.

7 appears again; hence, the Ruach is still at the center of these visions.

Holy, Holy, Holy art thou, and blessed be Thy name for ever, unto whom the Aeons are but the pulsings of thy blood.

I am blind and deaf. My sight and hearing are exhausted.

I know only by the sense of touch. And there is a trembling from within me.

Images keep arising like clouds, or veils, exquisite Chinese ivories, and porcelains, and many other things of great and delicate beauty; for such things are informed by Her spirit, for they are cast off from her into the world of the Qliphoth, or shells of the dead, that is earth. For every world is the shell or excrement of the world above it.

I cannot bear the Vision.

A voice comes, I know not whence: Blessed art thou, who hast seen, and yet hast not believed. For therefore is it given unto thee to taste, and smell, and feel, and hear, and know by the inner sense, and by the inmost sense, so that sevenfold is thy rapture.

The 7 are then connected to 4 of the senses by which one develops one’s intuition; to “know by the inner sense,” which is the first power of the Sphinx.

(My brain is so exhausted that fatigue-images appear, by pure physical reflex action; they are not astral things at all.
And now I have conquered the fatigue by will. And by placing the shew-stone upon my forehead, it sends cool electric thrills through my brain, so as to refresh it, and make it capable of more rapture.

And now again I behold Her.

And the Angel cometh forth, and behind him whirls a black swastika, made of fine filaments of light that has been "interfered" with, and he taketh me aside into a little chamber in one of the nine towers. This chamber is furnished with maps of many mystical cities. There is a table, and a strange lamp, that gives light by jetting four columns of vortex rings of luminous smoke.615 And he points to the map of the Aethyrs, that are arranged as a flaming Sword, so that the thirty Aethyrs go into the ten Sephiroth.616 And the first nine are infinitely holy. And he says, It is written in The Book of the Law, "If thou drink, drink by the eight and ninety rules of art:" And this shall signify unto thee that thou must undergo great discipline; else the Vision were lost or perverted. For these mysteries pertain not unto thy grade. Therefore must thou invoke the Highest before thou unveil the shrines thereof.

The ‘shut-up’ is 89; the 98 Rules of Art are on the flip side of this coin. Being a vision of the 9th Aethyr, the infinite holiness that is described is from the viewpoint of the angelic consciousness being in this Aethyr with each Aethyr presenting this feeling and found in comments made in several of the visions. 9 is the number of this Aethyr and Yesod is implied by this; being the ‘foundation’ where there are “many mystical cities.” The “table with a strange lamp” is the altar (Earth) and the Magick Lamp (vision of the Divine) expressed by the 4; “four columns of vortex rings of luminous smoke’ that clearly denotes the Aethyrs contained by the 4 Watchtowers, which radiate as “luminous smoke.”

And this shall be thy rule: A thousand and one times shalt thou affirm the unity,617 and bow thyself a thousand and one times. And thou shalt recite thrice the call of the Aethyr. And all day and all night, awake or asleep, shall thy heart be turned as a lotus-flower unto the light. And thy body shall be the temple of the Rosy Cross. Thus shall thy mind be open unto the higher; and then shalt thou be able to conquer the exhaustion, and it may be find the words -- for who shall look upon His face and live?

The body becoming the “temple of the Rosy Cross” is the Adeptus Exemptus becoming his will. And as shown below, this involves the “holy spirit as descended into thy heart.” This is the Gnosis of God in Man (the true central secret of the original Christians and now perverted by them); the ability to see that spark as the Augoeides and find communion with this.

616 This map may not be given to uninitiates.
617 The chapter is this: Qol: Hua Allahu achad; Allahu assamad; lam yalid wa lam yulad; wa lam yakin lahu kufwan achad. Between each recitation, the Seer halted and bowed. This practice was performed during the day’s march, the 1001 recitals being divided into 13 sections (a further affirmation of the unity, for 13 =ACD = 1) with short rests.

Yea, thou tremblest, but from within; because of the holy spirit that is descended into thy heart, and shaketh thee as an aspen in the wind.

They also tremble that are without, and they are shaken from without by the earthquakes of his judgement. They have set their affections upon the earth, and they have stamped with their feet upon the earth, and cried: It moveth not.

Therefore hath earth opened with strong motion, like the sea, and swallowed them. Yea, she hath opened her womb to them that lusted after her, and she hath closed herself upon them. There lie they in torment, until by her quaking the earth is shattered like brittle glass, and dissolved like salt in the waters of his mercy, so that they are cast upon the air to be blown about therein, like seeds that shall take root in the earth; yet turn they their affections upward to the sun.

The above shows Babalon as Gaia; Mother Earth (and Mother of Nuit; cf. Liber Reguli). The paragraph may also be seen as the divine Shekinah descending upon the body.

But thou, be thou eager and vigilant, performing punctually the rule. Is it not written, "Change not so much as the style of a letter"?618

A reference to the Ruach; that even the handwriting is a part of the Obeah & Wanga, as it reflects the personality that is the Soul.

Depart therefore, for the Vision of the Voice of the ninth Aethyr that is called ZIP is passed.

Then I threw back myself into my body by my will 618 Liber AL:1.54 is misquoted here; the actual quote being: “Change not so much as the sthyle of a letter.”

The Cry of the 8th Aethyr, Which is Called ψξ 619

Instruction for 5 = 6 rite².

There appears in the stone a tiny spark of light. It grows a little, and seems almost to go out, and grows again, and it is blown about the Aethyr, and by the wind that blows it is fanned, and now it gathers strength, and darts like a snake or a sword, and now it steadies itself, and is like a Pyramid of light that filleth the whole Aethyr.

And in the Pyramid is one like unto an Angel, yet at the same time he is the Pyramid, and he hath no form because he is of the substance of light, and he taketh not form upon him, for though by him is form visible, he maketh it visible only to destroy it.

And he saith: The light is come to the darkness, and the darkness is made light. Then is light married with light, and the child of their love is that other darkness, wherein they abide that have lost name and form. Therefore did I kindle him that had not understanding, and in The Book of the Law did I write the secrets of truth that are like unto a star and a snake and a sword. 620

And unto him that understandeth at last do I deliver the secrets of truth in such wise that the least of the little children of the light may run to the knees of the mother and be brought to understand.

And thus shall he do who will attain unto the mystery of the knowledge and conversation of his Holy Guardian Angel:

First, let him prepare a chamber, of which the walls and the roof shall be white, and the floor shall be covered with a carpet of black squares and white, and the border thereof shall be blue and gold.

And if it be in a town, the room shall have no window, and if it be in the country, then it is better if the window be in the roof. Or, if it be possible, let this invocation be performed in a temple prepared for the ritual of passing through the Tuat.

From the roof he shall hang a lamp, wherein is a red glass, to burn olive oil. And this lamp shall he cleanse and make ready after the prayer.

of sunset, and beneath the lamp shall be an altar, foursquare, & the height shall be thrice half of the breadth or double the breadth.

And upon the altar shall be a censor, hemispherical, supported upon three legs, of silver, and within it an hemisphere of copper, and upon the top a grating of gilded silver, and thereupon shall he burn incense made of four parts of olibanum and two parts of stacte, and one part of lignum aloes, or of cedar, or of sandal. And this is enough.

And he shall also keep ready in a flask of crystal within the altar, holy anointing oil made of myrrh and cinnamon and galangal.

And even if he be of higher rank than a Probationer, he shall yet wear the robe of the Probationer, for the star of flame showeth forth Ra Hoor Khuit openly upon the breast, and secretly the blue triangle that descendeth is Nuit, and the red triangle that ascendeth is Hadit. And I am the golden Tau in the midst of their marriage. Also, if he choose, he may instead wear a close-fitting robe of shot silk, purple and green, and upon it a cloak without sleeves, of bright blue, covered with golden sequins, and scarlet within.

And he shall make himself a wand of almond wood or of hazel cut by his own hands at dawn at the Equinox, or at the Solstice, or on the day of Corpus Christi, or on one of the feast-days that are appointed in _The Book of the Law_.

And he shall engrave with his own hand upon the plate of gold the Holy Sevenfold Table, or the Holy Twelvefold Table, or some particular device.
And it shall be foursquare within a circle, and the circle shall be winged, and he shall attach it about his forehead by a ribbon of blue silk.

Moreover, he shall wear a fillet of laurel or rose or ivy or rue, and every day, after the prayer of sunrise, he shall burn it in the fire of the censor.

Now he shall pray thrice daily, about sunset, and at midnight, and at sunrise. And if he be able, he shall pray also four times between sunrise and sunset.

The prayer shall last for the space of an hour, at the least, and he shall seek ever to extend it, and to inflame himself in praying. Thus shall he invoke his Holy Guardian Angel for eleven weeks, and in any case he shall pray seven times daily during the last week of the eleven weeks.
And during all this time he shall have composed an invocation suitable, with such wisdom and understanding as may be given him from the Crown, and this shall he write in letters of gold upon the top of the altar.

For the top of the altar shall be of white wood, well polished, and in the centre thereof he shall have placed a triangle of oak-wood, painted with scarlet, and upon this triangle the three legs of the censor shall stand.

Moreover, he shall copy his invocation upon a sheet of pure white vellum, with Indian ink, and he shall illuminate it according to his fancy and imagination, that shall be informed by beauty.

And on the first day of the twelfth week he shall enter the chamber at sunrise, and he shall make his prayer, having first burnt the conjuration that he had made upon the vellum in the fire of the lamp.

Then, at his prayer, shall the chamber be filled with light insufferable for splendour, and a perfume intolerable for sweetness. And his Holy Guardian Angel shall appear unto him, yea, his Holy Guardian Angel shall appear unto him, so that he shall be wrapt away into the Mystery of Holiness.

All that day shall he remain in the enjoyment of the knowledge and conversation of the Holy Guardian Angel.

And for three days after he shall remain from sunrise unto sunset in the temple, and he shall obey the counsel that his Angel shall have given unto him, and he shall suffer those things that are appointed.

And for ten days thereafter shall he withdraw himself as shall have been taught unto him from the fullness of that communion, for he must harmonize the world that is within with the world that is without.

And at the end of the ninety-one days he shall return into the world, and there shall he perform that work to which the Angel shall have appointed him.

And more than this it is not necessary to say, for his Angel shall have entreated him kindly, and showed him in what manner he may be most perfectly involved. And unto him that hath this Master there is nothing else that he needeth, so long as he continue in the knowledge and conversation of the Angel, so that he shall come at last into the City of the Pyramids.

621 There is therefore no commentary to this passage.
Lo! two and twenty are the paths of the Tree, but one is the Serpent of Wisdom; ten are the ineffable emanations, but one is the Flaming Sword.

Behold! There is an end to life and death, an end to the thrusting forth and the withdrawing of the breath. Yea, the House of the Father is a mighty tomb, and in it he hath buried everything whereof ye know.

All this while there hath been no vision, but only a voice, very slow and clear and deliberate. But now the vision returns, and the voice says: Thou shalt be called Danae, that art stunned and slain beneath the weight of the glory of the vision that as yet thou seest not. For thou shalt suffer many things, until thou art mightier than all the Kings of the earth, and all the Angels of the Heavens, and all the gods that are beyond the Heavens. Then shalt thou meet me in equal conflict, and thou shalt see me as I am. And I will overcome thee and slay thee with the red rain of my lightnings.

I am lying underneath this pyramid of light. It seems as if I had the whole weight of it upon me, crushing me with bliss. And yet I know that I am like the prophet that said: I shall see Him, but not nigh.

And the Angel sayeth: So shall it be until they that wake are asleep, and she that sleepeth be arisen from her sleep. For thou art transparent unto the vision and the voice. And therefore in thee they manifest not. But they shall be manifest unto them unto whom thou dost deliver them, according unto to the word which I spake unto thee in the Victorious City.

For I am not only appointed to guard thee, but we are of the blood royal, the guardians of the Treasure-house of Wisdom. Therefore am I called the Minister of Ra Hoor Khuit: and yet he is but the Viceroy of the unknown King. For my name is called Aiwass, that is eight and seventy. And I am the influence of the Concealed One, and the wheel that hath eight and seventy parts, yet in all is equivalent to the Gate that is the name of my Lord when it is spelt fully. And that Gate is the Path that joineth the Wisdom with the Understanding.

Thus hast thou erred indeed, perceiving me in the path that leadeth from the Crown unto the Beauty. For that path bridgeth the abyss, and I am of the supernals. Nor I, nor Thou, nor He can bridge the abyss. It is the Priestess of the Silver Star, and the Oracles of the gods, and the Lord of the Hosts of the Mighty.\textsuperscript{628} For they are the servants of Babalon, and of the Beast, and of those others of whom it is not yet spoken. And, being servants, they have no name, but we are of the blood royal, and serve not, and therefore are we less than they.

Yet, as a man may be both a mighty warrior and a just judge, so may we also perform this service if we have aspired and attained thereto. And yet, with all that, they remain _themselves_, who have eaten of the pomegranate in Hell.\textsuperscript{629} But thou, that art new-born to understanding, this mystery is too great for thee; and of the further mystery I will not speak one word.

Yet for this cause am I come unto thee as the Angel of the Aethyr, striking with my hammer upon thy bell, so that thou mightest understand the mysteries of the Aethyr, and of the vision and the voice thereof.

For behold! he that understandeth seeth not and heareth not in truth, because of his understanding that letteth him.\textsuperscript{630} But this shall be unto thee for a sign, that I will surely come unto thee unawares and appear unto thee. And it is no odds, (_i.e._, that at this hour I appear not as I am), for so terrible is the glory of the vision, and so wonderful is the splendour of the voice, that when thou seest it and hearest it in truth, for many hours shalt thou be bereft of sense. And thou shalt lie between heaven and earth in a void place, entranced, and the end thereof shall be silence, even as it was, not once nor twice, when I have met with thee, as it were, upon the road to Damascus.\textsuperscript{631}

And thou shalt not seek to better this my instruction; but thou shalt interpret it, and make it easy,\textsuperscript{632} for them that seek understanding. And thou shalt give all that thou hast unto them that have need unto this end.\textsuperscript{633}

And because I am with thee, and in thee, and of thee, thou shalt lack nothing. But who lack me, lack all. And I swear unto thee by Him that sitteth upon the Holy Throne, and liveth and reigneth for ever and ever, that I will be faithful unto this my promise, as thou art faithful unto this thine obligation.

Now another voice sounds in the Aethyr, saying: And there was darkness over all the earth unto the ninth hour.

\textsuperscript{628} The paths Gimel, Zayin and H bridge the Abyss. Nothing is said of the path Vau, which also does this. The omission is probably inadvertent.
\textsuperscript{629} See a later note. So the Master Therion is of the root Aleister Crowley, instead of being a Magus de novo.
\textsuperscript{630} All interpretation is, in essence, false, as transplanting one thing from one plane to another.
\textsuperscript{631} It is not fitting to comment on the fulfillment of this prophecy.
\textsuperscript{632} This is being done through the established ways of the Great White Brotherhood.
\textsuperscript{633} This has always been done.
And with that the Angel is withdrawn, and the pyramid of light seems very far off.

And now I am fallen unto the earth, exceeding weary. Yet my skin trembles with the impact of the light, and all my body shakes. And there is a peace deeper than sleep upon my mind. It is the body and the mind that are weary, and I would that they were dead, save that I must bend them to my work.

And now I am in the tent, under the stars.

The Cry of the 7th Aethyr, Which is Called

7. "The Path of Daleth. The Black Brothers."

Babalon as Scarlet Woman; all power coming from the Black and White Brothers...advancement of the Thelemic mythos by reinterpreting Genesis (itself, the foundation of the Qabalah).

The stone is divided, the left half dark, the right half light, and at the bottom thereof is a certain blackness, of three divergent columns. And it seems as if the black and white halves are the halves of a door, and in the door is a little key-hole, in the shape of the Astrological symbol of Venus. And from the key-hole issue flames, blue and green and violet, but without any touch of yellow or red in them. It seems as if there were a wind beyond the door, that is blowing the flame out.

And a voice comes: "Who is he that hath the key to the gate of the evening star?"

And now an Angel cometh and seeketh to open the door by trying many keys. And they are none of any avail. And the same voice saith: "The five and the six are balanced in the word Abrahadabra [Adeptus Minor; $5^6=6^5$], and therein is the mystery disclosed. But the key unto this gate is the balance of the seven and the four [Adeptus Exemptus; $7^4=4^7$]; and of this thou hast not even the first letter. Now there is a word of four letters that containeth in itself all the mystery of the Tetragrammaton, and there is a word of seven letters which it concealeth, and that again concealeth the holy word that is the key of the abyss. And this thou shalt find, revolving it in thy mind.

The Ethical Triad conceals by the 7 (planets) and the 4 (elements) and produces a congealed Soul. Abrahadabra is of course, the formula of Tiphareth, as Babalon is the formula of the Adeptus Exemptus having to pour the entirety of his life force into her Cup.

Hide therefore thine eyes. And I will set my key in the lock, and open it. Yet still let thine eyes be hidden, for thou canst not bear the glory that is within.

So, therefore, I covered mine eyes with my hands. Yet through my hands could I perceive a little of those bowers of azure flame.

And a voice said: It is kindled into fire that was the blue breast of ocean; because this is the bar of heaven, and the feet of the Most High are set thereon.

Blue is the color of the flame that burns off copper, which is the metal of Venus.

Now I behold more fully: Each tongue of flame, each leaf of flame, each flower of flame [suggests a rose], is one of the great love-stories of the world, with all its retinue of mise-en-scene. And now there is a most marvelous rose formed from the flame, and a perpetual rain of lilies and passion-flowers and violets. And there is gathered out of it all, yet identical with it, the form of a woman like the woman in the Apocalypse, but her beauty and her radiance are such that one cannot look thereon, save with sidelong glances. I enter immediately into trance. It seems that it is she of whom it is written, "The fool hath said in his heart 'there is no God.'" But the words are not Ain Elohim, but La (=nay!) and Elohim contracted from 86 to 14, because La is 31, which x 14 is 434, Daleth, Lamed, Tau [the letter Daleth; spelled in full]. This fool is the fool of the Path of Aleph, and sayeth, which is Chokmah, in his heart, which is Tiphereth, that she existeth, in order first that the Wisdom may be joined with the Understanding; and he affirmeth her in Tiphereth that she may be fertile.

COMMENTARY

The number 86 refers to Elohim, the name of the elemental forces. The title is the Sanskrit for That, in its sense of "The Existing". This chapter is an attempt to replace Elohim by a more satisfactory hieroglyph of the elements.

The best attribution of Elohim is Aleph, Air; Lamed, Earth; He, Spirit; Yod, Fire; Mem, Water. But the order is not good; Lamed is not satisfactory for Earth, and Yod too spiritualised a form of Fire. (But see Book 4, part III.)

Paragraphs 1-6. Out of Nothing, Nothing is made. The word Nihil is taken to affirm that the universe is Nothing, and that is now to be analysed. The order of the element is that of Jeheshua. The elements are taken rather as in Nature; N is easily Fire, since Mars is the ruler of Scorpio: the virginity of I suits Air and Water, elements which in Magick are closely interwoven: H, the letter of of breath, is suitable for Spirit; Abrahadabra is called the name of Spirit, because it is cheth: L is Earth, green and fertile, because Venus, the greenness, fertility, and earthiness of things is the Lady of Libra, Lamed.

In paragraph 7 we turn to the so-called Jetziratic attribution of Pentagrammaton, that followed by Dr. Dee, and by the Hindus, Tibetans, Chinese and Japanese. Fire is the Foundation, the central core, of things; above this forms a crust, tormented from below, and upon this condenses the original steam. Around this flows the air, created by Earth and Water through the action of vegetation.

Such is the globe; but all this is a mere strain in the aethyr, AlQHR. Here is a new Pentagrammaton, presumably suitable for another analysis of the elements; but after a different manner. Alpha (A) is Air; Rho (R) the Sun; these are the Spirit and the Son of Christian theology. In the midst is the Father, expressed as Father-and-Mother. I-H (Yod and He), Eta (H) being used to express "the Mother" instead of Epsilon (E), to show that She has been impregnated by the Spirit; it is the rough breathing and not the soft. The centre of all is Theta (Θ), which was originally written as a point in a circle (⊙), the sublime hieroglyph of the Sun in the Macrocosm, and in the Microcosm of the Lingam in conjunction with the Yoni.

This word AlQHR (Aethyr) is therefore a perfect hieroglyph of the Cosmos in terms of Gnostic Theology.

The reader should consult La Messe et ses Mysteres, par Jean 'Marie de V.... (Paris et Nancy, 1844), for a complete demonstration of the incorporation of the Solar and Phallic Mysteries in Christianity.

Contracting from 86 to 14 leaves 72; the number of the Shemhamphorash, which is a name of God. Note that ‘al’ means God and Liber AL could also be called Liber God; it’s key number being 31. This becomes the multiple of the remaining 14, which then gives the number 434. 434 (Daleth; spelled in full & the Empress Atu ☥) is the path that connects Wisdom (Chokmah) with Understanding (Binah) and represents here, the “affirmation” of Babalon in Tiphareth.

It is impossible to describe how this vision changeth from glory unto glory, for at each glance the vision is changed. And this is because she transmitteth the Word to the Understanding, and therefore hath she many forms, and each goddess of love is but a letter of the alphabet of love.

Now, there is a mystery in the word Logos, that containeth the three letters whose analogy hath been shown in the lower heavens, Samech, and Lamed, and Gimel, that are 93, which is thrice 31, and in them are set the two eyes of Horus.\textsuperscript{639} (Ayin means an eye.) For, if it were not so, the arrow could not pierce the rainbow, and there could be no poise in the balance, and the Great Book should never be unsealed. And now the peacock's head is again changed into a woman's head sparkling and coruscating with its own light of gems.

But I look upwards, seeing that she is called the footstool of the Holy One, even as Binah is called His throne. And the whole Aethyr is full of the most wonderful bands of light, --- a thousand different curves and whorls, even as it was before, when I spake mysteries of the Holy Qabalah, and so could not describe it.

Oh, I see vast plains beneath her feet, enormous deserts studded with great rocks; and I see little lonely souls, running helplessly about, minute black creatures like men.\textsuperscript{643} And they keep up a very curious howling, that I can compare to nothing that I have ever heard; yet it is strangely human.

Beasts howling at the wind (Ruach).

And the voice says: These are they that grasped love and clung thereto, praying ever at the knees of the great goddess. These are they that have shut themselves up in fortresses of Love.

Each plume of the peacock is full of eyes, that are at the same time 4 x 7. eternal change. And this explaineth the call of the Aethyrs, the curse that was pronounced in the beginning being but the creation of Sakti. And this mystery is reflected in the legend of the Creation, where Adam represents the Concealed One, for Adam is Temurah of MAD, the Enochian word for God, and Eve, whom he created for love, is tempted by the snake, Nechesh, who is Messiah her child. And the snake is the magical power, which hath destroyed the primordial equilibrium.

The above is a reinterpretation of Genesis; itself, the key qabalistic text. This evolve themythos, as these last pages read; we are seeing that the only perfectionis NOT. However, the imperfection, the lie of existence is thevirtue of involution; without which the evolutionary current or current of resurrection could not be. And it is that current that the White School of Magick operates.

And the garden is the supernal Eden, where is Ayin, 70, the Eye of the Concealed One, and the creative Lingam; and Daleth, love; and Nun the serpent. And therefore this constitution was implicitly in the nature of Eden (cf. AL:1.29, 30), so that the call of the Aethyrs could not have been any other call than that which it is.

But they that are without understanding have interpreted all this askew, because of the Mystery of the Abyss, for there is no Path from Binah unto Chesed; and therefore the course of the Flaming Sword was no more a current, but a spark. And when the Stooping Dragon raised his head unto Dath in the course of that spark, there was, as it were, an explosion, and his head was blasted. And the ashes thereof were dispersed throughout the whole of the 10th Aethyr. And for this, all knowledge is piecemeal, and it is of no value unless it be co-ordinated by Understanding.

And now the form of the Aethyr is the form of a mighty Eagle of ruddy brass. And the plumes are set alight, and are whirled round and round until the whole heaven is blackness with these flying sparks therein.

Now it is all branching streams of golden fire tipped with scarlet at the edges.

And now She cometh forth again, riding upon a dolphin. Now again I see those wandering souls, that have sought restricted love, and have not understood that "the word of sin is restriction."

It is very curious; they seem to be looking for one another or for something, all the time, constantly hurrying about. But they knock up against one another and yet will not see one another, or cannot see one another, because they are so shut up in their cloaks.

And a voice sounds: It is most terrible for the one that hath shut himself up and made himself fast against the universe. For they that sit encamped upon the sea in the city of the Pyramids are indeed shut up. But they have given their blood, even to the last drop, to fill the cup of BABALON.

They have served; despite their will. The Black Brother must become an Adept; for the opportunity to fail the ordeal of the Abyss.

These that thou seest are indeed the Black Brothers, for it is written: "He shall laugh at their calamity and mock them when their fear cometh." And therefore hath he exalted them unto the plane of love.

And yet again it is written: He desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he should turn from his wickedness. Now, if one of these were to cast off his cloak he should behold the brilliance of the lady of the Aethyr; but they will not.

And yet again there is another cause wherefore He hath permitted them to enter thus far within the frontiers of Eden, so that His thought should never swerve from compassion. But do thou behold the brilliance of Love, that casteth forth seven stars upon thine head from her right hand, and crowneth thee with a crown of seven roses. Behold! She is seated upon the throne of turquoise and lapis lazuli, and she is like a flawless emerald, and upon the pillars that support the canopy of her throne are sculptured the Ram, and the Sparrow, and the Cat, and a strange fish. Behold! How she shineth! Behold! How her glances have kindled all these fires that have blown about the heavens! Yet remember that in every one there goeth forth for a witness the justice of the Most High. Is not Libra the House of Venus? And there goeth forth a sickle that shall reap every flower. Is not Saturn exalted in Libra? Daleth, Lamed, Tau.

434 repeated.

And therefore was he a fool who uttered her name in his heart, for the root of evil is the root of breath, and the speech in the silence was a lie.

647 All sacred to Her, in virtue of certain of Her qualities.
648 ג is spelt כה.
Thus is it seen from below by them that understand not. But from above he rejoiceth, for the joy of dissolution is ten thousand, and the pang of birth but a little.\footnote{Cf. AL:I.30}

And now thou shalt go forth from the Aethyr, for the voice of the Aethyr is hidden and concealed from thee because thou hadst not the key of the door thereof, and thine eyes were not able to bear the splendour of the vision. But thou shalt meditate upon the mysteries thereof, and upon the lady of the Aethyr; and it may be by the wisdom of the Most High that the true voice of the Aethyr, that is continual song, may be heard of thee.

Return therefore instantly unto the earth, and sleep not for a while; but withdraw thyself from this matter. And it shall be enough.

Thus then was I obedient unto the voice, and returned into my body.

The Cry of the 6th Aethyr, Which is Called

The lessons of a Major Adept

There cometh into the stone the great Angel whose name is Av, and in him there are symbols which strive for mastery, Sulphur and the Pentagram, and they are harmonized by the Swastika. These symbols are found both in the name of Av and in the name of the Aethyr. Thus he is neither Horus nor Osiris. He is called the radiance of Thoth; and this Aethyr is very hard to understand, for the images form and dissolve more rapidly than lightning. These images are the illusions made by the Ape of Thoth. And this I understand, that I am not worthy to receive the mysteries of this Aethyr. And all this which I have seen (being all the thoughts that I have ever thought) is, as it were, a guardian of the Aethyr.

I seem quite helpless. I am trying all sorts of magical methods of piercing the veil: and the more I strive, the farther away I seem to get from success. But a voice comes now: Must not understanding lie open unto wisdom as the pyramids lie open to the stars?

Accordingly, I wait in a certain magical posture which it is not fitting to disclose, and above me appears the starry heaven of night, and one star greater than all the other stars. It is a star of eight rays. I recognize it as the star in the seventeenth key of the Tarot, as the Star of Mercury. And the light of it cometh from the path of Aleph. And the letter Cheth is also involved in the interpretation of this star, and the paths of he' and vau are the separations which this Star unites. And in the heart of the star is an exceeding splendour,

But Atu IV, The Emperor, refers to $\text{He} = 5$, and he forms $\Phi$, the sign for Sulphur, by the position of his arms and legs. Then harmonizes these, being the fiery thunderbolt, the electric whirling; and also the balance of the elements (its 4 arms) in a Microcosm.

656 Atu XVII has the letter $\text{He}$ in the new Thelemic attribution. The Star is $\Phi$ (Chokmah), for He is the light of Binah, the naked woman of the Atu. (Her arms make the Swastika; it is the sign of the Mourning of Isis. Aleph is the Path through which the light of Kether comes to Chokmah. Cheth is said in the Zohar to interpret $\text{He}$; and Cheth is the Path which conveys the Cup of Binah to the Inferiors. $\Phi$ Unites $\# \gamma$ and $\#$, for they are [Sulphur] and $\text{He}$ (the Kerub of $\Phi$).
a god standing upon the moon, brilliant beyond imagining. It is like unto the vision of the Universal Mercury. But this is the Fixed Mercury, and he' and vau are the perfected sulphur and salt.

We have asserted that the congealing of the Soul fully involves the uniting of the 4 and the 7; and we’ve also seen it asserted in the vision that it is important to congeal ‘wisdom’ and ‘understanding.’ These as Sefiroth indicate the male and the female on the Supernal plane, as an opposite complement to the male and female indicated in the Ethical Triad as Netzach and Hod; connected by Peh (oracularity; cf. Formula of ON). Heh and Vau lead to Chokmah, as Cheth leads to Binah; both originating from Chesed and Geburah, respectively. The remaining Sefirot remaining outside this construct compose the Middle Pillar.

The 8-pointed star is the star of Ashtoreth; consort of Ba’al in the ancient Goddess religion (pantheism). That ‘in the heart of the star is an exceeding splendour,’ we find the 8th Sefira represented; 8 also being the number of infinity (the spiritual plane). This brings the vision to the consideration of the “Fixed Mercury” with the planet Mercury attributed to Hod. The Heh and Vau here are seen as the letters of the Tetragrammaton; not representing the lesser paths in their reappearance in this paragraph, but as Water and Air on the elemental plane (Briah and Yetzirah, as well) and Chokmah and Binah, as these letters are assigned in the Tetragrammaton.

The Formula of Abrahadabra is a part of the Formula of ON, as follows:

8 (The VIIIth) Atu: Attributed to the Hebrew letter Cheth (Chariot Atu) which spelt in full equals 418; Cheth is Cancer opposite Capricorn--the Devil Atu (Shaitan)--on the Zodiac and is the formula of this Aeon of Horus.

J. Edward Cornelius writes in Red Flame Vol. VII:

“According to Qabalists, this card not only portrays our Inner Self but also the ‘conquest of Illusions’, or one’s control over illusions, the very basic tenets of Thelema which enable us to seek our Star.”

This formula is drawn from Silence; Binah, by way of the Chariot (8/418; Silence-the Great Work). The Bud-Will is taken from Tiphareth and all is Sacrificed (Hanged Man) through the Tower (80)...every last drop of blood is given to the Cup of Babalon.

His is the infusing of the lunar current (enegies of N.O.X.) with the solar L.V.X. (semen) which is the transmuted Will or Bud-Will of the operation.

THE VISION OF THE UNIVERSAL MERCURY from the Complete Golden Dawn System of Magick

“We stood upon a dark and rocky cliff that overhung the restless seas. In the sky above us was a certain glorious sun, encircled by that brilliant rainbow, which they of the Path of the Chameleon know.

“I beheld, until the heavens opened, and a form like unto the Mercury of the Greeks (1) descended, flashing like the lightning; and he hovered between the sky and the sea. In his hand was the staff (2) wherewith the eyes of mortals are closed in sleep, and wherewith he also, at will, re-awakeneth the sleeper; and terribly did the globe at its summit dart forth rays. And he bare a scroll whereon was written:

Lumen est in Deo,
Lumine factum
Sive Sol,
Sive Luna
Sive Stellae errantes
Omnia in Lux
Lux in Lumine
Lumen in Centrum, Centrum in Circulo,
Circulo ex Nihilo,
Quid scis, id ens. (3)

E.R.I.T. (7)

In fidelitate et veritate universas ab aeternitate. (8)
Nunc Hora.
Nunc Dies.
Nunc Annus,
Nunc Saeculum, Omnia sunt Unum, et Omnia in Omnibus.
Then Hermes cried aloud, and said:

"I am Hermes Mercurius, the Son of God, the messenger uniting Superiors and Inferiors. I exist not without them, and their union is in me. I bathe in the Ocean. I fill the expanse of Air. I penetrate the depths beneath."

And the Frater who was with me, said unto me:

"Thus is the Balance of Nature maintained, for this Mercury is the beginning of all movement. This He, (10) this She, this IT, is in all things, but hath wings which thou canst not constrain. For when thou sayest 'He is here' he is not here, for by that time he is already away, for he is Eternal Motion and Vibration."

Nevertheless in Mercury must thou seek all things. Therefore not without reason did our Ancient Fratres say that the Great Work was to "Fix the Volatile." There is but one place where he can be fixed, and that is the Centre, a centre exact. "Centrum in trigono centri." (11) The Centre in the triangle of the Centre.

If thine own soul be baseless how wilt thou find a standing point whence to fix the soul of the Universe?

"Christus de Christi,
Mercury de Mercurio,
Per viam crucis,
Per vitam Lucis
Deus te Adjutabitur!" (12)

TRANSLATION OF AND NOTES ON DOCUMENT M
By C. H. FRATER, S.R.M.D.

1. Hermes is Greek, Mercury is Roman.
2. Compare with v. 47 ODYSSEY: "Him promptly obeyed the active destroyer of Argus. Forth sped he, and under his feet he bound his ambrosial sandals. Then, taking his staff wherewith he the eyes of mortals closeth at will, and the sleeper at will reawakens."
3. Translation: The Light is in God, the LVX hath been made into Man. Whether Sun, or Moon, or Wandering Stars, all are in Lux, the Lux in the Light, the Light in the Centre, the Centre in the Circle, the Circle from the Nothingness (Negative or Ain) What thou mayest be (i.e. what thou hast in thyself, the capability of being) that shalt thou be (or become).
5. Ether. Sal. Terrae. (Ether, the Salt of the Earth.)
7. Ether. Ruens. In. Terra. (The Ether rushing into the Earth.)
8. Let it be (or become). It is. Be it so. It shall be (or endure). In Universal faithfulness and truth from eternity. Now an hour, Now a day, Now a year, Now an age, all things are One, and All in All. ETERNITY.
11. This was, I believe, but am not certain, the motto of our Frater Count Adrian a Meynsicht, otherwise known as Henricus Madathanus.
12. The Christ from the Christ. The Mercury from the Mercury, Through the Path of the Cross, Through the life of the Light, God shall be Thy Help.
But now
I come into the centre of the maze, and whirling dust of stars and great forgotten gods. It is the whirling Svastika which throws off all these things, for the Svastika is in aleph by the shape and number, and in beth by the position of the arms of the Magician. because of the sign of the Mourning of Isis, and thus is the Crown defended by these three thunderbolts. Is not thrice seventeen fifty-one, that is, failure and pain?

Now I am shut out again by this black Svastika with a corona of fire about it.

And a voice cries: Cursed be he that shall uncover the nakedness of the Most High, for he is drunken upon the wine that is the blood of the adepts. And BABALON hath lulled him to sleep upon her breast, and she hath fled away, and left him naked, and she hath called her children together, saying: Come up with me, and let us make a mock of the nakedness of the Most High.

And the first of the adepts covered His shame with a cloth, walking backwards; and was white. And the second of the adepts covered His shame with a cloth, walking sideways and was yellow. And the third of the adepts made a mock of His nakedness, walking forwards; and was black. And these are three great schools of the Magi, who are also the three Magi that journeyed unto Bethlehem; and because thou hast not wisdom, thou shalt not know which school prevaleth, or if the three schools be not one.

For the Black Brothers lift not up their heads thus far into the Holy Chokmah, for they were all drowned in the great flood, which is Binah, before the true vine could be planted upon the holy hill of Zion.

The three Schools of Magick are defined. All three schools exist and all three schools serve their function. The the White School answers to the perspective of a few of us does not invalidate the other schools (Black & Yellow) for those that they appeal to.
One should not mistake any school as a representative of evil, but rather, understand the Black Lodge (not a school) to be but blind forces without any vision, which in Gnostic terms might be said to be ‘outside the thought of God.’

Now again I stand in the centre [Tiphareth], and all things whirl [wind; Ruach] by with incessant fury. And the thought of the god entereth my mind, and I cry aloud: Behold, the volatile is become fixed; and in the heart of eternal motion is eternal rest. So is the Peace beneath the sea that rageth with her storms; so is the changeful moon, the dead planet that revolveth no more. So the far-seeing, the far-darting hawk is poised passionless in the blue; so also the ibis that is long of limb meditateth solitary in the sign of Sulphur [indicates the Ruach]. Behold, I stand ever before the Eternal One in the sign of the Enterer. And by virtue of my speech is he wrapped about in silence, and he is wrapped in mystery by me, who am the Unveiler of the Mysteries.

And although I be truth, yet do they call me rightly the God of Lies, for speech is two-fold, and truth is one. Yet I stand at the centre of the spider's web [the light diffuse throughout the Ruach, as discussed in the 24th & 23rd Aethyrs], whereof the golden filaments reach to infinity.

But thou that art with me in spirit-vision art not with me by right of Attainment, and thou canst not stay in this place to behold how I run and return, and who are the flies that are caught in my web. For I am the inmost guardian that is immediately before the shrine.

Crowley’s H.G.A. is speaking through him and informing him. The fact that “thou that are with me in the spirit-vision are not with me by right of Attainment” declares openly that Crowley has not attained any Supernal Grade; but even remains in communication with his angel; only in the spirit vision!

None shall pass by me except he slay me, and this is his curse, that, having slain me, he must take my office and become the maker of Illusions, the great deceiver, the setter of snares; he who baffleth even them that have understanding. For I stand on every path, and turn them aside from the truth by my words, and by my magick arts.

And this is the horror that was shown by the lake that was nigh unto the City of the Seven Hills, and this is the Mystery of the great prophets that have come unto mankind. Moses, and Buddha, and Lao Tan, and Krishna, and Jesus, and Osiris, and Mohammed; for all these attained unto the grade of Magus, and therefore were they bound with the curse of Thoth. But, being guardians of the truth, they have taught nothing but falsehood, except unto such as understood; for the truth may not pass the Gate of the Abyss.

Only the Master of the Temple knows the Truth of the Magus. That Crowley can’t know this shows clearly here that he is neither a Magus, nor an MT at the time of this vision. The Augoeides is informed of this as it is one with the star cast in the heavens that is then reflected down into the Ruach.

672 This name is cunningly slipped in by the Art of the God, for "Jesus" is but the figure-head used by the priests for their "Great Sorcery".
673 See again _Liber Magi_ for this disheartening doctrine.
But the reflection of the truth hath been shown in the lower Sephiroth. And its balance is in Beauty, and therefore have they who sought only beauty come nearest to the truth. For the beauty receiveth directly three rays from the supernals, and the others no more than one.\footnote{674}

Gnosis—this shows how the H.G.A. is informed directly by the godhead (the star cast into the heavens).

So, therefore, they that have sought after majesty and power and victory and learning and happiness and gold, have been discomfited. And these sayings are the lights of wisdom that thou mayst know thy Master, for he is a Magus. And because thou didst eat of the Pomegranate in hell, for half the year art thou concealed, and half the year revealed.\footnote{675}

Now I perceive the Temple that is the heart of this Aethyr;\footnote{676} it is an Urn suspended in the air, without support, above the centre of a well. And the well hath eight pillars, and a canopy above it, and without there is a circle of marble paving-stones, and without them a great outer circle of pillars. And beyond there is the forest of the stars. But the Urn is the wonderful thing in all this; it is made of fixed Mercury; and within it are the ashes of the Book Tarot\footnote{677},\footnote{678} which hath been utterly consumed.

And this is that mystery which is spoken of in the Acts of the Apostles; that Jupiter and Mercury (Kether and Chokmah) visited (that is, inspired), Ephesus, the City of Diana,\footnote{679} Binah --- was not Diana a black stone? -- and they burnt their books of magick.

Now it seems that the centre of infinite space is that Urn, and Hadit is the fire that hath burnt up the book Tarot. For in the book Tarot was preserved all of the wisdom (for the Tarot was called the Book of Thoth), of the Aeon that is passed. And in the Book of Enoch was first given the wisdom of the New Aeon.\footnote{680} And it was hidden for three hundred years, because it was wrested untimely from the Tree of Life by the hand of a desperate magician.\footnote{681}
!!! This also explains more Dee’s motivation. He sought to purify the work; due to his ignorance of the falsity of Jesus. But his superstition did not disrupt his Magick and its goal to talk with God. He made a genuine connection with the divine because despite the ignorance of his cultural conditioning, his heart was strong.

For it was the Master of that Magician who overthrew the power of the Christian church; but the pupil rebelled against the master, for he foresaw that the New (i.e., the Protestant) would be worse than the Old. But he understood not the purpose of his Master, and that was, to prepare the way for the overthrowing of the Aeon.

This like Prospero (the Adeptus Exemptus) breaking his wand in Shakespeare’s Tempest. The Master, understanding that upon his death, he will be withdrawing himself from the current, prepares to destroy that which he built that the next generation might be afforded an opportunity to make its own connection with the divine. This as an adoration unto Nuit:

"For I am divided for love's sake, for the chance of union.—AL:1.29

There is a writing upon the Urn of which I can but read the (two) words: Stabat Crux juxta Lucem. Stabat Lux juxta Crucem.

And there is writing in Greek above that. The word "nox" written in Greek, and a circle with a cross in the centre of it, a St. Andrew's cross.

Then above that is a sigil(?), hidden by a hand.

And a voice proceedeth from the Urn: From the ashes of the Tarot who shall make the phoenix-wand? Not even he who by his understanding hath made the lotus-wand to grow in the Great Sea. Get thee back, for thou art not an Atheist, and though thou have violated thy mother, thou hast not slain thy father. Get thee back from the Urn; thy ashes are not hidden here.

Then again arose the God Thoth, in the sign of the Enterer, and he drove the seer from before his face. And he fell through the starry night unto the little village in the desert.

683 Martin Luther’s magical act of cohabitation with a nun was the key to this doctrine.
684 = NOX = N.O.X.
685 All this required a Magus to see properly.
686 This again means that the Magus 9 = 2 must burn up all his karma.
687 This fact is now maintained openly. As to Atheists see LXV:.34-40. Also 5th Aire; the Magister Templi is already being subtly prepared to attain to be a Magus.

5. "The Vision of the Middle Pillar. (Arrow). The Mystery Of Atheism."

Kether is the tip of the Arrow; Tiphareth its shaft (hence the nature of the Beast, as the Sun at Tiphareth) and Malkuth is the “wedge”—the star to point the way to the mysteries; being that which the mythological three Magi followed to the Christ Child (Tiphareth)—the shaft is the Aspiration; built from the Star (wedge).

There is a shining pylon, above which is set the sigil of the eye, within the shining triangle. Light streams through the pylon from before the face of Isis-Hathor, for she weareth the lunar crown of cows' horns, with the disk in the centre; at her breast she beareth the child Horus.

And there is a voice: thou knowest not how the Seven was united with the Four; much less then canst thou understand the marriage of the Eight and the Three. Yet there is a word wherein these are made one, and therein is contained the Mystery that thou seekest, concerning the rending asunder of the veil of my Mother.

Uniting the 7 with the 4 is both the congealing of the Soul and the attainment that exempts the Exempt Adept; having completed the work. So also is it the Grade formula. And there, the “Eight and the Three” shows the Grade of Magister Templi that the Seer cannot understand; being not of Understanding and not of Binah..

Now there is an avenue of pylons (not one alone), steep after steep, carved from the solid rock of the mountain; and that rock is a substance harder than diamond, and brighter than light, and heavier than lead. In each pylon is seated a god. There seems an endless series of these pylons. And all the gods of all the nations of the earth are shown, for there are many avenues, all leading to the top of the mountain.

In other words, as stated in the commentary to the previous Aethry, all three schools of Magick are beyond the classification of good and evil.

Now I come to the top of the mountain, and the last pylon opens into a circular hall, with other pylons leading out of it, each of which is the last pylon of a great avenue; there seem to be nine such pylons. And in the centre is a shrine, a circular table, supported by marble figures of men and women, alternate white and black; they face inwards, and their buttocks are almost worn away by the kisses of those who have come to worship that supreme God, who is the single end of all these diverse religions. But the shrine itself is higher than a man may reach.

These gods getting their asses kissed is symbolic of the slave god as supreme egotist. These are each those that have ‘failed’ the ordeal of the Abyss. Instead of seeing God in everyone and everything, they only find God in themselves; hence, they face inwards, as they are obsessed with their own narcissism.

But the Angel that was with me lifted me, and I saw that the edge of the altar, as I must call it, was surrounded by holy men. Each has in his right hand a weapon --- one a sword, one a spear, one a thunderbolt, and so on, but each with his left hand gives the sign of silence.

I am the Lord of the Double Wand of Power; the wand of the Force of Coph Nia-but my left hand is empty, for I have crushed an Universe; & nought remains.—AL:III.72

I wish to see what is within their ring. One of them bends forward so that I may whisper the pass-word. The Angel prompts me to whisper: "There is no god." So they let me pass, and though there was indeed nothing visible therein, yet there was a very strange atmosphere, which I could not understand.

I am alone: there is no God where I am.".—AL:II.23

Suspended in the air there is a silver star, and on the forehead of each of the guardians there is a silver star.691 It is a pentagram, --- because, says the Angel, three and five are eight; three and eight are eleven. (There is another numerical reason that I cannot hear.)

And as I entered their ring, they bade me stand in their circle, and a weapon was given unto me. And the pass-word that I had given seems to have been whispered round from one to the other, for each one nods gravely as if in solemn acquiescence, until the last one whispers the same words in my ears. But they have a different sense. I had taken them to be a denial of the existence of God, but the man who says them to me evidently means nothing of the sort: What he does mean I cannot tell at all. He slightly emphasized the word "there."692

These slave gods need to be denied; indeed, they are denying themselves. In other words, they are serving despite their wills. By insisting their is no god, they are stating that God is NOT.

691 The Star of the A.'A.'.
692 Possibly the meaning is: In the Shrine seek not for God. For He is everywhere. But in such a place as this all possible meanings are equally true.
And now all is suddenly blotted out, and instead appears the Angel of the Aethyr. He is all in black, burnished black scales, just edged with gold. He has vast wings, with terrible claws on the ends, and he has a fierce face, like a dragon's, and dreadful eyes that pierce one through an through.

And he says: O thou that art so dull of understanding, when wilt thou begin to annihilate thyself in the mysteries of the Aethyrs? For all that thou thinkest is but thy thought; and as there is no god in the ultimate shrine, so there is no I in thine own Cosmos.

That the Seer is told he is “dull of understanding,” we have again, evidence that he has not yet attained to the Grade of Magister Templi.

They that have said this are of them that understood. And all men have misinterpreted it, even as thou didst misinterpret it. He says some more: I cannot catch it properly, but it seems to be to the effect that the true God is equally in all the shrines, and the true I in all the parts of the body and the soul. He speaks with such a terrible roaring that it is impossible to hear the words; one catches a a phrase here and there, or a glimpse of the idea. With every word he belches forth smoke, so that the whole Aethyr becomes full of it.

The true God is infinite and equally in everything; especially all the parts of the body. And also are then, all prophets true; per AL:I.56.

And now I hear the Angel: Every particle of matter that forms the smoke of my breath is a religion that hath flourished among the inhabitants of the worlds. Thus are they all whirled forth in my breath.

His breath is his Soul/Ruach; the voice of prophecy.

Now he is giving a demonstration of this Operation. And he says: Know thou that all the religions of all the worlds end herein, but they are only the smoke of my breath, and I am only the head of the Great Dragon that eateth up the Universe; without whom the Fifth Aethyr would be perfect, even as the first. Yet unless he pass by me, can no man come unto the perfections.

And the rule is ended that hath bound thee, and this shall be thy rule: that thou shalt purify thyself, and anoint thyself with perfume; and thou shalt be in the sunlight, the day being free from clouds. And thou shalt make the Call of the Aethyr in silence.

Now, then, behold how the head of the dragon is but the tail of the Aethyr! Many are they that have fought their way from mansion to mansion of the Everlasting House, and beholding me at last have returned, declaring, "Fearful is the aspect of the Mighty and Terrible One." Happy are they that have known me for whom I am. And glory unto him that hath made a gallery of my throat for his arrow of truth, and the moon for his purity. 694

The moon waneth. The moon waneth. The moon waneth. For in that arrow is the Light of Truth that overmastereth the light of the sun, whereby she shines. The arrow is fledged with the plumes695 of Maat, that are the plumes of Amoun, and the shaft is the phallus of Amoun, the Concealed One. And the barb696 thereof is the star that thou sawest in the place where was No God.

And of them that guarded the star, there was not found one worthy to wield the Arrow. And of them that worshipped there was not found one worthy to behold the Arrow. Yet the star that thou sawest was but the barb of the Arrow, and thou hadst not the wit to grasp the shaft, or the purity to divine the plumes. Now therefore is he blessed that is born under the sign of the Arrow,697 and blessed is he that hath the sigil of the head of the crowned lion and the body of the Snake and the Arrow therewith.698

Those “that guarded the star” would be those that carried the Gnosis, which starts in this story with Dee & Kelly, of whom at the end of the 6th Aethyr, we are told had wrested this information too early; that they didn’t understand the revelation. Indeed, once they realized that they had opened the gate for Babalon, they shrieked in horror and immediately abandoned the work.

The “crowned lion” with the “body of the Snake” seems an allusion to Hell’s own worm; per AL:II.63, which Crowley says referst to Hadit. And per the above rendering of ‘no god where I am,’ we find this second reference to Hadit; the center and core of Crowley’s being at Tiphareth.

Yet do thou distinguish between the upward and the downward Arrows, for the upward arrow is straitened in its flight, and it is shot by a firm hand, for Jesod is Jod Tetragrammaton, and Jod is a hand, but the downward arrow is shot by the topmost point of the Jod; and that Jod is the Hermit, and it is the minute point that is not extended, that is nigh unto the heart of Hadit.

It seems that from this, we find the instruction in the A.‘A.‘. for the Probationer to choose whether to place the Tau on his robe in an upright or averse position. From the text, we can see that if he chooses the Tau to point down, he is of the Grade of the Hermit in the path before him. And if pointing up, the path before him brings him to the Grade of Lover. But what of the Grade of Man of Earth?

And now it is commanded thee that thou withdraw thyself from the Vision, and on the morrow, at the appointed hour, shall it be given thee further, as thou goest upon thy way, meditating this mystery. And thou shalt summon the Scribe, and that which shall be written, shall be written.

Therefore I withdraw myself, as I am commanded.

The Desert Between Benshrur and Tolga.
December 12, 1909, 7 - 8:12 p.m.

Now then art thou approached unto an august Arcanum; verily thou art come unto the ancient Marvel, the winged light, the Fountains of Fire, the Mystery of the Wedge. But it is not I that can reveal it, for I have never been permitted to behold it, who am but the watcher upon the threshold of the Aethyr. My message is spoken, and my mission is accomplished. And I withdraw myself, covering my face with my wings, before the presence of the Angel of the Aethyr.

So the Angel departed with bowed head, folding his wings across.

And there is a little child in a mist of blue light; he hath golden hair, a mass of curls, and deep blue eyes. Yea, he is all golden, with a living, vivid gold. And in each hand he hath a snake; in the right hand a red, in the left a blue. And he hath red sandals, but no other garment.

Again the appearance of the Magickal Child (cf. Liber Magicum Puerum) as a symbol of the Holy Guardian Angel.

And he sayeth: is not life a long initiation unto sorrow? And is not Isis the Lady of Sorrow? And she is my mother. Nature is her name, and she hath a twin sister Nephthys, whose name is Perfection. And Isis must be known of all, but of how few is Nephthys known! Because she is dark, therefore is she feared.

Nephthys is death, as Isis is re-birth in the 5th Dynasty texts of ancient Egypt. Death, as indicated here is a perfecting process in the conservation of energy. (cf. Scientific Illuminism).

702 He is spoken of in the earlier part as if he were himself the Angel of the Aethyr; this is the error of the Seer.
703 i.e. He is a God.
But thou who hast adored her without fear, who hast made thy life an initiation into her Mystery, thou that hast neither mother nor father, nor sister nor brother, nor wife nor child, who hast made thyself lonely as the hermit crab that is in the waters of the Great Sea, behold! when the sistrons are shaken, and the trumpets blare forth the glory of Isis, at the end thereof there is silence, and thou shalt commune with Nephthys.

And having known these, there are the wings of Maut the Vulture. Thou mayest draw to an head the bow of thy magical will; thou mayest loose the shaft and pierce her to the heart. I am Eros. Take then the bow and the quiver from my shoulders and slay me; for unless thou slay me, thou shalt not unveil the Mystery of the Aethyr.

Therefore I did as he commanded; in the quiver were two arrows, one white, one black. I cannot force myself to fit an arrow to the bow.

And there came a voice: It must needs be.

And I said: No man can do this thing.

And the voice answered, as it were an echo: _Nemo hoc facere potest_.

Then came understanding to me, and I took forth the Arrows. The white arrow had no barb, but the black arrow was barbed like a forest of fish-hooks; it was bound round with brass, and it had been dipped in deadly poison. Then I fitted the white arrow to the string, and I shot it against the heart of Eros, and though I shot with all my force, it fell harmlessly from his side. But at that moment the black arrow was thrust through mine own heart. I am filled with fearful agony.

The Dark Night of the Soul.

And the child smiles, and says: Although thy shaft hath pierced me not, although the envenomed barb hath struck thee through, yet I am slain, and thou livest and triumphest, for I am thou and thou art I.

This suggests Crowley’s Grade as the Lover.

With that he disappears, and the Aethyr splits with a roar as of ten thousand thunders. And behold, The Arrow! The plumes of Maat are its crown, set about the disk. It is the Ateph crown of Thoth, and there is the shaft of burning light, and beneath there is a silver wedge.

704 The Mother Goddess behind even such lofty ideas as Isis and Nephthys.
705 This is then the Child of Atu VI, pertaining to ♒ ♒ is opposite to {Sagittarius} in the Zodiac; their symbols are therefore complementary.
I shudder and tremble at the vision, for all about it are whorls and torrents of tempestuous fire. The stars of heaven are caught in the ashes of the flame. And they are all dark. That which was a blazing sun is like a speck of ash. And in the midst the Arrow burns!

I see that the crown of the Arrow is the Father of all Light, and the shaft of the Arrow is the Father of all Life, and the barb of the Arrow is the Father of all Love. For that silver wedge is like a lotus flower, and the Eye within the Ateph Crown crieth: I watch. And the Shaft crieth: I work. And the Barb crieth: I wait. And the Voice of the Aethyr echoeth: It beams. It burns. It blooms.

The arrow seems an analogy for the three Grades of AL; the “Father of Light” is the Hermit and the “Father of all Life” is the Man of Earth, the “Father of all Love” being the Grade of Lover.

And now there cometh a strange thought; this Arrow is the source of all motion; it is infinite motion, yet it moveth not, so that there _is_ no motion. And therefore there is no matter. This Arrow is the glance of the Eye of Shiva. But because it moveth not, the universe is not destroyed. The universe is put forth and swallowed up in the quivering of the plumes of Maat, that are the plumes of the Arrow; but those plumes quiver not.

And a voice comes: That which is above is _not_ like that which is below.

And another voice answers it: That which is below is _not_ like that which is above.

And a third voice answers these two: What is above and what is below? For there is the division that divideth not, and the multiplication that multiplieth not. And the One is the many. Behold, this Mystery is beyond understanding, for the winged globe is the crown, and the shaft is the wisdom, and the barb is the understanding. And the Arrow is one, and thou art lost in the Mystery, who art but as a babe that is carried in the womb of its mother, that art not yet ready for the light.

These three voices seem to work as if the dialectic of the Supernal Triad.

And the vision overcometh me. My sense is stunned; my sight is blasted; my hearing is dulled.

706 These are the words of a certain grade of A.'.A.'.
707 Cf. 11th Aire.
708 An essential mystery of Thelema. Let it be studied well!
And a voice cometh: Thou didst seek the remedy of sorrow; therefore all sorrow is thy portion. This is that which is written: "God hath laid upon him the iniquity of us all." For as thy blood is mingled in the cup of BABALON, so is thine heart the universal heart. Yet is it bound about with the Green Serpent, the Serpent of Delight.

It is shown me that this heart is the heart that rejoiceth, and the serpent is the serpent of Death for herein all the symbols are interchangeable, for each one containeth in itself its own opposite. And this is the great Mystery of the Supernals that are beyond the Abyss. For below the Abyss, contradiction is division; but above the Abyss, contradiction is Unity. And there could be nothing true except by virtue of the contradiction that is contained in itself.

Thou canst not believe how marvelous is this vision of the Arrow. And it could never be shut out, except the Lords of Vision troubled the waters of the pool, the mind of the Seer. But they send forth a wind that is a cloud of Angels, and they beat the water with their feet, and little waves splash up--- they are memories. For the seer hath no head; it is expanded into the universe, a vast and silent sea, crowned with the stars of night.

Yet in the very midst thereof is the arrow. Little images of things that were, are the foam upon the waves. And there is a contest between the Vision and the memories. I prayed unto the Lords of Vision, saying: O my Lords, take not away this wonder from my sight.

And they said: It must needs be. Rejoice therefore if thou hast been permitted to behold, even for a moment, this Arrow, the austere, the august. But the vision is accomplished, and we have sent forth a great wind against thee. For thou canst not penetrate by force, who hast refused it; nor by authority, for thou hast trampled it under foot. Thou art bereft of all but understanding, O thou that art no more than a little pile of dust!

That the Seer is said to be “no more than a little pile of dust,” on the one hand, is Christian imagery: ‘earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust.’ But of course, this is also an allusion to the form one must take in order to secure passage across the Abyss. The “wind against thee” is the Ruach itself and the perfection of the identity that no sooner than fully attained, must be completely abandoned.

713 His Kether is dissolved in Ain Soph.
714 The arrow persists for it is the direction of Energy, the Will that createth all Becoming.
And the images rise up against me and constrain me, so that the Aethyr is shut against me. Only the things of the mind and of the body are open unto me. The shew-stone is dull, for that which I see therein is but a memory.

The Cry of the 4th Aethyr, Which is Called \( \odot \times \odot \)^{715}

4. "The Marriage of Yod and He. (The common Tibetan Symbol.)
The Seer identifies himself with it."

The work of the Major Adept in his office.

The Stone is translucent and luminous, and no images enter therein.

A voice says: Behold the brilliance of the Lord, whose feet are set upon him that pardoneth transgression. Behold the six-fold Star that flameth in the Vault, the seal of the marriage of the great White King and his black slave.\(^{716}\)

So I looked into the Stone, and beheld the six-fold Star: the whole Aethyr is as tawny clouds, like the flame of a furnace. And there is a mighty host of Angels, blue and golden, that throng it, and they cry: Holy, Holy, Holy art thou, that art not shaken in the earthquakes, and in the thunders! The end of things is come upon us; the day of be-with-us is at hand! For he hath created the universe, and overthrown it, that he might take his pleasure thereupon.

The “day of be-with-us” appears in Liber Cheth as either the traversal of the Abyss itself or the arrival at the City of the Pyramids...or even that it is the formula by which one is tested in the Abyss. That the host of angels in this Aethyr are of the two principal colors of the Magickal Childe, we have a communion of Adepts present and all adoring the One.

And now, in the midst of the Aethyr, I beheld that god.

He hath a thousand arms, and in each hand is a weapon of terrible strength. His face is more terrible than the storm, and from his eyes flash lightnings of intolerable brilliance. From his mouth run seas of blood. Upon his head is a crown of every deadly thing. Upon his forehead is the upright tau, and on either side of it are the signs of blasphemy. And about him clingeth a young girl, like unto the king's daughter that appeareth in the ninth Aethyr. But she is become rosy by reason of his force, and her purity hath tinged his black with blue.

This as commented on in the 9th Aethyr is the Daughter of Light; Nuit. But also “she is become rosy”—as if to show the duality in the gendering of the H.G.A.—the effeminate nature that is often ascribed to the personality of Tiphareth. We have \(^{715}\) \( \text{PAZ} = \odot \odot \odot \). This \( \odot = 7 \) = Atu V, The Hierophant. He is Microprosopus, the Demiurge, appearing in the House of the Sun. Cf. the 9th Aire, where His Bride is similarly placed.

\(^{716}\) This is common Alchemical symbolism; it occurs also in Tibetan mythology. The meaning is always the same; that here stated.
seen this golden and blue-eyed Magickal Childe as a feminization and here we can expand this speculation to the idea of a crystallization of the star-force that is Nuit as a fabric of stars brought to connection with asar un nefer by way of the Augoeides. The totality of this experience is called the Knowledge & Conversation of Thine Holy Guardian Angel—that Augoeides or starry force that is the connection of the self with the Universal Mind.

They are clasped in a furious embrace, so that she is torn asunder by the terror of the god; yet so tightly clingeth she about him, that he is strangled. She hath forced back his head, and his throat is livid with the pressure of her fingers. Their joint cry is an intolerable anguish, yet it is the cry of their rapture, so that every pain, and every curse, and every bereavement, and every death of everything in the whole universe, is but one little gust of wind in that tempest-scream [Logos coming forth into the Ruach] of ecstasy [copulation].

The pain is effort and action; ‘to do’—all in the opposite direction of peace, which is stillness. Therefore, is it war; cf. AL:III.3. This also is the vigor of Ra-Hoor-Khuit; cf. AL:III.17.

The voice thereof is not articulate. It is in vain to seek comparison. It is absolutely continuous, without breaks or beats. If there seem to be vibration therein, it is because of the imperfection of the ears of the seer.

And there cometh an interior voice, which sayeth to the seer that he hath trained his eyes well and can see much; and he hath trained his ears a little, and can hear a little; but his other senses hath he trained scarcely at all, and therefore the Aethyrs are almost silent to him on those planes. By the senses are meant the spiritual correlations of the senses, not the physical senses. But this matters little, because the Seer, so far as he is a seer, is the expression of the spirit of humanity. What is true of him is true of humanity, so that even if he had been able to receive the full Aethyrs, he could not have communicated them.

As the “spirit of humanity,” he is the ‘Son of Man’—another attribute of the Tiphareth consciousness. This is his office as avatar; his Dharma and the Seer’s obligation.

And an Angel speaks: Behold, this vision is utterly beyond thine understanding. Yet shalt thou endeavour to unite thyself with the dreadful marriage-bed.

717 This all refers to "Love under will," the Law by which the universe proceeds.
718 He is 666, the Angel of Tiphereth, the Middle Kingdom of the Sephiroth, Mankind.
The symbol of “the dreadful marriage-bed” is an expression of the warrior consciousness of Ra-Hoor-Khuit. His war engine is pure vigor and that force, which ultimately will propel one’s essence across the Abyss. It is this force which inaugurates the apocalyptic jihad with the Self.

So I am torn asunder, nerve from nerve and vein from vein, and more intimately—cell from cell, molecule from molecule, and atom from atom, and at the same time all crushed together. Write down that the tearing asunder is a crushing together. All the double phenomena are only two ways of looking at a single phenomenon; and the single phenomenon is Peace. There is no sense in my words or in my thoughts. "Faces half-formed arose." This is the meaning of that passage; they are attempts to interpret Chaos, but Chaos is Peace.

Cosmos is the War of the Rose and the Cross. That was "a half-formed face" that I said then. All images are useless.

Blackness, blackness intolerable, before the beginning of the light. This is the first verse of Genesis. Holy art thou, Chaos, Chaos, Eternity, all contradictions in terms!

Oh, blue! blue! blue! whose reflection in the Abyss is called the Great One of the Night of Time; between ye vibrateth the Lord of the Forces of Matter.

O Nox, Nox qui celas infamiam infandi nefandi, Deo solo sit laus qui dedit signum non scribendum. Laus virginii cuius stuprum tradit salutem.

This shows the N.O.X. to be also Malkuth; by way of the Yesod Da’ath connection. The “unutterable [and] abominable” is the state of there being ‘no god where I am.’ Again, the absense of the slave-god, Jehovah is the state of abomination. That this unutterable god should be put up in the Holy of Holies descrives it as an abmonination; the liberating force of Ra-Hoor-Khuit.

O Night, that givest suck from thy paps to sorcery, and theft, and rape, and gluttony, and murder, and tyranny, and to the nameless Horror, cover us, cover us, cover us from the Rod of Destiny; for Cosmos must come, and the balance be set up where there was no need of balance, because there was no injustice, but only truth. But when the balances are equal, scale matched with scale, then will Chaos return.

When all is again equilibrated, it will then be annihilated (+1) + (-1) = 0. This happens to the individual as it does for the race; as it does for the Universe.

719 Again the logic of the Supernals.
720 It is "Love under will", which unites them.
721 Lat., “O Night, Night, who hidest the infamy of the unutterable [and] abominable, praise be to God alone who gave the sign that must not be written. Praise to the virgin whose violation yieldeth health.”
722 Chaos is the Great Father, in one particular aspect.
Yea, as in a looking-glass, so in thy mind, that is backed with the false metal of lying, is every symbol read averse. Lo! everything wherein thou hast trusted must confound thee, and that thou didst flee from was thy saviour. So therefore didst thou shriek in the Black Sabbath when thou didst kiss the hairy buttocks of the goat [Baphomet], when the gnarled god tore thee asunder, when the icy cataract of death swept thee away.

Shriek, therefore, shriek aloud; mingle the roar of the gored lion and the moan of the torn bull, and the cry of the man that is torn by the claws of the Eagle, and the scream of the Eagle that is strangled by the hands of the Man. Mingle all these in the death-shriek of the Sphinx, for the blind man hath profaned her mystery. Who is this, Oedipus, Tiresias, Erinyes? Who is this, that is blind and a seer, a fool above wisdom? Whom do the hounds of heaven follow, and the crocodiles of hell await? Aleph, vau, yod, ayin, resh, tau, is his name.

These paths seem to trace the image of the Big Dipper...

The Big Dipper, also known as the Plough or the Plough Oxen is certainly an allusion to the Fool Atu. It is an asterism of seven stars; being the brightest in the constellation of Ursa Major.

These seven stars (septentriōnēs, from the phrase septem triōnēs, meaning "seven plough oxen") meaning "north."—the root derivation indicating a "threshing ox", as the seven stars (oxen) perpetually wheel about the pole star like oxen on a threshing floor.

Beneath his feet is the kingdom, and upon his head the crown. He is spirit and matter; he is peace and power; in him is Chaos and Night and Pan, and upon BABALON his concubine, that hath made him drunk upon the blood of the saints that she hath gathered in her golden cup, hath he begotten the virgin that now he doth deflower. And this is that which is written: Malkuth shall be uplifted and set upon the throne of Binah.

And this is the stone of the philosophers that is set as a seal upon the tomb of Tetragrammaton, and the elixir of life that is distilled from the blood of the saints, and the red powder that is the grinding-up of the bones of Choronzon.

Terrible and wonderful is the Mystery thereof, O thou Titan that hast climbed into the bed of Juno! Surely thou art bound unto, and broken upon, the wheel; yet hast thou uncovered the nakedness of the Holy One, and the Queen of Heaven is in travail of child, and his name shall be called Vir, and Vis, and Virus, and Virtus, and Viridis, in one name that is all these, and above all these.

Desolate, desolate is the Aethyr, for thou must return unto the habitations of the Owl and the Bat, unto the Scorpions of the sand, and the blanched eyeless beetles that have neither wing nor horn. Return, blot out the vision, wipe from thy mind the memory thereof; stifle the fire with green wood; consume the Sacrament; cover the Altar; veil the Shrine; shut up the Temple and spread booths in the market place; until the appointed time come when the Holly One shall declare unto thee the Mystery of the Third Aethyr.

Yet be thou wake and ware, for the great Angel Hua [Guardian of the TARO (4)] is about thee, and overshadoweth thee, and at any moment he may come upon thee unawares. The voice of PAZ is ended.

The Cry of the 3rd Aethyr, Which is Called ZON

New Gnosis: Nature of Choronzon.

There is an angry light in the stone; now it is become clear.

In the centre is that minute point of light which is the true Sun, and in the circumference is the Emerald Snake. And joining them are the rays which are the plumes of Maat, and because the distance is infinite, therefore are they parallel from the circumference, although they diverge from the centre.

The “Emerald Snake” appeared in the 20th Aethyr as the rim of the Wheel in the Fortune Atu; suggesting Jupiter (and Chesed).

In all this is no voice and no motion.

And yet it seems that the great Snake feedeth upon the plumes of Truth as upon itself, so that it contracteth. But ever so little as it contracteth, without it gloweth the golden rim, which is that minute point in the centre.

And all this is the sigil of the Aethyr, gold and azure and green. Yet also these are the Severities.

Severity is opposite Jupiter/Chesed on the Tree-of-Life.

It is only in the first three Aethyrs that we find the pure essence, for all the other Aethyrs are but as Malkuth to complete these three triads, as hath before been said. And this being the second reflection, therefore is it the palace of two hundred and eighty judgments.

The fact that the first 23 Aethyrs are considered as Makluth explains why the 4 rings throughout the Aethyrs. The Ruach is the “second reflection” (Yetzirah) with Briah as the first reflection.

729 The last three Aethyrs are so tremendously sublime that comment is only too likely to mar the effect upon the reader. They must be read as masterpieces of Art, and their full magical import apprehended as such. This remark, indeed applies to the whole series, though not so formidable. The proper way is first to study the book in detail, so as to assimilate perfectly its intellectual content, and then to read it (so to say) ceremonially.

730 ZON. ΩΩΩ, The Sun, the Balance, and the Snake. See text of Aire.

731 Cf. the doctrine of the Snake Ananta.

732 The letters of Judgment, those that have a final form, μηθυξε, all add to 280.
For all these paths are in the course of the Flaming Sword from the side of Severity. And the other two paths are Zayin, which is a sword; and Shin, which is a tooth. These are then the five severities which are 280.

280 is also the value of the name of the archangel of Malkuth (Sandalphon) and the value of the word for terror.

All this is communicated to the Seer interiorly.

"And the eye of His benignancy is closed. Let it not be opened upon the Aethyr, lest the severities be mitigated, and the house fall." Shall not the house fall, and the Dragon sink?

There are four gates to one palace; the floor of that palace is of silver and gold; lapis lazuli & jasper are there; and all rare scents; jasmine & rose, and the emblems of death. Let him enter in turn or at once the four gates; let him stand on the floor of the palace. Will he not sink? Amn. Ho! warrior, if thy servant sink? But there are means and means. Be goodly therefore: dress ye all in fine apparel; eat rich foods and drink sweet wines and wines that foam! Also, take your fill and will of love as ye will, when, where and with whom ye will! But always unto me.—AL:1.51

Verily all things have been swallowed up in destruction; and Chaos hath opened his jaws and crushed the Universe as a Bacchanal crusheth a grape between her teeth. Shall not destruction swallow up destruction, and annihilation confound annihilation?

Cf. LXV:1.50-64

50. Adonai spake yet again with V.V.V.V.V. and said: The earth is ripe for vintage; let us eat of her grapes, and be drunken thereon.
51. And V.V.V.V.V. answered and said: O my lord, my dove, my excellent one, how shall this word seem unto the children of men?
52. And He answered him: Not as thou canst see. It is certain that every letter of this cipher hath some value; but who shall determine the value? For it varieth ever, according to the subtlety of Him that made it.
53. And He answered Him: Have I not the key thereof? I am clothed with the body of flesh; I am one with the Eternal and Omnipotent God.
54. Then said Adonai: Thou hast the Head of the Hawk, and thy Phallus is the Phallus of Asar. Thou knowest the white, and thou knowest the black, and thou knowest that these are one. But why seest thou the knowledge of their equivalence?
55. And he said: That my Work may be right.
56. And Adonai said: The strong brown reaper swept his swathe and rejoiced. The wise man counted his muscles, and pondered, and understood not, and was sad. Reap thou, and rejoice!
57. Then was the Adept glad, and lifted his arm. Lo! an earthquake, and plague, and terror on the earth! A casting down of them that sate in high places; a famine upon the multitude!

733 Several planets (Sun, Balance or Maat), the Sun, the Balance or plumes of Maat, and the Snake. Added they make 280.
734 Note this. If the Seer had seen this vision truly, he should have become a Magus right then. The vision following was really a Guard to the Aethyr.
58. And the grape fell ripe and rich into his mouth.
59. Stained is the purple of thy mouth, O brilliant one, with the white glory of the lips of Adonai.
60. The foam of the grape is like the storm upon the sea; the ships tremble and shudder; the shipmaster is afraid.
61. That is thy drunkenness, O holy one, and the winds whirl away the soul of the scribe into the happy haven.
62. O Lord God! let the haven be cast down by the fury of the storm! Let the foam of the grape tincture my soul with Thy light!
63. Bacchus grew old, and was Silenus; Pan was ever Pan for ever and ever more throughout the eons.
64. Intoxicate the inmost, O my lover, not the outermost!

Twenty and two [Greater Paths on the Tree-of-Life] are the mansions of the House of my Father, but there cometh an ox that shall set his forehead against the House, and it shall fall. For all these things are the toys of the Magician and the Maker of Illusions, that barreth the Understanding from the Crown.

This is an interesting description of the flow of energy in the Supernal Triad. The energy flows out from Kether; towards both Chokmah and Binah. Chokmah is the natural receptacle for this energy, whereas Binah seeks to reject the energy; distributing it ultimately in the direction that the path of Gimel points to (Tiphereth), as it pushes it back up to Kether. The confusion that occurs when attempting to understand this (pun intended) is called the Abyss. And so the path of Beth, the Magician weaves the dream of life and builds the Adam Kadmon; the archetype or hologram of the human being (made in Kether’s image) from which the One becomes the All.

O thou that hast beheld the City of the Pyramids, how shouldst thou behold the House of the Juggler? For he is wisdom, and by wisdom hath he made the Worlds, and from that wisdom issue judgements 70 by 4, that are the 4 eyes of the double-headed one; that are the 4 devils, Satan, Lucifer, Leviathan, Belial, that are the great princes of the evil of the world. Satan or the Devil was the prosecutor in the Hebrew cosmogony. He tried the soul before God to prove its worthiness. His “judgements” were previously referred to as “severities”—seemingly referring to Geburah; the five letters suggesting also the fifth Sefira. This Devil (70:Ayin) is the eye that can see and when divided into 280 yields the 4 that has been consistently found throughout these visions.

And Satan is worshipped by men under the name of Jesus; and Lucifer is worshipped by men under the name of Brahma; and Leviathan is worshipped by men under the name of Allah; and Belial is worshipped by men under the name of Buddha.

(This is the meaning of the passage in AL:III.)

Moreover, there is Mary, a blasphemy against BABALON, for she hath shut herself up; and therefore is she the Queen of all those wicked devils that walk upon the earth, those that thou sawest even as little black specks that stained the Heaven of Urania. And all these are the excrement of Choronzon.

Mary as a shut-up withholds her heart from the love of others, as Choronzon shuts himself in his own narcissism. They are indeed complements of each other.

And for this is BABALON under the power of the Magician, that she hath submitted herself unto the work; and she guardeth the Abyss. And in her is a perfect purity of that which is above; yet she is sent as the Redeemer to them that are below. For there is no other way into the Supernal Mystery but through her, and the Beast on which she rideth; and the Magician is set beyond her to deceive the brothers of blackness, lest they should make unto themselves a crown; for if there were two crowns, then should Ygdrasil, that ancient tree, be cast out into the Abyss, uprooted and cast down into the Outermost Abyss, and the Arcanum which is in the Adytum should be profaned; and the Ark should be touched, and the Lodge spied upon by them that are not masters, and the bread of the Sacrament should be the dung of Choronzon; and the wine of the Sacrament should be the water of Choronzon; and the incense should be dispersion; and the fire upon the Altar should be hate. But lift up thyself; stand, play the man, for behold! there shall be revealed unto thee the Great Terror, the thing of awe that hath no name.

Though the Adepts of the Black and Yellow Schools sit at the table of Adepts, they will fail of the Abyss, as they mistake it for Kether and ignore the goddess that takes them to Binah; there not being any other way, except by pouring all one’s life essence into her Cup.

And this is the mystery that I declare unto thee: that from the Crown itself spring the three great delusions; Aleph is madness, and Beth is Meaning, to construct a true Tree, of which Dath should be the summit. This is in fact the great error of the rationalists --- both in science, like Bchner, and in religion, like Buddha. Knowledge is not, and cannot be, the crown of Consciousness, if only because the Logic beyond the Abyss convicts it of essential self contradiction. Dath, as seen by the Magister Templi, is so far from being the opposite of Ignorance that it is actually a demonstration that the Intellect is incapable of Truth.

falsehood, and Gimel is glamour.\textsuperscript{744} And these three are greater than all, for they are beyond the words that I speak unto thee; how much more therefore are they beyond the words that thou transmittest unto men.

A description of the nature of the nightside of the paths of Aleph, Beth and Gimel.

Behold! the Veil of the Aethyr sundereth, and is torn, like a sail by the breath of the tempest, and thou shalt see him as from afar off. This is that which is written, "Confound her understanding with darkness," for thou canst not speak this thing.\textsuperscript{745}

It is the figure of the Magus of the Taro;\textsuperscript{746} and in his right arm the torch of the flames blazing upwards; in his left the cup of poison, a cataract into Hell. And upon his head the evil talisman, blasphemy and blasphemy and blasphemy, in the form of a circle. That is the greatest blasphemy of all.\textsuperscript{747} On his feet hath he the scythes and swords and sickles; daggers; knives; every sharp thing,\textsuperscript{748} --- a millionfold, and all in one. And before him is the Table that is a Table of wickedness, and 42-fold Table. This Table is connected with the 42 Assessors of the Dead, for they are the Accursers, whom the soul must baffle; and with the 42-fold name of God [Shemhamforash], for this is the Mystery of Iniquity, that there was ever a beginning at all.\textsuperscript{749}

And this Magus casteth forth, by the might of his four weapons, veil after veil; a thousand shining colours, ripping and tearing the Aethyr, so that it is like jagged saws, or like broken teeth in the face of a young girl, or like disruption, or madness. There is a horrible grinding sound, maddening. This is the mill in which the Universal Substance, which is ether, was ground down into matter.

This grinding down of the “ether” happens in the Abyss and the involution; where the N.O.X. is formulated to be manifested in Malkuth.

\textsuperscript{744} Aleph is incapacity to apprehend --- the absence of any steady truth. ($\aleph = \Delta$, the volatile). Beth is the assertion of false relations, even in the illusion of the dyad. ($\beth = \beth$) And Gimel is the clouding of aspiration by the marsh miasma of desire ($\gimel = \beth$). Such are the evil and averse counterparts of the three highest faculties of the Soul: Aleph, the inspiration of the soul in ecstasy; Beth, the virtue of Truthfulness without care of other issues; and Gimel, the direct link of the human with the divine Consciousness.

\textsuperscript{745} The Seer was being warned all the time that he was seeing only a Guard.

\textsuperscript{746} Atu I. This is Mayan, the Great Magician, he who has created the Dyad ($\beth = 2$) and thus made possible the conception of Opposition, and hence of "Evil". He is to be distinguished from Chokma, the creative Mercury who transmits the Essence of Kether as a Logos, that Kether may become intelligible to Himself through Binah. This lower Mercury asserts the Dyad as Reality, and denies alike Kether and the Ain. Hence its issue is in Materialism.

\textsuperscript{747} i.e., that the circle should be profaned. The evil circle is of three concentric rings. The circle demands the square (or Cross) to fulfill it.

\textsuperscript{748} Curiously, for his retirement in New Hampshire (An XII) the Seer bought an axe, knife, and a saw for his magical weapons. He had completely forgotten this passage. P.S. (\textcircled{1} in \textsuperscript{11}, \textsuperscript{11} in \textsuperscript{21}) (An XII) I have just realized (after some days woodcarving) that the use of a knife is to fashion shapeless things into Beauty. This is then the task of a Magus which, in my then Grade, I could not see. Now, O Lord, let me behold the true Vision of the Magus as he is.

\textsuperscript{749} $42 = 2 \times 21$. $21 = \text{Shem}$. God-name of Kether; thus 42 asserts the Dyad as against the Monad, and denies Love. $42 = \text{Khabar}$. the Mother unfertilized, the Virgin-on-principle -- the feminine equivalent of the Black Brothers.
The Seer prayeth that a cloud may come between him and the sun, so that he may shut out the terror of the vision. And he is afire; he is terribly athirst; and no help can come to him, for the shew-stone blazeth ever with the fury and the torment and the blackness, and the stench of human flesh. The bowels of little children are torn out and thrust into his mouth, and a poison is dropped into his eyes. And Lilith, a black monkey crawling with filth, running with open sores, an eye torn out, eaten of worms, her teeth rotten, her nose eaten away, her mouth a putrid mass of green slime, her dugs dropping and cancerous, clings to him, kisses him.

(Kill me! kill me!)\(^{751}\)

There is a mocking voice: Thou art become immortal. Thou wouldst look upon the face of the Magician and thou hast not beheld him because of his Magick veils.

(Don't torture me!)

Thus are all they fallen into the power of Lilith, who have dared to look upon his face.

The shew-stone is all black and corrupt. O filth! filth! filth!

And this is her great blasphemy: that she hath taken the name of the First Aethyr,\(^{752}\) and bound it on her brow, and added thereunto the shameless yod and the tau for the sign of the Cross.

Lilith as Babalon is that which is contained by the 4 Watchtowers; being invoked by the lettering of the Holy Table of Practice and the Aethyrs that emanate from it and all concentric with the 1st Aethyr. This lettering is as follows:

\(^{750}\) מלך = Malkuth, of the 42-fold name in Yetzirah. Also 480 = דת, Dath, in the Plural. Lilith is etymologically "The Woman of Night"; but is diversely described by different authorities. To one she is, "from the head to the navel, a woman --- from the navel to the feet of her, a man". To another, "lovely shape that concealeth a black monkey, even as a figure that draweth with her hands small images of men down into hell" (Liber Ararita II.10). She is also the "first wife of Adam" i.e. the succubus who visits in their sleep those boys and men who have not previously purified themselves by Right Coitus. The whole world of demons was in fact created (according to Rabbinical tradition) by the nocturnal pollutions of Adam. This is a true parable. For every sexual act produces its natural effect on all planes. All forms of spiritual experience may be obtained in this manner, according to the Magical Knowledge and Skill of the Operator. And there is always a Child begotten on some plane or other, as the conditions of the experiment decide. (Note. --- A.C. added the following here in his copy of Eqx. I, No. 5. "Doris Gomez who came just before Jeanne Foster. It's a perfect description of her normal nature. Add Laura Brown for the sake of completeness. What about Alostrael?"

\(^{751}\) The Seer was physically overwhelmed by the horror of this experience. It may seem surprising that such phenomena should occur above the Abyss. But this Lilith is a positive form created by the Magus; whereas, Choronzon is the breaking-up of all coherence. Here also is a mystery of mysteries. Lilith is truly Babalon, as imagined by this energy of Mayan.

\(^{752}\) LIL.
She it is that squatteth upon the Crucifix, for the nastiness of her pleasure. So that they that worship Christ suck up her filth upon their tongues, and therefore their breaths stink.

I was saved from that Horror by a black shining Triangle, with apex upwards, that came upon the face of the sun.

And now the shew-stone is all clear and beautiful again.

The pure pale gold of a fair maiden's hair, and the green of her girdle, and the deep soft blue of her eyes.

Again, the effeminate H.G.A.

Note. --- In this the gold is Kether, the blue is Chokmah, the green is Binah.

If this is so, we see here the projection into Tiphareth per the description of the flow of the Supernals at the top of this Aethyr.

Thus she appeareth in the Aethyr, adorned with flowers and gems. It seems that she hath incarnated herself upon earth, and that she will appear manifest in a certain office in the Temple.

The office of the Scarlet Woman.

I have seen some picture like her face; I cannot think what picture. It is a piquant face, with smiling eyes and lips; the ears are small and pink, the complexion is fair, but not transparent; not as fair as one would expect from the hair and eyes. It is rather an impudent face, rather small, very pretty; the nose very slightly less than straight, well-proportioned, rather large nostrils. Full of vitality, the whole thing.

Now very tall, rather slim and graceful; a good dancer.

There is another girl behind her, with sparkling eyes, mischievous, a smile showing beautiful white teeth; an ideal Spanish girl, but fair. Very 753 For the Christian, obsessed by Mayan, sees Love in this obscene form. It is all a matter of the point-of-view.

754 This is the Sigil of Binah in one of Her forms. It instantly destroys the illusion of Lilith, who now appears in her true shape as an avatar; a corporeal imagine of BABALON, recalling the maiden of the 9th Aethyr. (Note. --- in A.C.'s Eqxn, here to the para. beginning "I have seen some picture" he notes in the margin "Hilarion, Jeanne Robert Foster". --- To the para. beginning "then the disk of the sun", he notes "Alice Ethel Coomaraswamy. She has Libra rising and Sol in Scorpio and she is mad about green." --- To the para. beginning "There is another girl", he notes "Helen Westley? --- or Myriam Deroxe.") vivacious. Only her head is visible, and now it is veiled by a black sun, casting forth dull rays of black and gold.

Then the disk of the sun is a pair of balances, held steady; and twined about the central pole of the balance is the little green poisonous snake, with a long forked tongue rapidly darting. 755

And the Angel that hath spoken with me before, saith to me: The eye of His benignancy is opened; therefore veileth he thine eyes from the vision. Manfully hast thou endured; yet, hast thou been man, thou hadst not endured; and hast thou been wholly that which thou art, thou shouldst have been caught up in the full vision that is unspeakable for Horror. And thou shouldst have beheld the face of the Magician that thou hast not been able to behold, --- of him from whom issue forth the severities that are upon Malkuth, and his name is Misericordia Dei. 756

Severity (5) unto Mercy (4); this is the key to evolutionary discipline, as the severities temper the metal.

And because he is the dyad, thou mayest yet understand in two ways. Of first way, the Mercy of God is that Mercy which Jehovah showed to the Amalekites; 757 and the second way is utterly beyond thine understanding, for it is the upright, and thou knowest nothing but the averse, --- until Wisdom shall inform thine Understanding, and upon the base of the Ultimate triangle arise the smooth point. 758

Veil therefore thine eyes, for that thou canst not master the Aethyr, unless thy Mystery match Its Mystery. Seal up thy mouth also, for thou canst not master the voice of the Aethyr, save only by Silence.

And thou shalt give the sign of the Mother, for BABALON is thy fortress against the iniquity of the Abyss, for the iniquity of that which bindeth her unto the Crown, 759 and barreth her from the Crown; for not until thou art made one with CHAOS 760 canst thou begin that last, that most terrible projection, the three-fold Regimen which alone constitutes the Great Work.

For Choronzon is as it were the shell or excrement of these three paths, and therefore is his head raised unto Dath, and therefore have the Black Brotherhood declared him to be the child of Wisdom and Understanding, who is but the bastard of the Svastika. And this is that which is written in the Holy Qabalah, concerning the Whirlpool and Leviathan, and the Great Stone.\textsuperscript{761}

Thus long have I talked with thee in bidding thee depart, that the memory of the Aethyr might be dulled; for hadst thou come back suddenly into thy mortal frame, thou hadst fallen into madness or death. For the vision is not such that any may endure it.

But now thy sense is dull, and the shew-stone but a stone. Therefore awake, and give secretly and apart the sign of the Mother, and call four times upon the name of CHAOS,\textsuperscript{762} that is the four-fold word that is equal to her seven-fold word. And then shalt thou purify thyself, and return into the World.

The Cry of the 2nd Aethyr, Which is Called

2. "The Marriage of the Seer with BABALON. (Atu VI)."

The mystical cosmogony of the Aeon is expounded.

In the first place, there is again the woman riding on the bull, which is the reflection of BABALON, that rideth on The Beast. And also there is an Assyrian legend of a woman with a fish, and also there is a legend of Eve and the Serpent, for Cain was the the child of Eve and the Serpent, and not of Eve and Adam; and therefore when he had slain his brother, who was the first murderer, having sacrificed living things to his demon, had Cain the mark upon his brow, which is the mark of the Beast spoken of in the Apocalypse, and is the sign of initiation.

The shedding of blood is necessary, for God did not hear the children of Eve until blood was shed. And that is external religion; but Cain spake not with God, nor had the mark of initiation upon his brow, so that he was shunned by all men, until he had shed blood. And this blood was the blood of his brother. This is a mystery of the sixth key of the Taro, which ought not to be called The Lovers, but The Brothers.

In the middle of the card stands Cain; in his right hand is the Hammer of Thor with which he hath slain his brother, and it is all wet with his blood. And his left hand he holdeth open as a sign of innocence. And on his right hand is his mother Eve, around whom the serpent is entwined with his hood spread behind her head; and on his left hand is a figure somewhat like the Hindu Kali, but much more seductive. Yet I know it to be Lilith. And above him is the Great Sigil of the Arrow, downward, but it is struck through the heart of the child. This Child is also Abel. And the meaning of this part of the card is obscure, but that is the correct drawing of the Taro card; and that is the correct magical fable from which 763 ARN = blh. See the allusions to Bull, Fish and Serpent in the first paragraph. But 156 = BABALON, also here mentioned; and the whole Aethyr is devoted to HER.

764 This is the "Third Eye", the "Eye of Shiva", the Pineal Gland, supposed by some anatomists to be a rudimentary eye.
765 The "Bloody Sacrifice" is commonly regarded as "Black Magic". But this depends upon the Formula used by the Magician. All taking of life could be reprehensible even though necessary were it not for the Formula of Evolution. One should assume into one's own Being, ceremonially, the whole Karma of the creature slain; thus building it up into a higher organic structure, and thus helping it to fulfill its True Will of Aspiration to a higher Form of Life. This is, of course, a gross and material method of working, but it is the only method available in such cases. The animal is in any case doomed to death, and the most fortunate, the most directly profitable to it, is this immediate translation of its Prana (in an actual ceremony) or the basis of its Prana (in simple consumption at the table) into a living organism of superior type. It is important not to allow this Prana to escape.
766 There is another, even more important, attribution of this card. The Bowman is the father (* of ḫeft*) and the Man, the Son (♀). The Women are Isis and Nephthys (♀ and ♀ final); and the whole symbolizes a Formula of the Highest Magick, too obscure and too elaborate to treat in this elementary document.
767 This child is really Seth, Set, Sol, Hadit. Abel’s blood was the seed of this Seth. Remember that Abel = Baal.
the Hebrew scribes, who were not complete Initiates, stole their legend of the Fall and the subsequent events. They joined different fables together to try and make a connected story, and they sophisticated them to suit their social and political conditions.

All this while no image hath come unto the Stone, and no voice hath been heard.

I cannot get any idea of the source of what I have been saying. All I can say is, that there is a sort of dew, like mist, upon the Stone, and yet it has become hot to the touch.

All I get is that the Apocalypse was the recension of a dozen or so totally disconnected allegories, that were pieced together, and ruthlessly planed down to make them into a connected account; and that recension was re-written and edited in the interests of Christianity, because people were complaining that Christianity could show no true spiritual knowledge, or any food for the best minds: nothing but miracles, which only deceived the most ignorant, and Theology, which only suited pedants.

So a man got hold of this recension, and turned it Christian, and imitated the style of John. And this explains why the end of the world does not happen every few years, as advertised.

So also is this Christian document an attack on the Goddess and all her priestesses. The direct connection with the divine that they provided for the men has been cut off by the Patriarchs and they have installed priests as mediaries between men with the women initially being cut out altogether; but to go through the intermediary of her husband. This has robbed women of their divinely ordained status and removed the divine from the community altogether; placing it at the hands of a corrupted clergy.

There is nothing whatever in the Stone but a White Rose. And a voice comes: there shall be no more red roses, for she hath crushed all the blood of all things into her cup.

It seemed at one time as if the rose was in the breast of a beautiful woman, high-bosomed, tall, stately, yet who danced like a snake. But there was no subsistence in this vision.

769 There is no question in my mind that this explanation is correct from the viewpoint of profane scholarship. "Angels" who offer absurd theories about material affairs are false elementals who amuse themselves at the expense of the naiveté of the would-be-Magician.
770 In any case forecasts of the future cannot be made from Qabalistic data, which have nothing to do with terrestrial measures of time; e.g. to say that King Brahmadatta reigned 120,000 years in Benares, only means that he reigned in a manner congruous with the ideas symbolized by 120 and, on a very grand scale, as indicated by the multiplication by 1000.
771 The allusion may be to one of those who occupied for a time the post of "Scarlet Woman". See Book 4, part 4, for a list of these women. (Note—A.C. pencilled in the margin of his Eqq. here "Myriam Deroxe?" Opposite the next paragraph re. the white Rose he annotated "Leila Waddell?"
And now I see the white Rose, as if it were in the beak of a swan, in the picture by Michael Angelo in Venice. And that legend too is the legend of BABALON.

The office of the Scarlet Woman is for the consort of the Major Adept. Even the image of Babalon astride the Beast shows the working syzygies that pair people off into divinely inspired lamps unto their communities. That Babalon is astride the Beast shows that she is the directing force; the one that births their union.

But all this is before the veil of the Aethyr. Now will I go and make certain preparations, and I will return and repeat the call of the Aethyr yet again.

Biskra.
December 18, 1909. 9:20 - 10:5 a.m.

It is not a question of being unable to get into the Aethyr, and trying to struggle through; but one is not anywhere near it.

A voice comes: When thy dust shall strew the earth whereon She walketh, then mayest thou bear the impress of Her foot. And thou thinkest to behold Her face!

The Stone is become of the most brilliant whiteness, and yet, in that whiteness, all the other colours are implicit. The colour of anything is but its dullness, its obstructiveness. So is it with these visions. All that they _are_ is falsity. Every idea merely marks where the mind of the Seer was too stupid to receive the light, and therefore reflected it. Therefore, as the pure light is colourless, so is the pure soul black.

So also the light that is absorbed. One absorbs little, and is called white and glistening; one absorbs all and is called black—LXV:I.18

772 In fact, the Seer was the prey of an intolerable uneasiness akin to fear. He was intuitively aware of the terrific nature of the Aethyr, and felt oppressed by the responsibility of seeing and hearing accurately in a manner of such dread importance. He felt even before penetrating the Aire, that he was already near the limit of his powers.

773 It was not that the Call of the Aethyr had been ill performed, or that its virtue and efficacy were impaired. It was that the Seer being attached to his human instrument, that instrument automatically strove with all its might to escape the impact of so tremendous and so dire an energy which would infallibly be transmitted (to a certain small extent) through the Seer to it. In the same way, in a much lesser manner, there is a limit to the degree of pain a man can inflict on himself, as experiments with the Boulometer (the instrument invented by the Seer to measure this virtue) have shewn. (Note --- it was a self-adjustable thumb screw. --- Note by Yorke)

774 This means more than the obvious. "The colours of the spectrum compose pure White Light." The Seer could see these colours directly, at the same time as the White. Another case of hyperabyssic logic.

775 This doctrine is most profound and important. It throws light upon the mystery of evil, and upon the nature of Maya in general.
And this is the Mystery of the incest of CHAOS with his daughter. 776

There is nothing whatever visible.

But I asked of the Angel that is at my side if the ceremony hath been duly performed. And he says: Yes, the Aethyr is present. It is thou that canst not perceive it, even as I cannot perceive it, because it is so entirely beyond thy conception that there is nothing in thy mind on to which it can cast a symbol, even as the emptiness of space is not heated by the fire of the sun. And so pure is the light that it preventeth the formation of images, and therefore have men called it darkness. For with any lesser light, the mind responds, and makes for itself divers palaces. 777 It is that which is written: "In my Father's house there are many mansions"; and if the house be destroyed, how much more the mansions that are therein! For this is the victory of BABALON over the Magician that ensorcelled778 her. For as the Mother she is 3 by 52, and as the harlot she is 6 by 26; but she is also 12 by 13, and that is the pure unity. 779 Moreover she is 4 by 39, that is, victory over the power of the 4, and in 2 by 78 hath she destroyed the great Sorcerer. 780 Thus is she the synthesis of 1 and 2 and 3 and 4, which being added are 10, therefore could she set her daughter upon her own throne, and defile her own bed with her virginity. 781

New Gnosis: the aspects of Babalon are derived qabalistically.

And I ask the Angel if there is any way by which I can make myself worthy to behold the Mysteries of this Aethyr.

And he saith: It is not in my knowledge. Yet do thou make once more in silence the Call of the Aethyr, and wait patiently upon the favour of the Angel, for He is a mighty Angel, and never yet have I heard the whisper of his wing.

776 Chaos is here the Yod of Tetragrammaton, his daughter the final H. This passage is to be studied closely in connection with the previous passages and notes with regard to the formula of תָּנָן; indeed one should preform samyama upon this whole matter.

777 Note well this thesis. Anything which is not Pure Nothing is ipso facto unbalanced, and therefore imperfect --- indeed illusory.

778 The path of Beth. Contrast this way of illusion forcibly with the obsession of Microprosopus by Dath. (There are also the difficulties of the Son with the glamour of the path of Gimel and of the Father with the path of Aleph. See 3rd Aire concerning the Three Ways of Delusion that guard the Crown.)

779 52 = מִחוּר, the fertile mother = 3 = Binah. 26 = גָּדֶל; also בכ = Kabad, the husband of the impure Lilith, and 1 plus 6 plus 9 plus 10, the Sephiroth of the Middle Pillar, the Phallus. 6 = 1 plus 2 plus 3, the Mystic number of Binah; also ע who shines on all alike: בָּשַׂמְתָּה to collect, בֵּית a bear (Venus in Furs), and מַרְע ני a window, the illicit way of ingress into a house. 12 = קְנֵה the title of Kether, the Unity; 13 = יִשְׁרֵי = Unity.

780 39 = תָּנָן "Tetragrammaton is One", although He is composed of 4 letters, hence the triumph over the power of 4, limitation. But this explanation is not as clear, satisfactory and convincing with that singular feeling of ecstatic illumination which one rightly demands of the Qabalistic demonstration. There should be some further gematria of 39 not yet discovered. 2 is Beth, Atu I, Mayan the Great Sorcerer. 78 = Mezla (עֵלֶל) the Influence from Kether, and the number of the Tarot Cards. I.e., she destroys him by his own energies.

This is the translation of the Call of the Aethyr. 782

O ye heavens which dwell in the first Aire, and are mighty in the parts of the earth, and execute therein the judgment of the highest, to you it is said: Behold the face of your God, the beginning of comfort, whose eyes are the brightness of the heavens which provided you for the government of the earth, and her unspeakable variety, furnishing you with a power of understanding, that ye might dispose all things according to the foresight of Him that sitteth on the Holy Throne, and rose up in the beginning, saying, The earth, let her be governed by her parts (this is the prostitution of BABALON to Pan), and let there be division in her (the formation of the Many from the One), that her glory may be always ecstasy and the irritation of orgasm. Her course let it round with the heavens (that is, let her way be always harmonious with heaven), and as a handmaid let her serve them (that is, the Virgin of Eternity climbing into the bed of CHAOS). One season let it confound another (that is, let there be unwearying variety of predicates), 783 and let there be no creature upon or within her the same (that is, let there be an unwearying variety of subjects). 784 All her members let them differ in their qualities, and let there be no one creature equal with another (for if there were any duplication or omission, there would be no perfection in the whole). The reasonable creatures of the earth and men, let them vex and weed out one another (this is, the destruction of reason by internecine conflicts in the course of redemption). And their dwelling places, let them forget their names. (This is, the arising of Nemo.) The work of man and his pomp, let them be defaced. (That is, in the Great Work man must lose his personality.) His building, let it be a cave for the Beast of the Field. ("His building" means the Vault of the Adept, and the "Cave" is the Cave of the Mountain of Abiegnus, and the "Beast" is he upon whom BABALON rideth, and the "Field" is the supernal Eden.) Confound her understanding with darkness. (This sentence is explained by what has been said concerning Binah.)

Binah is a dark sea. In general, reason is a lie as is the logic of duality below the Abyss; part of the maya.

782 This reversal of the evident exoteric meaning of the Call is stupendous. This book, 418, is full of similar interpretations "by the rule of contraries". But this rule must be applied with skill and discretion, if error is to be avoided. It is a lamentable fact that a worthy Zelator of A.A., one Frater Achad, having been taught (patiently enough) by the Seer to use this formula, was lured by his vanity to suppose that he had discovered it himself, and proceeded to apply it indiscriminately. He tried to stand the Serpent of Wisdom on its head, and argued that as he was a 1 10 of the Order, he must equally be a 1 10. As _The Book of Lies_ says, "I wrenched DOG backwards to find God; now God barks!" He would have been better advised to reverse his adored ONE and taken a dose of ENO! (ENO, an English purgative. T.)

783 The infinity of Nuit.

784 The infinity of Hadit.

785 i.e. an "Event, the fundamental unit of Manifested Existence."
For why, it rejoiceth me concerning the Virgin and the Man.
(Kelly did not understand this Call at all, and he would not believe this sentence was written so, for it seemed to contradict the rest of the Call, so he altered it.)

Cf. previous comments about Dee & Kelly in the 6th and 5th Aethyrs.

One while let her be known and another while a stranger, (that is, the Mystery of the Holy One being at the same time identical with everything and apart from it), because she is the bed of an harlot, and the dwelling of him that is fallen. (That is that Mystery which was revealed in the last Aethyr; the universe being, as it were, a garden wherein the Holy Ones may take their pleasure.)

We have the symbol of the “garden” in several places throughout these visions. On one level, this garden is the world itself and all that manifests in the world. In other cases, this garden the garden of Adept beholden of the Magister Templi; the latter of which of course, is the Ruach in its relation.

O ye heavens, arise; the lower heavens beneath you, let them serve you. (This is a command for the whole of things to join in universal rapture.) Govern those that govern; cast down such as fall; bring forth those that increase; and destroy the rotten. (This means that everything shall take its own pleasure in its own way.
No place let it remain in one number. ("No place" is the infinite Ain . . . "Let remain in one number"; that is, let it be concentrated in Kether.) Add and diminish until the stars be numbered. (It is a mystery of the logos being formulated by the Qabalah, because the stars, are all letters of the Holy Alphabet, as it was said in a former Aethyr.)

The Logos is not here, a saviour; but each star is a Logos unto itself and creates a solar system to express its own Dharma.

Arise! Move! and Appear! before the covenant of his mouth which he hath shewn unto us in his Justice. ("The Covenant" is the letter aleph; "His mouth", pe; "His Justice", lamed; and these add up again to aleph, so that it is in the letter aleph, which is zero, thus symbolizing the circles of the Aethyrs, that he calleth them forth. But men thought that aleph was the initial ARR, cursing, when it was really the initial of AChD, unity, and AHBH, love.

786 In Kelly's original: "It repenteth Me that I have made Man." Kelly was in constant trouble with his education as an orthodox Christian; also Dee forced him to reject the True Messengers, whose discourse implied antinomian Pantheism.

787 One general application of the Law of Thelema. It is a stupid error to try to make a silk purse out of a sow’s ear; it hurts both parties to the transaction. The basic blunder is to set up an arbitrary ideal standard of "what ought to be". The "evil beginnings" on all planes have a proper and a useful function. A strong healthy man cannot be made by putting him in irons and protecting him artificially from all the "dangers of life."
Does this say that the half of the Jews us ‘love under unity’...? The Hebrew Qabalah is more tribal in essence; for example, the Holy Shekinah descends on a community and is not of the individual at all. Only a certain purity or cleanliness of the filters of the Soul can enable one to participate in such an experience. And perhaps it is that the community-oriented aspect of the experience has a certain balance with individuals who can themselves create such an experience.

So that it was the most horrible and wicked blasphemy of the blackest of all the black brothers to begin Barashith with a beth, with the letter of the Magician. Yet, by this simple device, hath he created the whole illusion of sorrow. Open the mysteries of your creation, and make us partakers of the undefiled knowledge. (The word here is "IADNAMAD" is not the ordinary word for knowledge. It is a word of eight letters, which is the secret name of God, summarized in the letter cheth; for which see the Aethyr which correspondeth to that letter, the twelfth Aethyr.)

Now from time to time I have looked into the Stone, but never is there any image therein, or any hint thereof; but now there are three arrows, arranged thus:

This is the letter Aleph in the Alphabet of Arrows.

788 The passage is criticism of an obscure doctrine of the Qabalah. There is however a real mystery behind the rhetoric.
789 All these passages in brackets are the currente lingua explanations of the Seer (to himself) as each new phrase of the text was delivered by the Angel. To understand how startling it all was to him, one must remember that he had been using this Call, in its own obvious sense, for many weeks, and always with the utmost force and solemnity. His only warning had been the intuitive feeling that the Call was really a rejoicing at the opening of the 9th Aire. And he had thought this merely subjective, due to the relief of having passed through the Abyss.
790 This alphabet corresponds to the Enochian, whose letters are in many cases similar by shape. But these characters represent the direction of Will-energy in divers spheres, rather than the nature of any energy. There is an apparent (rough general) rule that the Arrows represent by direction the Eight Trigrams of Fu-hsi. Thus:

<th>Kteis</th>
<th>Sol</th>
<th>Luna</th>
<th>Fire</th>
<th>Air</th>
<th>Earth</th>
<th>Water</th>

The Alphabet of Arrows

(I want to say that while I was doing the translation of the Call of the Aethyrs, the soles of my feet were burning, as if I were on red hot steel.\(^{791}\)

And now the fire was spread all over me, and parches me, and tortures me. And my sweat is bitter like poison. And all my blood is acrid in my veins, like gleet. I seem to be all festering, rotting; and the worms eating me while I am yet alive.

A voice, neither in myself nor out of myself, is saying: Remember Prometheus; remember Ixion.\(^{792}\) \(^{791}\) This was certainly due to no ordinary cause. The Seer was lying on the roof of the Hotel Royal at Biskra in the shade of the minaret. It was a cool bright morning.

\(^{792}\) Prometheus stole the fire of Jupiter. Ixion attempted the virtue of Juno. The Seer, in trying to penetrate this most holy Aire, was similarly presumptuous.
I am tearing at nothing. I will not heed. For even this dust must be consumed with fire.

This alludes to the alchemical process called ‘calcination.’ It is a final purification of matter before attempting to extract a Salt.

And now, although there is no image, at last there is a sense of obstacle, as if one were at length drawing near to the frontier of the Aethyr.

But I am dying.

I can neither strive nor wait. There is agony in my ears, and in my throat, and mine eyes have been so long blind that I cannot remember that there ever was such a thing as sight.

And it cometh to me that I should go away, and await the coming of the veil of the Aethyr; not here. I think I will go to the Hot Springs.

So I put away the Stone upon my breast.

Biskra
10:15-11:52 a.m.

Flashes of lightning are playing in the Stone, at the top; and at the bottom of the Stone there is a black pyramid, and at the top thereof is a vesica piscis. The vesica piscis is of colourless brilliance.

The two curves of Pisces are thus:

They are the same curves as the curves of vesica piscis, but turned round.

He was using the Sign of the Rending of the Veil, (See Liber O, Eqx. I, No. 2) against the obscurity of the Aire.

i.e. the Magister Templi. See 6th Aethyr et al. supra. Only a Magus can truly pierce the veil of BABALON. It is written (of Isis), "No man (i.e., Nemo, the Magister Templi) hath lifted my veil." But to lift it and look upon HER is one thing; to possess HER another!

The physical exhaustion of the Seer was complete. He realized that further effort was impossible; and --- more also! --- that had he suddenly succeeded, while in this state, the fury of the impact of the Energy of the Aire would have been instantly destructive of his physical form.

Hammam Salahin: Sulphurous waters, admirably apt to the idea of BABALON, whom the Seer intuitively understood to be the Soul of this Second Aire.

Black for Binah. The pyramid for the phallus, for she is also androgyne. Or, as an unit of Her City, beneath the Night of Pan. See 14th Aire.

The most perfect and mysterious of the symbols of the Feminine Principle. Its mathematical correspondences are of the greatest importance. See The Canon and several other treatises on Qabalistic Geometry.

This is the last desperate attempt of the Rauch of the Seer to escape the Terror of the Presence of Babalon.
And a voice comes: How can that which is buried in the pyramids\textsuperscript{800} behold that which descendeth unto its apex?\textsuperscript{801}

Again it comes to me, without voice: Therefore is motherhood the symbol of the Masters. For first they must give up their virginity to be destroyed, and the seed must lie hidden in them until the nine moons wax and wane, and they must surround it with the Universal Fluid. And they must feed it with the blood for fire. Then is the child a living thing. And afterwards is much suffering and much joy, and after that are they torn asunder, and this is all their thank, that they give it to suck.\textsuperscript{802}

Chapter 3 in the Book of Lies declares that “Brothers of the A.T.A.T. are Women.” This refers back to the garden kept by the Magister Templi. From the involutionary direction, the Magister Templi births own Adepthood; seeming as ‘divine grace’ to one abandoning himself to the Abyss, which is an evolutionary perspective working simultaneously, but playing out in two different time periods in the Aspirant’s career. That is because time is itself a part of the fabric of space; the space-time continuum that we call Nuit. Therefore the two experiences, the birth of the Master of the Temple and the consummation of the Adetus Minor happen and don’t happen simultaneously...and as can be said for the material manifestation into the outer garden of the Magister Templi.

All this while the vision in the Shew-Stone stays as it was, save that the lightning grows more vehement and clear; and behind the vesica piscis is a black cross\textsuperscript{803} extending to the top and to the edges of the Stone. And now blackness spreads, and swallows up the images.

Now there is naught but a vast black triangle having the apex downwards,\textsuperscript{804} and in the centre of the black triangle is the face of Typhon, the Lord of the Tempest, and he crieth aloud: Despair! Despair! For thou mayest deceive the Virgin, and thou mayest cojole the Mother; but \textsuperscript{800} i.e. the Magister Templi.

\textsuperscript{801} This apparently simple phrase conceals an allusion of the most sublime and terrific import. See AL:1.14, 16, 19. Also The Book of Lies, caps. 4 and 15. Mohammed said, “Cursed be he that maketh himself Earth, and Woman Heaven!” For he understood this Formula as of enormous Magical Power and wished to keep it from the profane, who might abuse it, or injure themselves by ignorant or imprudent application.
\textsuperscript{802} See The Book of Lies, Cap. 3.
\textsuperscript{803} This seems to refer to Thmaist, whose Aeon will succeed that of Horus. She is Atu VIII referring to Libra, the House of Venus. In her also, then, is BABALON the Ageless Virgin-Harlot, our Mother as our Concubine.
\textsuperscript{804} Cf. 3rd Aire, , the vision of Lilith. This triangle seems to symbolize Limitation or Restriction; or so the sequel implies.
what wilt thou say unto the ancient Whore that is throned in Eternity? For if she will not, there is neither force nor cunning, nor any wit, that may prevail upon her.

Thou canst not woo her with love,\textsuperscript{805} for she \emph{is} love. And she hath all, and hath no need of thee.

In other words, though we might adore Our Lady, she does not call for adoration nor praise; \textit{per} AL:I.58—

\begin{quote}
I give unimaginable joys on earth: certainty, not faith, while in life, upon death; peace unutterable, rest, ecstasy; nor do I demand aught in sacrifice.
\end{quote}

And thou canst not woo her with gold,\textsuperscript{806} for all the Kings and captains of the earth, and all the gods of heaven, have showered their gold upon her. Thus hath she all, and hath no need of thee.

And thou canst not woo her with knowledge, for knowledge is the thing that she hath spurned.\textsuperscript{807} She hath it all, and hath no need of thee.

And thou canst not woo her with wit,\textsuperscript{808} for her Lord is Wit.

She hath it all, and hath no need of thee. Despair! Despair!

Nor canst thou cling to her knees and ask for pity; nor canst thou cling to her heart and ask for love; nor canst thou put thine arms about her neck, and ask for understanding; for thou had all these,\textsuperscript{809} and they avail thee not. Despair! Despair!

Then I took the Flaming Sword,\textsuperscript{810} and I let it loose against Typhon, so that his head was cloven asunder, and the black triangle dissolved in lightnings.\textsuperscript{811}

But as he parted his voice broke out again: Nor canst thou win her with the Sword, for her eyes are fixed upon the eyes of Him in whose hand is the hilt of the Sword.\textsuperscript{812} Despair! Despair!

\textsuperscript{806} Tiphareth is below Her.

\textsuperscript{807} Dath, the outcast into the Abyss, beneath Her.

\textsuperscript{808} Chokmah, the Highest Wisdom.

\textsuperscript{809} As shewn in the previous note, the Magister Templi, though he can lift Her Veil and behold Her with understanding, is unable to meet Her as an equal and possess Her.

\textsuperscript{810} This has its hilt in Kether, and its point in Malkuth. the Seer uses the entire Hierarchy of Existence against the destroyer of Osiris.

\textsuperscript{811} His energy is transmuted into the primeval Manifestation of the Divine Will.

\textsuperscript{812} i.e. She is wholly set upon Kether. Only when Her Lover is wholly in His loftiest Selfhood can He possess Her.
And the echo of that cry was his word, which is identical, although it be diverse: Nor canst thou win her by the Serpent,\textsuperscript{813} for it was the Serpent that seduced her first. Despair! Despair!

(Yet he cried thus as he fled:)

I am Leviathan, the great Lost Serpent of the Sea. I writhe eternally in torment, and I lash the ocean with my tail into a whirlpool of foam that is vemonous and bitter, and I have no purpose. I go no whither. I can neither live nor die. I can but rave and rave in my death agony. I am the Crocodile\textsuperscript{814} that eateth up the children of men. And through the malice of BABALON I hunger, hunger, hunger.

All this while the Stone is more inert than ever yet; a thousand times more lifeless than when it is not invoked. Now, when it kindles, it only kindles into its physical beauty. And now upon the face of it is a great black \textit{Rose}, each of whose petals, though it be featureless, is yet a devil-face. And all the stalks are the black snakes of hell. It is alive, this \textit{Rose}; a single thought informs it. It comes to clutch, to murder. Yet, because a single thought alone informs it, I have hope therein.

I think the \textit{Rose} has a hundred and fifty-six petals, and though it be black, it has the luminous blush.\textsuperscript{815}

There it is, in the midst of the Stone, and I cannot see anyone who wears it.

Aha! Aha! Aha! Shut out the sight!\textsuperscript{816}

Holy, Holy, Holy art thou!

The “Rose” is capitalized when it appears in the text; seemingly to indicate Our Lady Babalon who is the ‘mother of us all.’ And this is certainly doctrine being spelled out prophetically. But like all symbols, the allusions are usually several. And here still, the Rose is that as contemplated by the Exempt Adept.

Light, Life and Love are like three glow-worms at thy feet: the whole universe of stars, the dewdrops on the grass whereon thou walkest!

\textsuperscript{813} The Serpent of Wisdom, the 22 Paths which join the 10 Sephiroth. It is thus the complement of the Flaming Sword. The legend of Heva and Nachash is drawn from the mystical Doctrine here in question. This Serpent is the totality of Magical Manifestation, the Beauty of the 22 Palaces (Atu) of Wisdom. She is at once the Mother and the Sister of Her adulterous Lord, Mayan, the \textit{logos} who created the universe of illusion.

\textsuperscript{814} Generally speaking, the monsters which inhabit water symbolize evil --- in all senses, from the grossest to the most exalted. They represent the falling into Passivity; whereas the Activity of Energy is the Idea of Joy.

\textsuperscript{816} Thus suddenly --- BABALON --- breaks through to her lover.
I am quite blind.\textsuperscript{817}

Thou art Nuit! Strain, strain, strain my whole soul!\textsuperscript{818}

\begin{verbatim}
A ka dua
Tuf ur biu
Bi a’a chefu
Dudu ner af an nuteru.\textsuperscript{819} \end{verbatim}

Falutli! Falutli!\textsuperscript{820}

``Falutli’’ is an extension of ‘UT’—the Holy Guardian Angel of the Vedas, as discussed in the 20th Aethyr. The 3rd Aethyr also referred back to the 20th Aethyr—Jupiter and the vision of the Wheel. That this symbolic utterance is here connected to the shrill scream of orgasm, alludes to the awakening Kundalini experience that might also be said to be the ‘laughter of Hell’s own worm’ (Cf. AL:II.63) and an indication of attaining Hadit. And so again, the perspective really remians centered in the Ruach.

I cling unto the burning Aethyr like Lucifer that fell through the Abyss, and by the fury of his flight kindled the air.

And I am Belial, for having seen the Rose upon thy breast, I have denied God.

And I am Satan! I am Satan! I am cast out upon a burning crag! And the sea boils about the desolation thereof. And already the vultures gather, and feast upon my flesh.

Yea! Before thee all the most holy is profane, O thou desolator of shrines! O thou falsifier of the oracles of truth! Ever as I went, hath it been thus. The truth of the profane was the falsehood of the Neophyte, and the truth of the Neophyte was the falsehood of the Zelator! Again and again the the fortress mut be battered down! pylon must be over thrown! Again and again must the gods be desecrated!

Again, the god denied is the slave god who is removed from the community temple; hence its desecration by installing the ‘abomination of desolation’ that is the Lord Horus on the throne of Ra.

And now I lie supine before thee, in terror and abasement. O Purity!

\textsuperscript{817} This is meant in its normal physical sense. The Seer supposed at the time that he had actually lost his sight.

\textsuperscript{818} Against the appalling conviction that he had been stricken blind for his presumption in daring to aspire to BABALON in so intimate a sense he gathered himself together in a furious assault upon Her.

\textsuperscript{819} From the Stele of Revealing.

\textsuperscript{820} The outburst of the orgasm (see Note 3, page 38). It continued unabated throughout the whole of the vision. The Seer was all this time seated in the water of the hot spring, struggling with all the pressure on his body, and roaring aloud in the intensity of his agony or ecstasy. This helped him to endure physically the continuous spasm of Joy.
O Truth! What shall I say? My tongue cleaveth to my jaws, O thou Medusa that hast turned me to stone! Yet is that stone the stone of the philosophers. Yet is that tongue Hadit.

Aha! Aha! 821

Yea! Let me take the form of Hadit 822 before thee, and sing:

A ka dua
Tuf ur biu
Bi a'a chefu
Dudu ner af an nuteru.

Nuit! Nuit! Nuit! How art thou manifested in this place! This is a Mystery ineffable. And it is mine, and I can never reveal it either to God or to man. It is for thee and me!

Aha! Aha!

A ka dua
Tuf ur biu
Bi a'a chefu
Dudu ner af an nuteru.

. . . My spirit is no more; my soul is no more. My life leaps out into annihilation!

A ka dua
Tuf ur biu
Bi a'a chefu
Dudu ner af an nuteru.

It is the cry of my body! Save me! I have come too close. I have come too close to that which may not be endured. It must awake, the body; it must assert itself.

This has also been the goal of those working the Supramental Yoga of Sri Aurobindo and the Mother. And of course, the allusion is here to the alchemical transformation that is the congealing of the Soul; so aptly described in LXV:1.13-17—

821 AHA = أخبار = 7. It is therefore a God-name of Venus. Interpreted by Yetziratic attribution, it is "The Crossing of our Lady (٧ = the Supernal Mother) in the air (٥)." It is also the Pentagram between two Swastikas. The symbolism of this word, simple as it is, is far too extensive to discuss adequately in a note. It must be studied intimately and at length by the Postulant.

822 Hadit is a mathematical expression rather than a God. By his form is meant the Winged Globe, which is used in the Stele of Revealing to represent Him.
13. Wolf's bane is not so sharp as steel; yet it pierceth the body more subtly.
14. Even as evil kisses corrupt the blood, so do my words devour the spirit of man.
15. I breathe, and there is infinite dis-ease in the spirit.
16. As an acid eats into steel, as a cancer that utterly corrupts the body; so am I unto the spirit of man.
17. I shall not rest until I have dissolved it all.

It must shut out the Aethyr, or else it is dead.
Every pulse aches, and beats furiously. Every nerve stings like a serpent. And my skin is icy cold.823
Neither God nor man can penetrate the Mystery of the Aethyr.

(Here the Seer mutters unintelligibly.)

And even that which understandeth cannot hear its voice. For to the profane the voice of the Neophyte is called silence, and to the Neophyte the voice of the Zelator is called silence. And so ever is it.
Sight is fire, and is the first angle of the Tablet,824 spirit is hearing, and is the centre thereof; thou, therefore, who art all spirit and fire, and hast no duller elements in thy star; thou art come to sight at the end of thy will.

Spiritual sight is clouded by any and all personal affectation. Therefore the Adeptus Exemptus abandons his Will as Prospero, near the end of Shakespeare’s Tempest broke his wand when his taks was completed.

And if thou wilt hear the voice of the Aethyr,825 do thou invoke it in the night, having no other light but the light of the half moon. Then mayest thou hear the voice, though it may be that thou understandeth it not. Yet shall it be a potent spell, whereby thou mayest lay bare the womb of thy understanding to the violence of CHAOS.

Now, therefore, for the last time, let the veil of the Aethyr be torn.

Aha! Aha! Aha! Aha! Aha! Aha! Aha!

Dudu ner af an nuteru.826

. . . . . . . . . . . . .

823 This was in a pool almost inconveniently hot to the normal sense.
824 Meaning, the four watchtowers of the universe (_Eqx_. I, VII). For the attributions of the Senses to the Elements see 777. The growing intelligibility of the words indicates the exhaustion of the rapture of the Seer. The gradual withdrawal of the immanence of BABALON.
825 Hitherto, the intellectual content of the Aethyr has been marked by the Moral (or rather Spiritual) Ravishment of the Seer by BABALON.
826 At this point the Seer sank back exhausted. The Scribe, fearing that he might be drowned, assisted him to come out of the Pool.
This Aethyr must be left unfinished then until the half moon.

All this is the melody of a flute, very faint and clear. And there is sort of a sub-tinkle of a bell.

And there is a string instrument, somewhat like a zither. And there is a human voice.

And the voice comes: this is the Song of the Sphinx, which she singeth ever in the ears of men.

And it is the song of the syrens. And whoever heareth it is lost.\textsuperscript{828}

That is, whoever hears this is hurled into the Abyss.

\textsuperscript{827} This began instantly on the resumption of the Vision. We must assume that the Angel of the Aire, or one of His ministers, undertook the task of preparing the Seer for the "voice of the Aethyr" in this manner. --- It is the language of the Sappho-Calypso angel, commonly called Bathyllic. Its translation is: "Now it glides in to the heaven-home, glides. Seducingly the mentrila of the begotten one of the Holy Head (or Skull) takes hold of the soft tissues, subtly plying its shuttle. Light follows the explosion. The soft tissues, cleaving to the shuttle, pump out every drop of water from the well."

\textsuperscript{828} The Magical Fascination of the whole Aethyr is something quite apart from, and beyond, almost anything else in the experience of the seer. The effort upon him, 31 Equinoxes later, of writing these notes, is quite extraordinary. The memory of it diminishes the value of the rest of his life, with few excepted incidents, almost to nothing.

Translation of Song

I
Silence! the moon ceaseth (her motion),
That also was sweet
In the air, in the air, in the air!
Who Will shall attain!
Who Will shall attain
By the Moon, and by Myself, and by the Angel of the Lord!

II
Now Silence ceaseth
And the moon waxeth sweet;
(It is the hour of) Initiation, Initiation, Initiation.
The kiss of Isis is honeyed;
My own Will is ended,
For Will hath attained.

III
Behold the lion-child swimmeth (in the heaven)
And the moon reeleth: --
(It is) Thou! (It is) Thou! (It is) Thou!
Triumph; the Will stealth away (like a thief),
The Strong Will that staggered
Before Ra Hoor Khuit! -- Hadit! -- Nuit!
IV
To the God OAI

Be praise
In the end and the beginning!
And may none fall
Who Will attain
The Sword, the Balances, the Crown!

And that which thou hearest is but the dropping of the dews from my limbs, for I dance in the night, naked upon the grass, in shadowy places, by running streams.

Many are they who have loved the nymphs of the woods, and of the wells, and of the fountains, and of the hills. And of these some were nympholept. For it was not a nymph, but I myself that walked upon the earth taking my pleasure. So also there were many images of Pan, and men adored them, and as a beautiful god he made their olives bear double and their vines increase; but some were slain by the god, for it was I that had wove the garlands about him.

Now cometh a song.

So sweet is this song that no one could resist it. For in it is all the passionate ache for the moonlight, and the great hunger of the sea, and the terror of desolate places, --- all things that lure men to the unattainable.

Translation

I am the harlot that shaketh Death.
This shaking giveth the Peace of Satiate Lust.
Immortality jetteth from my skull,
And music from my vulva.

829 The reversal of the formula of IAO (see Book 4, part 3) implies roughly, the general Mystical, as opposed to the general Magical, Process.
830 From this it would appear that BABALON (who is speaking through one of Her ministers) is the Feminine (or Androgyne) equivalent and not merely complement --- of Pan. This is shewn in many of Her images.
Immortality jetteth from my vulva also,
For my Whoredom is a sweet scent like a seven-stringed instrument, Played unto God the Invisible, the all-ruler,
That goeth along giving the shrill scream of orgasm.

Every man that hath seen me forgetteth me never, and I appear oftentimes in the coals of the fire, and upon the smooth white skin of woman, and in the constancy of the waterfall, and in the emptiness of deserts and marshes, and upon great cliffs that look seaward; and in many strange places, where men seek me not. And many thousand times he beholdeth me not. And at last I smite myself into him as a vision smiteth into a stone, and whom I call must follow.

Now I perceive myself standing in a Druid circle, in an immense open plain.

A whole series of beautiful visions of deserts and sunsets and islands in the sea, green beyond imagination . . . . But there is no subsistence in them.831

A voice goes on: this is the holiness of fruitless love and aimless toil.
For in doing the thing for the things's sake is concentration, and this is the holiest of them that suit not the means to the end. For therein is faith and sympathy and a knowledge of the true Magick.832

Oh my beloved, that fliest in the air like a dove, beware of the falcon! oh my beloved, that springest upon the earth like a gazelle, beware of the lion!

There are hundreds of visions, trampling over one another. In each one the Angel of the Aethyr is mysteriously hidden.

Now I will describe the Angel of the Aethyr until the voice begins again.

831 These visions are semi-distractions, due to the Seer's human weakness, which could not endure the rapture of the Voice.
"Wisdom says: be strong! Then canst thou bear more joy." _AL_, II, 70.
During the great revelation of the Cairo Working, the Seer had been similarly ravished, and fainted under the excess of Enthusiasm.
832 _AL_:I:44 "For pure will, unassuaged of purpose, delivered from the lust of result, is every way perfect." This doctrine is fundamental to all working soever. Its neglect vitiates (by a paradox curious enough) all fruitfulness in any operation. One may indeed distinguish work worthy of being performed from menial toil (such as that of statesmen, financiers, and sewer rats) by this criterion. (Faith, spelt empirically

He is like one's idea of Sappho and Calypso, and all seductive and deadly things;\textsuperscript{833} heavy eye-lids, long lashes, a face like ivory, wonderful barbaric jewellery, intensely red lips, a very small mouth, tiny ears, a Grecian face. Over the shoulders is a black robe with a green collar; the robe is spangled with golden stars; the tunic is a pure soft blue.

Now the whole Aethyr is swallowed up in a forest of unquenchable fire, and fearlessly through it all a show-white eagle flies. And the eagle cries: the house also of death.\textsuperscript{834} Come away! The volume of the book [4] is open, the Angel waiteth without, for the summer is at hand. Come away!
For the Aeon is measured, and thy spans allotted. Come away! For the mighty sounds have entered into every angle.\textsuperscript{835} And they have awakened the Angels of the Aethyrs that slept these three hundred years.\textsuperscript{836}

With the opening of this Aethyr, the Enochian cosmogony is prophetically installed into Thelemic doctrine.

For in the Holy letter Shin, that is the Resurrection in the Book of Thoth [4], that is the Holy Spirit in the Trinity, that is three hundred in the tale of the years,\textsuperscript{837} hath the tomb been opened, so that this great wisdom might be revealed.

Come away! For the Second Triad is completed, and there remaineth only the Lord of the Aeon, the Avenger, the Child both Crowned and Conquering, the Lord of the Sword and the Sun, the Babe in the Lotus, pure from his birth, the Child of suffering, the Father of justice, unto whom be the glory throughout all the Aeon!\textsuperscript{838}

It is said here, plainly: “...the Second Triad is completed” but for the final prophetic deliverance, the vision of Horus. And again, this final ascent, in the same way that Prospero finally obtained his own vengeance by way of Magick, the Master Therion has yet to do this with his skrying of the final and 1\textsuperscript{st} Aethyr. Horus is of course, Ra-that given in the official A{'.} A{'.} ritual.) The Eagle is snow-white for Her purity; and He is the White Eagle of the

Hoor-Khuit; the god of war and vengeance. The concept of the spiritual warrior is well understood and that such inner turmoil spills into the community life of the world is a natural state of human existence; though many peace-niks and ego-losers might idealize in contradiction. But this is their impracticality. Yet, then, what is vengeance? It seems reasonable to assert that this is the spiritual plane that is the “holier place” of RHK in AL:III.48 (cf. Liber CCXXII in Volume IV of the Thelemic Qabalah)

The Cry of the 1st Aethyr, Which is Called LIL

1. "The Vision of The Crowned and Conquering Child, the Lord Of the Aeon."

Horus is --the god at Tiphareth and the macro-representation of the Holy Guardian Angel.

First, let praise and worship and honour and glory and great thank be given unto the Holy One, who hath permitted us to come thus far, who hath revealed unto us the ineffable mysteries, that they might be disclosed before men. And we humbly beseech His infinite goodness that he will be pleased to manifest unto us even the Mystery of the First Aethyr.

(Here followeth the Call of the Aethyr.)

The veil of the Aethyr is like the veil of night, dark azure, full of countless stars. And because the veil is infinite, at first one seeth not the winged globe of the sun that burneth in the centre thereof. Profound peace filleth me, --- beyond ecstasy, beyond thought, beyond being itself, IAIDA. (This word means "I am", but in a sense entirely beyond being.)

“I am”—these are the words of the Augoeides speaking from Tiphareth (☉). It is the Gnosis of the self in its relation with the totality of the Universe.

(Note—In Hebrew letters it adds to 26. In Hebrew letters the name of the Aethyr is 70, ayin; but by turning the Yetziratic attributions of the letters into Hebrew, it gives 66, is the sum of the numbers from 0 to 11.)

Yes; there is peace. There is no tendency of any sort, much less any observation or feeling or impression. There is only a faint consciousness, like the scent of jasmine.

840 LIL = סד = 76 = סד = Secret, a refuge; יב = rest, peace; and ב = a Servant (in the noble sense). In Hebrew LIL would be 70, the eye of Horus, ☉. But see a previous note on the twofold table, 15th Aethyr, where these letters rule the Universe. (scil. that of the present Aeon.)

841 The Seer was only too well aware that, considering the dire straits to which he was put to obtain the Second Aire, he was surely incapable of penetrating the First. In fact, only a full Magus could pierce the Second properly, and for the First, none but an Ipsissimus would be competent. This apprehension was in fact justified. Only now and then was he able to live at the level of LIL; much of the Vision and the Voice here printed is but a pale reflection in Rauch (and even that at the cost of infinite effort) of the Word of the Angel of the Aethyr. These "Ersatz-words" are indicated in the present edition by square brackets.

842 i.e. by taking I as Luna. In the note in the title, we have taken it as ☽, experience having shewn that this mode is more accurate. L is ☽ in her decrease, and ☽ her house. But the Enochian alphabet is referred to the Zodiac and the Elements; only indirectly to the planets; and it is imprudent to make any exception.
The body of the Seer is rested in a waking sleep that is deeper than sleep, and his mind is still; he seems like a well in the desert, shaded by windless palms.

The seer is outside the thought stream (“windless”) and in a state of Samadhi; the experience of the Knowledge & Conversation of the Holy Guardian Angel.

And it is night; and because the night is the whole night of space, and not the partial night of earth, there is no thought of dawn. For the light of the Sun maketh illusion, blinding man's eyes to the glory of the stars. And unless he be in the shadow of the earth, he cannot see the stars. So, also, unless he be hidden from the light of life, he cannot behold Nuit. Here, then, do I abide in unalterable midnight, utterly at peace.

The “glory of the stars” of course is the body or fabric of Nuit. And of course, the vision of the stars is the Starry Gnosis. To apprehend such a vision, one must fall ‘outside the thought of God’—per the ancient Gnostic scriptures. This would be “in the shadow of the earth.” Therefore, we can see why the ‘4’ has been so important, as the Earth is the realm of the ‘4’ that then must be united to the ‘7’ in order to make the Magick (11).

I have forgotten where I am, and who I am. I am hanging in nothing.

Now the veil opens of itself. (To Scribe. Come nearer; I don't want to have to speak so loudly.)

It is a little child covered with lilies and roses. He is supported by countless myriads of Archangels. The Archangels are all the same colourless brilliance, and every one of them is blind. Below the Archangels again are many, many other legions, and so on far below, so far that the eye cannot pierce. And on his forehead, and on his heart, and in his hand, is the secret sigil of the Beast. And of all this the glory is so great that all the spiritual senses fail, and their reflections in the body fail.

It is very strange. In my heart is rapture, holy and ineffable, absolutely beyond emotion; beyond even that bliss called Ananda, infinitely calm and pure. Yet at the gates of mine eyes stand tears, like warriors upon the watch, that lean on their spears, listening.

843 As the H.G.A. sitting in Tiphareth is informed directly by the Supernals, so it is as if the H.G.A. straddles both the Supernal (lilies) Triad and the Ethical (Roses) Triad.
844
845 There are long intervals between many of these paragraphs, the Seer having been lost to Being. The reader will note that “The Great and Terrible Angel” has not been mentioned, but comes in suddenly. This was because the Seer’s speech was inaudible, or never occurred. This angel was the ”Higher Genius” of the Seer.
This seems the ecstasy of union with the Holy Guardian Angel.

The great and terrible Angel keeps on looking at me, as if to bar me from the vision. There is another forcing my head down in sleep.

(It's very difficult to talk at all, because an impression takes such an immense time to travel from the will to the muscles. Naturally, I've no idea of time.)

The sense of time distortion is a character of creative ecstasy.

I have gone up again to the child, led by two Angels, abasing my head.

This child seems to be the child that one attempted to describe in "The Garden of Janus."846

The Holy Guardian Angel and the Magickal Childe seem complementary titles.

Every volition is inhibited. I have tried to say a lot, but it has always got lost on the way.

Holy art thou, O more beautiful than all the stars of the Night!

There has never been such peace, such silence. But these are positive things. Singing praises of things eternal amid the flames of first glory, and every note of every song is a fresh flower in the garland of peace.

The vision seems very pentacostal; an indication of the Holy Spirit; the Ruach.

This child danceth not, but it is because he is the soul of the two dances,—the right hand and the left hand, and in him they are one dance, the dance without motion.

The two dances seem the straddling of two triads; roses and lilies.

There is dew on all the fire. Every drop is the quintessence of the ecstasy of stars.

This is the ‘dew’ that one offers his angel in the performance of Liber Samekh.

Yet a third time am I led to him, prostrating myself seven times at every step. There is a perfume in the air, reflected down even to the body of the seer. That perfume thrills his body with an ecstasy that is like love, like sleep.

846 See the Winged Beetle and Eqx. I, No. 3.
And this is the song [of the H.G.A.]:

I am the child of all who am the father of all, for from me come forth all things, that I might be. I am the fountain in the snows, and I am the eternal sea. I am the lover, and I am the beloved, and I am the first-fruits of their love. I am the first faint shuddering of the Light, and I am the loom wherein night weaveth her impenetrable veil.

I am the captain of the hosts of eternity; of the swordsmen and the spearmen and the bowmen and the charioteers. I have led the armies of the east against the armies of the west, and the armies of the west against the armies of the east. For I am Peace.

My groves of olive [garden] were planted by an harlot [Babalon], and my horses were bred by a thief. I have trained my vines upon the spears of the Most High, and with my laughter have I slain a thousand men.

With the wine in my cup have I mixed the lightnings, and I have carved my bread with a sharp sword.

With my folly have I undone the wisdom of the Magus, even as with my judgments I have overwhelmed the universe. I have eaten the pomegranate in the House of Wrath, and I have crushed out the blood of my mother between mill-stones to make bread.

There is nothing that I have not trampled beneath my feet. There is nothing that I have not set a garland on my brow. I have wound all things about my waist as a girdle. I have hidden all things in the cave of my heart. I have slain all things because I am Innocence. I have lain with all things because I am Untouched Virginity. I have given birth to all things because I am Death.

Stainless are my lips, for they are redder than the purple of the vine, and of the blood wherewith I am intoxicated. Stainless is my forehead, for it is whiter than the wind and the dew that cooleth it.

I am light, and I am night, and I am that which is beyond them. I am speech, and I am silence, and I am that which is beyond them. I am life, and I am death, and I am that which is beyond them. I am war, and I am peace, and I am that which is beyond them. I am weakness, and I am strength, and I am that which is beyond them. Yet by none of these can man reach up to me. Yet by each of them must man reach up to me.
Thou shalt laugh at the folly of the fool. Thou shalt learn the wisdom of the Wise. And thou shalt be initiate in holy things. And thou shalt be learned in the things of love. And thou shalt be mighty in the things of war. And thou shalt be adept in things occult. And thou shalt interpret the oracles. And thou shalt drive all these before thee in thy car, and though by none of these canst thou reach up to me, yet by each of these must thou attain to me. And thou must have the strength of the lion, and the secrecy of the hermit. And thou must turn the wheel of life. And thou must hold the balances of Truth.

He becomes the Messiah in all ways; warrior, gate-opener, Rabbi. This, despite his desire, as describe in MITP; though not the Chrisis idea of Messiah.

Thou must pass through the great Waters, a Redeemer. Thou must have the tail of the scorpion, and the poisoned arrows of the Archer, and the dreadful horns of the Goat. And so shalt thou break down the fortress that guardeth the Palace of the King my son. And thou must work by the light of the Star and of the Moon and of the Sun, and by the dreadful light of judgment that is the birth of the Holy Spirit within thee. When these shall have destroyed the universe, then mayest thou enter the palace of the Queen my daughter.

The circle of stars is the Daughter of Light in Liber Loagaeth.

Blessed, blessed, blessed; yea, blessed; thrice and four times blessed is he that hath attained to look upon thy face. For I will hurl thee forth from my presence as a whirling thunderbolt to guard the ways, and whom thou smitest shall be smitten indeed. And whom thou loveth shall be loved indeed. And whether by smiting or by love thou workest, each one shall see my face, a glimmer through a thousand veils. And they shall rise up from love's sleep or death's, and gird themselves with a girdle of snake-skin for wisdom, and they shall wear the white tunic of purity, and the apron of flaming orange for will, and over their shoulders shall they cast the panther's skin of courage. And they shall wear the nemyss of secrecy and the ateph crown of truth. And on their feet shall they put sandals made of the skin of breasts, that they may trample upon all they were, yet also that its toughness shall support them, and protect their feet, as they pass upon the mystical way that lieth through the pylons. And upon their breasts shall be the Rose and Cross of light and life, and in their hands the hermit's staff and lamp. Thus shall they set out upon the never-ending journey, each step of which is an unutterable reward.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Holy; yea, thrice and four times holy art thou, because thou hast attained to look upon my face; not by my favour only, not by thy magick only, may this be won. Yet it is written: "Unto the persevering mortal the blessed Immortals are swift."

Mighty, mighty, mighty, mighty; yea, thrice and four times mighty art thou. He that riseth up against thee shall be thrown down, though thou raise not so much as thy little finger against him. And he that speaketh evil against thee shall be put to shame, though thy lips utter not the littlest syllable against him. And he that thinketh evil concerning thee shall be confounded in his thought, although in thy mind arise not the least thought of him. And they shall be brought unto subjection unto thee, and serve thee, though thou wilt it not. And it shall be unto them a grace and a sacrament, and ye shall all sit down together at the supernal banquet, and ye shall feast upon the honey of the gods, and be drunk upon the dew of immortality --- FOR I AM HORUS, THE CROWNED AND CONQUERING CHILD, WHOM THOU KNEWEST NOT!

Horus becomes the symbol of the Magickal Childe and the Holy Guardian Angel of the planet herself. Horus is then the new Adam Kadmon.

Pass thou on, therefore, O thou Prophet of the Gods, unto the Cubical Altar of the Universe; there shalt thou receive every tribe and kingdom and nation into the mighty Order that reacheth from the frontier fortresses that guard the Uttermost Abyss unto My Throne.

This is the formula of the Aeon, and with that the voice of LIL, that is the Lamp of the Invisible Light, is ended. Amen.

849 This prophecy has proved true in many cases, often in the most strange and unexpected ways.
